

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

L. J. Lynch Ill.

L. J. Lynch of the Blawett Harvester Co. is confined to his home on Jackson street with illness.

Married in Walla Walla.

Alexander McLain and Mrs. Nellie M'Daniel, both of this city, secured a marriage license in Walla Walla Tuesday and were married there. They have returned to Pendleton to make their home.

On Gun Crew Now.

George Durvaux Wednesday received a photograph of a gun crew of one of Uncle Sam's war ships in which his nephew, Henry Latourelle, is one easily recognizable. However he does not know what ship his nephew is on or in what waters.

Gets His Liquor Back.

G. M. Fletcher, who not so long ago was arrested and convicted here on a bootlegging charge and who subsequently got into similar trouble in Walla Walla, has won out in that city to the extent of forcing the state to return to him two and a half quarts of whiskey and one quart of beer.

Junior Officers Are Elected.

Freshmen Rules Laid Down.

Upperclassmen at the High School yesterday morning posted rules for the conduct of the freshmen at that institution, beginning next Monday. Ninety nine "spats," according to the poster, is the penalty for not wearing a certain kind of head gear, entering the building by a rear door, and parting the hair in the middle.

Labor Commissioner Here.

O. P. Hoff, state labor commissioner, was in Pendleton yesterday while enroute to Spokane and investigated labor conditions here. He found a shortage in carpenters and will try to send more up here from the valley. Mr. Hoff is going to Spokane to try to stop the sending of men to Astoria without informing them of the strike situation there.

Funeral of Mrs. Stewart.

The funeral of Mrs. Earl Stewart, whose death suddenly in Portland was a great shock to her many friends, was held yesterday morning at the Pison chapel, the body arrived Wednesday evening accompanied by the children and husband. Rev. E. H. Cleveland of the Baptist church made the funeral address, paying an eloquent tribute to the gentle character and motherly worth of the deceased. The body was taken in the afternoon to Pilot Rock for interment by the side of other members of the family.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

The jury in the case of the Van Petten Co. vs Carl Newquist Wednesday afternoon returned a verdict against the defendant for $47.96 plus $25 attorney fees.

Church Ladies Reduce Debt.

The women of the Christian church have just made a good payment on the church debt. As a result of serving Round-Up meals, the Ladies Aid of the Christian church made a $500 payment to the general church extension society, which holds the loan on their building. This reduces the indebtedness to $7500.

Released by Jury: Enlists.

Paul Davis Ulrich, the young Pilot Rock man who was arrested during the Round-Up for stealing an auto for a joy ride, enlisted Wednesday as a fireman in the navy after the grand jury had released him by returning a not true bill. Robert Lee Greer of Bend also enlisted Wednesday as a fireman and both went to Portland on the night train.

Preparing for Convention.

At a meeting at the county organization Farmers Union to be held here Saturday plans will be taken up for handling the state convention which is to be held in Pendleton early in December. The coming state meeting will be an important affair and it is expected that between 400 or 500 men will be present counting the local members. The county meeting to be held Saturday is the regular quarterly session.

Heard McAdoo and Lane.

Quite a number of local people heard the speeches by Secretary McAdoo and Secretary Lane in Portland Wednesday and bring back reports of strong enthusiasm shown by the audience. Secretary McAdoo spoke three times yesterday and in the evening Secretary Lane spoke at the auditorium to a big and appreciative audience. Among those down from here were R. O. Earnhart, W. W. Harrah, Charles Howell, W. L. Thompson, Thomas Hampton, M. O. LaHue and others.

University Grads to Meet.

All graduates and students of University of Oregon are requested to assemble at the room of the Pendleton Commercial Association Saturday evening, October 13th, at 7:30 P. M. for the purpose of organization to insure proper welcome to President Campbell of that institution when he speaks in this city on Tuesday evening next. The call is made by W. E. Lowell, J. S. Johns and M. R. Chesby Judges, S. A. Lowell to act. All graduates, and all who have ever attended the university, men and women are urged to be present.

Boys Willys-Knight.

George D. Peabler has purchased a Willys-Knight touring car of the Overland agency.

Labor Commissioner Here.

O. P. Hoff, state labor commissioner, was in Pendleton yesterday enroute to Spokane on some labor business. While here he consulted with his local deputy, M. H. Allen.

Sues for $75.

W. G. Clarke has brought suit against R. Abrahamson, to collect the sum of $75 alleged to be due on a note, the complaint being filed by D. W. Bailey.

Cloe is Exempted.

Because the facts show he was but 20 years of age when he registered, Earl Perdus Cloe's name has been cancelled from the draft list in this county. Orders to this effect were received by the local board yesterday from Adjutant General White.

Stillman Is Secretary.

H. J. Stillman has been elected as secretary of the Building and Loan Association in lieu of Will Moore who has resigned that position owing to the fact he is soon to move to Portland to become collector of customs.

Suit Over Harvester.

J. H. Deardorf and D. T. Depperman have brought suit through D. W. Bailey against the Idaho National Harvester Co. to secure judgment for $1200, the price alleged to have been paid for a harvester which is said to have failed to come up to guaranty.

Takes $5,000,000 Bonds.

Word has been received by J. A. Murray, new local manager for the telephone company to the effect the company and employees will take $5,000,000 of the new liberty bond issue. The employees will be given the bonds by the company on an installment basis where such a plan is desired.

Soldiers Shooting Pheasants.

Complaint was brought to Pendleton Wednesday by a Campbell farmer to the effect that the soldiers stationed at Campbell dam are killing many China pheasants contrary to law. He declared they have also killed chickens and three calves belonging to farmers.

Rally Day at Church.

Sunday will be Rally Day at the Christian church and a special effort will be made to secure the attendance of every member at the morning services. A special program in which different Sunday school classes will participate has been arranged and the music will be out of the ordinary.

Will Speak for Liberty Bonds.

Rev. J. E. Snyder of the Presbyterian church will leave Sunday night to join Congressman C. N. McArthur on a speaking tour in central Oregon for the Liberty Bonds. They will speak Monday at Bend, Tuesday at Redmond, Wednesday at Prineville and Thursday at Madras.

To Take Back Runaway Girl.

An officer of Burley, Idaho, arrived on No. 11 today to take back Frances Schulz, the runaway girl who was taken off the train here yesterday morning by the police. She lived a short distance from town and evidently tiring of school, drew out $50 from her own bank account and bought a ticket for Seattle. She is about 17 years old.

Blasting Breaks Power Line.

The Warren Construction Co. fired forty blasts yesterday during the noon hour in connection with the building of the Wild Horse road and the power line to Pendleton was broken. It was 1:30 before the linemen could repair the damage. Because of this interruption in the power service and the extended amount of the world's series game, it was necessary to hold out much news from the East Oregonian yesterday. It is not anticipated that any more blasting will have to be done.

For the Marshall Meeting.

The handling of the Vice President Marshall meeting in this city November 6 has been turned over to the Liberty Loan committee and this morning W. L. Thompson, chairman of that committee named a sub-committee to handle the details. He named E. B. Aldrich, J. V. Tallman and Rev. J. E. Snyder. The vice president is to be here as one of the lyceum numbers and the evening will be a charge affair. It is possible he may consent to make another address while here.

Civil Service Exams.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces that a clerk-carrier examination will be held at Pendleton, Oregon, on November 10, 1917, to establish an eligible register from which selection may be made to fill vacancies as they may occur in the positions of clerk and carrier at the Pendleton, Oregon, postoffice. Applicants should apply at once to the local secretary, Tot C. Mangold, board of civil service examiners, at the postoffice, or the secretary Eleventh Civil Service District, Seattle, Washington, for application blank and full information.

EVERY THING TO EAT.

DEAD TEETH

Wide-awake dentists are doing a lot of things today that, in the light of a generation ago, one would have said were impossible. They are showing us, for instance, that the retention of certain "dead teeth" menace of pyorrhea, "blind" abscesses may mean serious illness. High grade dentistry reasonable prices.
