OTTO MARTIN, WOUNDED, LYING IN BRITISH HOSPITAL, WANTS NEWS FROM PENDLETON PALS

Longing for word from the boys he used to know in Pendleton and for a copy of the East Oregonian which he used to "peddle" in his boyhood days here V. O. R. Martin, son of Rudolph Martin, lying wounded in an English hospital has written the following touching letter to this paper:

Moore Barracks Hospital, Ward No. 3, Shorncliffe, Kent, England, Aug. 29, 1917.

East Oregonian Pub. Co., Pendleton, Ore., U. S. A.

Gentlemen:—In my kid days I sold the E. O. and it never occurred to me that later in life I should long to read the old sheet so badly.

I am writing this from my cot in a Canadian military hospital. I am to be operated upon in the morning and sure hope to come through O. K.

There are seven of us American boys here in this ward who joined before the U. S. A. tangled, or you may be sure we would be with her now. And there are thousands from the good old U. S. A. in the same boat. But, what's the odds; it's all for the same good cause. Only, we just couldn't wait so here we are and are doing our bit just the same, even though we would prefer doing it under old glory!

Well, I won't keep you waiting. I'll tell you who I am. I am Rudolph Martin's son. If Fred Lampkin is still on the job he'll recall it. Martin. Family Grocer, for many years.

And if you don't mind, I'd appreciate very much if you would mail me a copy or so of the good old E. O. And as I haven't received a letter for quite some time and any of the "youngsters" I used to go to school with would care to drop me a line, I sure would appreciate it.

I am doomed to be here convalescing, for some time before I return to France and a letter from an old schoolmate would be cheering, indeed. Would sure be glad to hear from Geo. La Fontaine or George Stangler.

Thanking you, gentlemen, in advance for a copy or so of the E. O. I am, very truly

PTE. V. O. R. MARTIN,
No. 525193, C. A. M. C. Care D. M. S. Army P. O. London, Eng.

Note—Copies of the East Oregonian have been forwarded to the wounded man and local friends of Martin are urged to write him in care of the address given.

$500 IN PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN AT HORSE SHOW

JUDGES FOR EVENT TO BE HELD HERE OCT. 6 WILL BE SELECTED FROM O. A. C. EXTENSION FACULTY.

Five hundred dollars in cash prizes will be given at the Horse and Mule show to be held here Saturday, October 6, according to announcement made today by the secretary of the association, Dr. C. W. Lassen. The judges of the stock on exhibit will be selected from the O. A. C. extension faculty.

For the coming show the following is given as a partial list of the different classes:

- Purebred Percheron stallions, 3 years and over.

- Team draft horses.
- Team mules.
- Shoeman's prize.

For all classes above there will be a first prize, $10; 2nd, $5.

It is the hope of the officers of the show to have a good showing of pure-bred cattle, sheep and hogs. For these there will be only ribbon prizes. At this time there will be a number of horses shown that will be for sale and anybody wishing to buy a breeding animal will do well to attend the show and see them at first hand.

Mr. B. E. Anderson, county commissioner, will give a prize of $25 for the best mule colt out of his jack.

During the show the fine Hereford and Shorthorn bulls recently purchased at Chicago by the Pendleton Meat Company and James Sturk's will be on exhibit.

There will be no entry fees charged for exhibitors and the association will provide free hay for all stock on exhibit. Exhibitors will have passes giving them admittance to the grounds without cost.

A new telephone attachment that must be operated to make a connection shows the number of calls that have been made and the number remaining on a limited service line.

BAKER REVIEWS DIVISION

War Secretary Enthused by "Rainbow" Contingent.

CAMP MILLS, Minn., N. Y., Sept. 25.—The "Rainbow division," made up of national guardsmen from 27 states who are to aid in making the world safe for democracy, was reviewed by Secretary of War Newton D. Baker heretoday. For one hour and 25 minutes, Mr. Baker, flanked by Major General Bliss, the new chief of staff of the army; Major General W. A. Mann, commander of the division, and Major General McArthur, watched the 27,000 men march past. It was the first time Mr. Baker ever had seen a division of United States soldiers on review.

"It is the most impressive sight I have ever witnessed," said Mr. Baker. "The troops are in admirable condition and the highest of spirits. The country is to be congratulated on this manifestation of strength and unity. This division, drawn from all parts of the country, represents in a significant way the national enterprise in which the country is engaged.

"This division is an evidence of the character of the superb effort the country is making in behalf of freedom and liberty," said Mr. Baker in a brief speech at the conclusion of the review. "No one can see this without having inspiring thoughts and happy anticipation of the outcome when our boys get in the field."
