THE MORNING.

The morning, that's fresh with such wonder of light;

The morning, that folds back the curtains of night;

That puts on a rainbow of silver and dew;

And sets by a stream singing gladness to you.

The morning, the morning, that sees things so clear,

Their laughter and sweetness, And beauty and cheer.

The morning, that's rich with such wisdom of trees,

And infinite playing of pipes of the breeze;

And shifting and drifting of shade and of shine;

The morning, that's full of such breakers of wine.

The morning, the morning, that makes you believe

There's nothing to sigh for, And nothing to grieve.

MR. AITCHISON'S CHANCE

THROUGH the appointment of Clyde B. Aitchison upon the interstate commerce commission Oregon is given for the first time representation on that important body. The action of the president is complimentary to the state and Mr. Aitchison's ability is such that the selection is a creditable one from that standpoint. Though from a coast city, Portland, the new commissioner, should be of sufficient breadth of view to insure fairness for the interior or inter oceanic region as well as to the coast terminal points. For years past the I. C. C. has been working to eliminate old injustices and to fix railroad rates on a basis of equity. This calls for giving first consideration to the cost of service and precludes charging a short haul shipper more than a long haul shipper. In other words an interior dealer shipping goods out of Chicago should not have to pay a higher rate than is charged for shipping the same goods to Portland or Seattle. Coast points make the claim that low terminal rates are justified by water competition but they are not. If freight can be brought by water cheaper than by rail let it be handled by water. It is neither fair nor economically sound to allow a railroad to give an unnaturally low rate to a coast point so as to stifle ocean commerce. It is a perversion of nature and means an imposition upon the interior for the sake of the coast cities. With these observations upon one important feature of the railroad regulation problem the East Oregonian congratulates Clyde B. Aitchison upon the high position to which he has been named and ventures the hope that in the performance of his duties he will find an inspiration in the broad vision and strong moral courage of the president who appointed him.

TWO THIRDS FROM THE RICH

UNDER the war revenue bill as agreed upon by the senate and house conference committees the sum of $2,700,000,000 is provided for and of this sum one billion will be raised by taxes on excess war profits and $842,000,000 from an income tax. Therefore it may be seen that approximately two thirds of the war revenue will come expressly from what may be termed taxes on the rich. It is right that this should be done and considering past records it may be said that congress is doing a good job. In Spanish war days the legislation now in line for adoption would have been branded as the work of red handed anarchists and Wall street would have been shocked out of 10 years growth. There may be some room for criticism that the present bill does not tax rich sufficiently hard but the more reasonable view is that those senators and representatives who talked so strenuously for higher taxes on wealth were working chiefly for political effect or else, like Senator LaFollette, may be suspected of trying to hamper rather than help good war legislation.

STAR PITCHERS OF GIANTS AND WHITE SOX

FERDIE SCHUPP

EDDIE CICOTTE

Eddie Cicotte, star twirler of the White Sox, who will no doubt be one of the main dependencies of Combs' team in the world championship series with the New York Giants of the National League, has pitched thirty-five games this season. He has won twenty-four and lost eleven. His average is thus .686. Ferdie Schupp, southpaw of the Giants, has won nineteen games and lost seven, and his average is .721.

Cicotte has been accused by baseball payers of tampering with the ball, and umpires have thrown out balls he was using. But nothing definite has been found to prove unprofessional methods.

published in a town which for growth and general progressiveness is a source of pleased surprise to all who visit there. Under the guidance of George P. Cheney, publisher, the Record-Chiefchain is aggressive in its news columns and editorial comment. As might be expected of such a newspaper it now strikes a virile note of patriotism as may be seen by the following:

"The same day that Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin was justifying the sinking of the Lusitania, the government gave out the German ambassador's message to the kaiser asking for more money to be used to influence members of congress in favor of Prussian barbarism. Thus LaFollette and the kaiser's bribery fund worked toward the same end; kindred enemies of human liberty and freedom."

"This view of Senator LaFollette is justified by the Wisconsin man's own speeches and actions. LaFollette had a splendid opportunity for service to the nation but he has passed it up and assumed the role of obstructionist and demagogue at a time when the country has no time or patience with such stuff. It will be hard for the American people to forgive him."

The staging of the O. A. C. Idaho football game for Pendleton this year further emphasizes the prestige of this place as the best located and liveliest city in eastern Oregon; we have here an opportunity that should be met in true Pendleton spirit.

But it will matter little whether LaFollette is impeached or not for he has already destroyed his influence; the average American has no use for a public man who cannot come to the front and help when the nation's boys are on the fighting line.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian, Oct. 1, 1889.)

Elbert Reidi has come to the Yakima country to look after some sheep range, purchased by Weston & Reidi. J. T. Lambirth is carrier pro tem during his absence.

A young man named John Vaughan is on the sick list with typhoid fever.

Horatio Selfridge, son of the former O. R. & N. agent at Pendleton is in town from Okanogan on his way to attend the exhibition at Portland.

Many people about town would be thankful if the electric lights would start a glimmer just a little earlier.

The Indian school is willing more rapidly this year than at any previous term, says Industrial Teacher Hasbrouck. About 25 pupils are in attendance.

Charles Sharp is down from Athens; he is teaching the Weston, Adams and Athona bands which are all improving rapidly.

LOCAL BANK TO CARE FOR WHEAT MOVEMENT

Crop Valued at Close to $8,000,000 is to be Handled.

In moving the wheat crop of Umatilla county practically the entire financial end of the work will be handled by the Pendleton banks. It became known today. In response to inquiries from M. H. Houser as to what they could do in the matter the banks have given assurance that all tributary business will be taken care of. Inasmuch as the wheat is valued at close to eight million dollars it will be seen that the handling end of the task will not be a light one.

News was received here today that the Portland branch of the San

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 50c and 25c per box. All druggists.
