At The MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

"The Little Duchess" is the title of the new World-Picture Brady Made which will be the Alta theatre on Thursday only and in which charming little Madge Evans stars. This is Madge's first appearance as star and she has been elevated to this exalted position by World-Pictures by reason of her great work in the other in which she has appeared. In "The Little Duchess" Madge demonstrates the fact that she is a mighty clever little actress and as she is as pretty as a child can be, she makes an extremely attractive heroine for this production. Every film fan will highly enjoy this attraction.

In "The Girl, Glory" Enid Bennett appears as Glory Wharton, the granddaughter of an old civil war-

GEORGE BERRELLE'S WHISKERS
George Berrell, one of the most dependable character actors at Universal City, takes a prominent part in "The Man from Montana," the butterfly picture which comes to the Cosy theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. He is the partner of Neal Hart in the Bumble Bee mine. In this excellent feature Mr. Berrell wears a fine set of whiskers and the question arises all over again whether or not they are real. Sometimes Berrell is clean shaven and sometimes he has a wonderful beard. He made his biggest hit as the Abbe Constantine in "Betina Loved a Soldier," one of the earlier Bluebirds.

Marshall Preaches Interesting Sermon On "Moral Suicides"

Mr. Marshall will give a prelude tonight on "Why I am Not a Unitarian or a Universalist." The sermon will be an some live topic and will be treated by live man in a strong way. Last night the subject was "Moral Suicides."

The scripture upon which the sermon was based is the account of the four lepers at the gate of Samaria. Their very position outside the gate was typical of the sinner. The lepers were outcasts from the city and their friends. Sin is always casting forth the victims. So soon as the first flush of the pleasures of sin are past the separation of the sinner from the respectable is begun.

Then the lepers were slowly dying of their disease. So is the sinner. He collects his wages little by little until it is all paid in and separation from God is complete and final.

Leprosy is infectious and so is sin. It spreads from one to another its destroying power.

These lepers said one to another: "If we sit still here we die. If we enter into the city we shall die there. Let us go to the camp of the Syrians." That was the only possible source of help. They could not help themselves, their friends could not help them. The Syrians were the only ones who could help them. If the sinner sits still where he is he must die. He must find Jesus Christ and share in his death on the cross if he ever finds life. It is moral suicide to stay away from Christ. Don't play with time. Tonight it is rapidly passing. Jesus will save you.

Almost anybody can produce a smile for the cause of liberty and act up to it.

How to Prevent Croup.
In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off and all danger and anxiety avoided.—Adv.
