MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

"BALDPATE" ON SCREEN
CROWDS THE RIALTO

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," in moving picture form, was shown at the Rialto theater yesterday before crowds that packed the house several times in the evening several hundred persons were so anxious to see the film that they waited over an hour outside the theater until the first crowd left and the second showing began.

"Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the best examples of George M. Cohan's playwrighting skill. Those who have never seen it on the stage should certainly seize the chance afforded by its reflection on the moving picture screen; while more fortunate persons—and many were among the spectators last night—may regret the story as an old friend.

At Pastime Sunday and Monday.

DOROTHY DALTON STARS IN
"THE FLAME OF THE YUKON"

"The Flame of the Yukon" is the name of the new Triangle play starring Dorothy Dalton, which will be exhibited at the Alta theater Sunday and Monday. It was written by Monte M. Katterjohn and produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

Dorothy Dalton appears as a sort of Alaskan Carmen, queen of the dance hall girls, known throughout the Yukon country as the "Flame." She is the trump card of Black Jack Evey, proprietor of the Midas cafe, the most popular resort in the lively mining town. One night a stranger comes to the place, and instead of tricking him, as Black Jack orders she finds herself interested in him and aids him to make his way on to the gold fields. The man's influence over her is far the good, and she decides to go straight, but the gangster and declare she will flame higher and fiercer than ever after her period of goodness.

Among those appearing in support of the star are Kenneth Harlan, Melbourne McDowell, Margaret Thompson, Carl Ulman and May Palmer. The production was directed by Charles Miller.

In addition two good vaudeville acts will be shown. The Schulzies present "The Traveling Man's Dilemma" and Hays & Co. have a novelty strong act. Prices, adults 25c, war tax 3c; children, 9c, war tax 1c.

gram. Beginning Sunday two acts of vaudeville will be presented along with a big feature and the admission price will be twenty-five cents.

The six act program for this Friday and Saturday is headline by Brewster & Boyd, singing and talking comedians from Pantages circuit. Ruth and Kit Clark two clever young ladies do a singing and piano act.

Jack Bean is a jumping marvel and George & Virginia Stanley are clever singers offering plantation fancies. Al Nuttle is the original musical nut. The performance ends with the Royal Duo in a marvelous comedy acrobatic act. As stated above this will be the last of the Alta's high priced program. Adult 50c, war tax 5c. Children 24c, war tax 1c.
