MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

Arcade Theatre Today.
At the Arcade today is being shown the regular Cosy program. Painters and paperhangers are renovating the Cosy and it has been found necessary to move.

Pearl White will be seen in chapter 17 of the Fatal Ring and this chapter is exciting and sensational. Chapter two of the Lost Express featuring Helen Holmes is also at the Arcade today. This episode is thrilling and nerve racking. Keystone comedies presents Oriental Love, a mirthful rib-cracker.

Alta Today.
Don't miss seeing George Walsh in William Fox's comedy-drama, "This Is the Life." This picture will be shown tonight at the Alta Theatre.

George has a rip-roaring play in which the action centers around a group of revolutionists to which George becomes attached under the impression that it is in South America to make motion pictures. George takes an active part in the revolution still believing a motion picture is being taken. He wakes up in jail with the sentence "to be shot at daybreak," hanging over his head.

He escapes. And then he goes to the rescue of the young lady who, he thought, was the star of the show but who is the daughter of an American consul in South America. After George rescues her she likes him and well they live happily ever after.

NO GROUND FOR FEAR OF FLOUR SHORTAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—"There is absolutely no reason why the people of the United States should be alarmed over the alleged shortage in wheat in this country," said Herbert Hoover, federal food administrator, to The World tonight.

The statement from Mr. Hoover was made in reply to reports that food administrators in Illinois, Pennsylvania and Maryland had said the United States might be left without wheat flour because it was being sent abroad.

"We are not sending all of our wheat abroad by any means," continued Mr. Hoover. "For this year we have exported but 25,000,000 bushels out of a total of 675,000,000 bushels on hand. It has not even been necessary up to the present to recommend the use of mixed flour in breadmaking."

No Secret Meeting.
LONDON, Nov. 27.—Answering German propaganda, Foreign Minister Balfour told the house of commons the privy council did not hold secret meetings in July, 1918, which advocated a war with Germany.
