SECOND DAY OF ROUND-UP IS BETTER THAN FIRST; PROGRAM GOES WITH SNAP AND THRILL

There was everything to the Round-Up program of yesterday afternoon necessary to make up a good Round-Up program, and that is saying a whole mouthful. Hotly contested races, man and brute battles that were not all one-sided, daring exhibitions, enough accidents to emphasize the danger of cowboy sports, enough comedy to vary the mood of the crowd, perfect weather and a great crowd.

As on the first day the cowgirls' relay race, one of the great thrillers of the latter half of the program, contributed the most serious accident. This time it was Josephine Sherry who was eliminated by mishap. When rounding the west turn on the first relay, the red-figured rider was thrown to the track, turning over and over. She was rendered senseless but her injuries were not serious. Donna Card, who was injured Thursday in this race, furnished the competition for Champion Mabel De Long yesterday and finished close behind the pretty Washington girl. However, the two accidents, combined with Miss De Long's riding and her fast horses, have given her a margin over her rivals that assures her retaining her title.

The steer bulldozing also brought the hospital corps on the run, and it was none other than Buffalo Vernon, first Round-Up champion steer thrower, who was carried out. Vernon was making a heroic try for a comeback. He left his horse just in front of the judges stand. The steer was running so fast that when he struck the ground, animal and man were thrown heavily. Vernon struck on one shoulder and never moved from where he fell until placed on the stretcher. He reappeared later and waved his hand to the crowd to show that he was still no candidate for the patients' ward. These were the two principal accidents, though there were several of more minor nature.

Nap Lynch, who won the relay yesterday, also won the pony express, duplicating his victory of the first day over Gerking and Bob Armstrong. Mabel De Long, winner of the relay, also won the cowpony race by a length. She is the popular favorite with the crowd.

George Fischer, the colored cowboy, seems to have a monopoly on the maverick race. On both days his loop shot out first from the group of twenty cowboys and settled over the horns of the fleeing steer.

The bucking contest yesterday afternoon saw some great rides made. Bob Burke, younger son of Poker Jim, the blind old Indian who leads the parades of his tribesmen each day, drew Angel, who made another Indian the champion last year. The sympathy of the crowd was with him until he showed that Jackson Sundown is not the only red buckaroo who can ride the big bay. Angel leaped high in the air, pinwheel, kicked and twisted but the Indian boy kept a firm seat and he was given a great cheer. Ed McCarty of Cheyenne made the most sensational ride of the day on the great little buckler, Cuddasac, and his name was sure to be listed with those to qualify for the semi-finals. Yakima Cant, than whom there are few better riders, pawed McKay from shoulder to rump. Ben Oakes rode safely through all of Old Colonel's pitching and Dock Osborn made a wild ride safely on Smythy. But the victory was not always with the cowboy. Headlight added his second victim of the show to his long list by going out from under Slim Bill Riddings, the cowboy whom Proctor, the sculptor, took as a model. Monkey Wrench disposed of Dave Myers in just two jumps and John Spaul, erstwhile champion, got an awful shaking on Whistling Annie's back. Tom Douglas, the cowboy clown, showed his real form on the sunfishing. Mrs. Wiggs, making a good ride in spite of the fact he was left hanging on the fence. Fire Alarm, with Jay Talbot on his back, ran right over the moving picture machine and Bill McMurray carried Arthur Spadden over the fence. One of the best rides of the day was made by Dave White on Tom Stevens, the newest acquisition of the Round-Up. Narclase McKay and Wilkins Williams, both Indians, also mastered their horses, Lightfoot and Corbett.

Wiggie made his usual wicked buck and Clarence Plant gave a good exhibition of buckaroo art on him. Cyrolone, the big black high jumper, nearly carried Kenneth Barrett over the moon. Barrett rode safe. Sam Condon raked the sides of old Grave Digger and Johnny Maggert managed to keep his seat on Long Creek.

There were six of the best ropers in the world entered in the steer roping yesterday but Old Man Hard Luck followed them into the arena. George Wier, twice champion, made a perfect throw but his lariet parted when he busted his steer. He had to use a second rope and this delayed his time which, after all, was second best of the day. Johnny Judd made the best time, busting his animal hard despite the fact his loop went over the animal's head. Practically all of the other ropers had hard luck.

Jim Roach was the winner in the stage coach race yesterday his victory over James Ghangrow being a duplicate of his victory over the Kirkpatrick team the day before.

Governor Losses Marc.

The grand mounted parade was grand in more than name. Governor Withycombe did not lead the parade yesterday. He had shipped his beautiful mare here especially for the purpose but the boy with whom he left it was lost in the shuffle.

Added to the many trick and fancy exhibition stunts yesterday was the drunken ride of Sid Seale, just as he has done it at other Round-Ups. Tom Douglas the clown, pulled some real comedy stuff in the fancy roping and is proving the greatest laugh maker that has ever been in the park.

Attention Land Buyers!

No doubt you have heard of the Eight Mile territory near Heppner, Oregon, in Morrow county, which is conceded by all, to be the very best wheat producing districts in Morrow county.

We have just listed a few of the very best wheat ranches in the Eight Mile district.

1120 acres, all tillable except 50 acres, ordinary buildings, fenced and cross fenced, well watered, lays fine, all can be combined, church near by and school house on the ranch. Price, $30.00 per acre, half cash.

800 acres, about 700 acres tillable, good buildings, well watered, fenced and cross fenced; all lays fine and can be combined, near church and school house, running water in house and barn lot, 200 acres in summerfallow, all goes. Price, $30.00 per acre, one half cash.

This is just a part of our listings and will bear the closest kind of inspection. The prices are right and the soil is good and should interest any good wheat raiser.

You know the climatic conditions in Eastern Oregon, and all we ask you to do is to go with us and take a look at the land.

At The MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

WILLIAM S. HART AS "THE SQUARE DEAL MAN"
Pastime Sunday and Monday.
William S. Hart, the western character actor featured in "Truthful Lover" and "The Gun Fighter," will be seen in a somewhat different role than his famous "bad man" when "The Square Deal Man," a Triangle-Kay Bee picture produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, is presented at the Pastime theater Sunday and Monday.

"The Square Deal Man," which is the work of J. G. Hawks, is a drama of the western plains. It tells the story of a gambler who threw down his cards for a slip of a girl and thereby won his greatest stake. Romantic interest is stimulated by the part the girl plays in turning the notorious Jack O'Diamonds from the game of the roulette wheel to the management of a ranch which he has rightfully won.

Large Montana Land Company located in Pendleton.
The Montana-Western Lands Company, incorporated, have opened offices in the East Oregonian Building, 550 Main street, Pendleton, Ore. This is one of the largest land holding companies in Montana. Their main office being located at Conrad, Montana. They operate principally in the rich wheat belt north of Great Falls and on the main line of the Great Northern railway in Teton and Toole counties. Thomas S. Molesworth, district manager of the company, with headquarters in Walla Walla was a caller in the city Tuesday. Mr. Molesworth reports large sales by the company in the Walla Walla and other nearby districts this summer. $200,000 worth of land being sold during the past few weeks and nearly $2,000,000 to inland Empire farmers during the past year. He reports parties of 3 to 5 once or twice a week going to look over the land and says that with few exceptions every man who goes up there buys land. In a few days they will have a display of Montana products in their office here in Pendleton.—Adv.

Notice.
I wish to announce to the public that I have returned and resumed practice at Room 3, Schmidt Bldg, Pendleton.

Excellent Vaudeville and Exceptionally Fine Picture at the Alta Sunday and Monday.

The Forbidden Path with Susie Hayakawa and Vivian Martin playing the leading roles will be one of the best dramas we have had the pleasure of showing. The Great Stadium Trio present phenomenal gymnasts and Eddie Smith is a delightful entertainer.

Law of the North at Cosy Sunday and Monday.

North of 52 a man's a man and his past's his own, and here in the frozen north lies a story which takes in a very large scope from an adventuresome love story to the murderous whiskey runners and gamblers of the north. How the girl frees her lover and brings the murderer to justice makes a romantic story of unusual appeal.

Night life has received another blow. The shoe shining parlors are to close early.
