

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

All social attention yesterday focused on the delightful reception which was given to the woman of Pendleton in honor of the distinguished visitor, Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall. In the club room of the library party and political lines were cast entirely aside and the affair assumed the nature of a thoroughly democratic and patriotic tribute to a charming woman, the wife of the vice-president of the United States. More than 400 women called during the hour from four to five, the prettily decorated room being thronged with a warm and active gathering. In the receiving line with Mrs. Marshall were Mrs. G. M. Rice, Mrs. Lena H. Sturgis, Mrs. F. E. Judd, Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. E. B. Aldrich and Mrs. J. R. Bailey. The punch bowl was in charge of three members of the Girls' National Honor Guard, Miss Leta Rogers, Miss Sydney Sommerville and Miss Evelyn Somerville. They were assisted by a number of the younger maids. Quantities of gleaming white chrysanthemums and American flags framed the attractive decorations. Just preceding the reception Mrs. Marshall was taken for an auto ride about the city, being accompanied by Mrs. James Johns Sr., Mrs. Mary Lane, Mrs. C. C. Sturkie, Mrs. Roy Bishop, Mrs. E. L. Smith and Mrs. Charles Marsh.

Word has been received in Pendleton of the marriage of Miss Blanch Mays and Irwin DeLoe Parkins which was solemnized in The Dulles on November 4th. Both young people are well known in Pendleton and have many friends here. They will be at home after November 24th at Hoosier River.

Mrs. G. L. La Dow and Mrs. W. C. K. Pruitt will be the hostesses to the Thursday Afternoon Club tomorrow afternoon in the club room of the library. There will be a short program on Patriotism and Patriotic Music and afterwards the time will be devoted to Red Cross work.

The home of Mrs. J. E. Robinson, 124 Jackson street, will be the scene of a Pool Social this evening for which the Parish Aid of the Church of the Redeemer will be hostesses. An interesting program has been prepared and all members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend.

Producers. The cast which will produce the play in this city has been carefully selected, and it is said the mounting of scenic, electrical effects, etc., are absolutely complete in every detail. They are playing in packed houses everywhere and no doubt will do the same here.

The first formal dancing party of the season, the Red Cross benefit, for which Fortnightly Club members will be hosts tomorrow evening in Earle Woodman hall is arousing a keen interest and especially so since the announcement that all contributions will be used to buy Christmas packages for our soldiers and sailors. Not only the dance loving contingent but a large number of spectators are planning to attend, the appeal of service and pleasure combined being hard to resist.

On account of the Red Cross benefit dance to be given tomorrow evening by the Fortnightly Bridge Club the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the high school has been postponed until next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. E. Knight, 914 W. Court has received the following card of appreciation from one of the soldiers at Camp Lewis: "I cannot explain how glad I am to receive the comfort bag and how I am to receive the comfort bag and how I am to receive the comfort bag and how I am to receive the comfort bag. (Signed, Private John S. Sheasley, Battery A, 344 L. A. Camp Lewis.)"

E. W. Jarman of Echo spent the night in the city.

Dick Klockory is registered at the Bowman from Piloa Rock.

Charles Brown of Athena was an overnight visitor in the city.

R. H. Meenege, well known resident of Ukiah, is a Pendleton visitor.

James A. Aaron of Echo, came in yesterday and spent the night here.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Storn were here yesterday from their home at Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bartholomew of Stanfield are Pendleton visitors today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watson of Hermiton are up from the west end of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell of Ukiah are down from the south end of the county.

W. D. Dennis of Echo was among the many here from over the county last evening.

Dr. Alexander Reid of Stanfield was among the visitors in the city last evening.

R. E. Arns, representing the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland, is at the Pendleton.

A. Wilson, E. D. Hinchart and H. H. Nottingham of Enterprise are guests of the St. George.

W. R. Howard was up from Sunfield last evening to hear the vice-president's address.

Thomas Campbell, prominent Hermiton merchant, was here last evening to hear the vice-president speak.

G. W. Nance, principal of the schools at Nolla, was among those in last night to hear the Marshall meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant of Fred Chamberlain, George Wagner and Warren Gibbs were among the Ukiah people here last night for the Marshall meeting.

Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall were entertained at dinner last night at the Hotel Pendleton, the guests including only the members of the men's and women's committees added from Judge and Mrs. J. W. Maloney and Mr. Creel, a friend of the Marshalls from Indiana.

A pretty manifestation of hospitality was the decoration of Mrs. Marshall's apartments during her visit here. The rooms were transformed into a bower of flowers and every little comfort that would add to her pleasure was provided. Mrs. Marshall expressed keen delight at the services extended her and is warm in her praise of Pendleton's hospitality, which she characterized as "whole souled."

On Thursday, November 8th, at the Oregon Theater, local theatergoers will have their first opportunity of witnessing Oscar Winters' famous story, "The Virginian," produced in play form. The stage version was made by Mr. Wister and Kirke La Shelle the latter before his death being considered one of America's great-

CLARIDGE

The New Fall

ARROW COLLAR

20¢ each 2 for 35¢ 3 for 50¢

FARMERS AT HELIX RUSH SEEDING WORK

RAINFALL PUTS GROUND IN PROPER CONDITION TO GET BEST RESULTS

Only Forty Cars of Wheat Shipped Out During October Owing to Scarcity of Cars.

(East Oregonian Special.)
HELIX, Nov. 7.—Seeding is being rushed since showers began, by those not in favor of sowing in the dust. The Northern Pacific paid the city $81 for water obtained during October.

Only 40 cars of wheat were shipped out during October, due to scarcity of cars.

Two new furnaces have been installed at the school house, the old one being insufficient to furnish heat to the building. Cost around $1100.

Mrs. Mary Lancaster, state president of the Rebekahs, will visit the Evangelical lodge Thursday evening.

Nearly half of Helix attended Wayne Smith's funeral at Walla Walla Saturday. Floral gifts from school, Sunday school, Rebekahs and Knights of Pythias lodges, relatives and friends covered the casket and mound.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Storms are spending the month visiting their daughter, Mrs. Kimbrell at Milton. Miss Letha daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Albee, attending school at Menmouth, was offered the position of teaching the 5th and 6th grades in Warrenton school but was under the age limit, 17. The offer was the first made to a normal school student this fall.

C. L. Simmons of Spokane was a weekend visitor at the Griswold home.

Rev. E. Grant Hamon preached Sunday at Milton, assisting Rev. Floyd Ross, conducting meetings here.

Two additions were gained at the Christian church Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. Adams of Milton is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Alfred Sando and Mrs. H. B. Hicks.

George Piper has returned from a two weeks' trip to Reburg, Idaho.

Mrs. E. J. Leslie is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. J. C. Prendergast stating their trip to Seattle by auto was made without accident.

Misses Yveta Morrison, Violet Crow and Florence Smith, teachers, spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Chas Stanton returned to Pendleton Monday.

Rev. J. S. McConnell, wife and mother are conducting successful meetings in Wallula.

Mrs. N. K. Ball of Lacrosse is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hutcheson.

Charles Wilkes of Cold Spring has moved his family here for better school facilities.

John Walker and daughter, Miss Margaret, were Athena visitors here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. George McManahan, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mason and Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Kerley attended the Rebekah convention at Athena Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peterson of Jupiter were Friday visitors.

Mrs. Catherine Stanton is now able to walk by the aid of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allison of Welser are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Smith will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson to Bremerton.

Wm. Thimberman is home from Promer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Richmond are Walla Walla visitors here.

Mrs. F. E. King of Pendleton is visiting her son Everett, in Cold Spring, whose small son has pneumonia.

Miss Mary Wilkes sent her brother Raymond attending school at Corvallis, a cake honoring his 21st birthday anniversary, containing $21.

NO NEED FOR THIS IF YOU DO THIS

no more blue Mondays for the sensible home-manager. No longer does she wear herself out over a steaming wash tub or a sizzling hot ironing board. She has shifted the unpleasantness of wash day to the

Troy Laundry

Turn your washday into a day of ease and comfort by letting us do your work. We'll take the entire responsibility—wash and iron your clothes with the same infinite care that you yourself would exercise—and call for and deliver them all at a trifling cost.

Shall we have our wagon call? Telephone 179.

W. D. Dennis of Echo was among the many here from over the county last evening.

Dr. Alexander Reid of Stanfield was among the visitors in the city last evening.

R. E. Arns, representing the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland, is at the Pendleton.

A. Wilson, E. D. Hinchart and H. H. Nottingham of Enterprise are guests of the St. George.

W. R. Howard was up from Sunfield last evening to hear the vice-president's address.

Thomas Campbell, prominent Hermiton merchant, was here last evening to hear the vice-president speak.

G. W. Nance, principal of the schools at Nolla, was among those in last night to hear the Marshall meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant of Fred Chamberlain, George Wagner and Warren Gibbs were among the Ukiah people here last night for the Marshall meeting.

W. D. Dennis of Echo was among the many here from over the county last evening.

Dr. Alexander Reid of Stanfield was among the visitors in the city last evening.

R. E. Arns, representing the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland, is at the Pendleton.

A. Wilson, E. D. Hinchart and H. H. Nottingham of Enterprise are guests of the St. George.

W. R. Howard was up from Sunfield last evening to hear the vice-president's address.

Thomas Campbell, prominent Hermiton merchant, was here last evening to hear the vice-president speak.

G. W. Nance, principal of the schools at Nolla, was among those in last night to hear the Marshall meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant of Fred Chamberlain, George Wagner and Warren Gibbs were among the Ukiah people here last night for the Marshall meeting.

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

A SMALL BOTTLE DESTROYS DANDRUFF AND DOUBLES BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it thru your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance on incomparable texture, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you sorely can have beautiful hair and lose it if you will just try a little Danderine.

appeared under any theatrical banner. This excellent play will be the attraction at the Oregon Theater on Thursday, November 8th.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Owners of Ford cars are advised to beware of "counterfeit parts." If your car needs adjustment bring it here where you will find reliable service with the complete mechanical equipment to give the highest quality of Ford service obtainable. All the Ford parts used are supplied by the Ford Motor Company. You can not expect your Ford car to give the service and endurance you demand unless you have it cared for by men experienced in Ford methods. Runabouts $144.85; Touring Car $119.85—all f. o. b. Pendleton, deliveries made in rotation of orders. For sale by

SIMPSON AUTO COMPANY

Johnson and Water Sts. Phone 408

1895

A Custom that started 22 years ago and today is growing faster than ever—

POSTUM

instead of coffee

"There's a Reason"

SHIP CHRISTMAS PACKAGES EARLY

A campaign for the early shipment of Christmas packages has been inaugurated by the northwest committee on our service of the railroad's war board. Cooperation is urged of both shippers and merchants in aiding the work as a measure to relieve the war car equipments for handling the government's war supplies.

Each railroad is to do everything possible to promote early shipments of Christmas packages, whether by mail, express or freight, according to G. W. Humane, secretary.

Amusements

What the press agents say about Pendleton's present and coming attractions.

"The Virginian," Drama of invincible charm by "The Virginian" made famous by the clever American actor, Mr. Booth Tarkenton, shines in so indelibly stamped upon this best work of Owen Wister that its merits seem to have been heralded to every nook and corner of American territory. The thousands who have seen it, have told thousands who have not been so fortunate of its irrepressible attractiveness and thus an endless chain of theatergoers await its advent wherever it goes. For "The Virginian" the New York Producing Co. has secured a splendid company which is said to be the best balanced that has

Try It!

A medicine which has given satisfaction to its users for over 40 years, as Cardui has, must be a good medicine. If you suffer from female troubles, and need a reliable, strengthening tonic, of real medicinal value, as proven by the experience of thousands of women users,

TAKE

Cardui

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. C. S. Budd, of Covina, Calif., in writing of her experience with Cardui, says: "I took a bottle at 13 years old, and it cured my headaches. I have taken it since marriage, and received much help from it. Cardui is the best medicine I ever took... It was the only medicine... that helped my back..." Try Cardui.

All Druggists

Let's Go Now

To the best wheat raising district in Morrow County and investigate the improved wheat farms, which we listed before the raise in price. SEE US NOW.

ESTES & FRIEDLY

614 Main Street. Phone 604

"Who Sell, Rent or Insure Anything"