Penny Shortage on Coast.
SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 31.—New government war taxes have caused a penny shortage on the Pacific coast, Seattle bankers declared today. The penny, once despised, is coming into general use. Banks have sent frantic appeals for big shipments of pennies to the mint, but the government evidently has been unable to meet the demand. One bank reported today that customers are asking for several hundred dollars worth of pennies every day.

Library Building Started.
CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 21.—Construction of the camp library building was started here this week. The building will be 40 by 120 feet, will seat 200 persons and shelve 12,000 volumes. As over half of the books will always be in circulation, the library can accommodate at least 25,000 volumes.

J. T. Jennings, librarian of the Seattle Public Library, has been named director and camp organizer at Camp Lewis.

Soldier by day and movie magnate by night is Robert T. Kane, president of five moving picture corporations and a dominating influence in others. From a corner of a barracks building here, Kane directs the affairs of the Parafata studios in southern California, employing 350 persons. He has superintended the production of several pictures since his arrival here. He likes soldiering and has been made a sergeant.

Miss Martin Squelched.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.—He may be heckled, but the lowly Portland husband, can when occasion demands, arise in his might and assert his rights.

When Miss Anna Martin, militia suffragist from Reno, Nevada, asked for Oregon recruits for the White House picket lines at a meeting of the Portland civic league, the above mentioned l. p. h. promptly and determinedly—and loudly—sat on the proposition.

Vice President in Portland.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.—Thomas R. Marshall, vice president of the United States, arrived in Portland this morning.

Following a trip over the Columbia river driveway this morning, the vice president was the guest of honor at a reception in the Hotel Malmorah this afternoon. Although Marshall arrived at 7 o'clock, thousands turned out to welcome him.

Squirrels Waste Grain.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.—Pro-German squirrels in eastern Oregon are fighting the food conservation movement.

Thousands of bushels of grain have been wasted in the inland Empire by squirrels, according to Fred VanHorn, a producer of the Echo district, who was in Portland recently.

Farmers and state food authorities will strafe the squirrels.

To Drain River Land.
TRUDDALE, Ore., Oct. 31.—Plans are completed here today for the creation of a "little Holland" along the banks of the Columbia river.

Sixty five hundred acres of rich land under water during the wet season will be drained and put into cultivation.

PILOT ROCK'S BABY SHOW BIG SUCCESS

DOCTORS DECLARE CHILDREN ARE FINEST GROUP THEY HAVE EVER TESTED.

Red Cross Ball to Be Given Next Saturday Night; Man Reported Lost in Mountains Is Located.

(East Oregonian Special.)
PILOT ROCK, Oct. 30.—The baby show held at this place Saturday was a decided success. In spite of the disagreeable day, there were about forty five babies examined. Six doctors were present to give tests. They all say the babies were the finest group they ever tested. The doctors from Pendleton were Dr. Henderson, Dr. Parker, Dr. Moore and Dr. MeKeleway. They were assisted by Dr. De Vaul and several local women.

Several women motored out to the home of Mrs. Lewis Matthews on Stewart creek, Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in knitting after which a delightful luncheon was served. The ladies going were Mrs. J. M. Gilbert, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Ward Stanley, Mrs. E. B. Casteel, Mrs. L. C. Scharpf, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. A. M. Bond and Miss Elma Boylen.

Man Reported Lost in Woods.
There was quite an excitement in Pilot Rock Saturday afternoon when Geo. Johnston came in from the mountains with the report that Albert Kennison was lost. Twenty-five men started immediately from here to hunt for him. When they reached Girz-came they found Albert there. At 2 o'clock the afternoon before, he had seen a deer. He kept following it until it was too late to return to camp. He camped all alone that night and the next morning when he returned to the main camp to join his party they were out searching for him. He then walked to Gardane, the nearest town, and phoned in that he was alright.

Dr. E. O. Parker has been called out here to see E. T. Fanning several times this week. Mr. Fanning is quite ill. His mother from Portland is expected to arrive Monday.

Mrs. Yesta Stanley will leave this week for Colfax, Wash., where she will teach school this winter.

Exempted from Service.
Lon Etter has received word from the district exemption board at La Grande stating that he has been exempted on industrial grounds. Archie Stephen Bond also received word that he has been certified for service and will be called soon.

Mrs. J. M. Hodges was in Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stewart were here Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Johnston were in Pendleton Saturday having dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Currie were visitors here Saturday morning.

Mrs. Johnston from Ukiah is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Knotts. She is accompanied by Baby Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson attended the baby show here Saturday. Mrs. Frank Chapman was here Saturday.

Albert Boylen and wife brought their young son to the baby show Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bond motored to Pendleton Sunday.

Dr. J. L. Gililand is here from Pullman, Wash. He is accompanied by his daughter Virginia. They will start for Missouri Monday afternoon where they will visit three or four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fanning are here from Portland and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Scharpf. Maxine Schaeffer spent Sunday in Pilot Rock.

Mrs. Ulman from Pendleton is visiting her mother, Mrs. Levi Eldridge. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Comper motored to Pendleton Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mrs. A. G. Straighten.

Joseph M. Jones from Colfax, Wash., who has been spending a few days here, has returned to his home.

Herbert Boylen and wife were business visitors here Monday.

Mrs. Hannah arrived in Pilot Rock

this week to spend the winter. Hei husband is teaching school here.

Gives Food Conservation Talk.
Dr. McNary gave a food conservation talk in the Odd Fellows hall on Sunday afternoon. Only a small crowd was present as the meeting was not advertised.

The posters are out for the big Red Cross ball which will be given next Saturday night. There will be Pendleton music. Quite a number of tickets have been sold.

On account of the cold weather Monday, several water pipes are broken and in places the streets are muddy.

Mrs. Omar Harris has been spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Walter Wegner.

Maud and George Runyan spent Sunday here.

Frank Bird was here Saturday. Quite a number of the food conservation pledges have been signed and as a result the housewives are displaying the cards in their windows.

Many a man believes in eternal punishment—for his neighbor.
