THOSE WHO WANT A CAR AT A MODERATE PRICE

and who appreciate individuality, will find what they want in the Oldsmobile 6 cylinder car.

It has all the refinement of finish, all the sturdiness and reliability of the 8 cylinder model, with the economy of many smaller cars.

The very pronounced riding comfort is the subject of comment everywhere. We have been told that it is the "Water Cooled Franklin."

At $1350, the limited supply will justify placing your order early.

TWO FOUND DEAD ON HEATED CINDER PILE

Double Fatality at Washtucna Has Feature Suggesting Foul Play.

Gas Fumes from Burning Ashes May Have Asphyxiated Men Who Were Strangers.

WASHTUCNA, Wash., Dec. 21.—The bodies of two men were found yesterday morning on a cinder dump about 200 yards north of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle depot, this city. No one appears to know at what time during the night the two men arrived or if they were accompanied by any one. It appears uncertain at present as to how they met their death, whether they were murdered or asphyxiated by the gas fumes arising from the burning cinders.

They were apparently seeking a warm place on the burning cinder dump to pass the night, lay down and fell asleep. They were both heavily clothed and apparently laborers. One had his shoes removed, which were lying by his side, but he had on his overshoes.

Both were large men. One of them was light-complexioned, with sandy hair and red mustache and tattooed high on the forehead and on the body.

New Style Indian Funeral.

BEND, Ore., Dec. 21.—Automobile escorts instead of the paid tribal mourners and Shaker rites instead of the weird incantations and ceremonies of the medicine man were features of the funeral of Cane Brown, a Warm Springs Indian today. Brown died while visiting Klamath Indians on the Klamath reservation.

Three automobile loads of Klamath Indians formed an escort to accompany Brown's body to the Warm Springs reservation, near here, and the burial ceremony of the Shaker sect, with an Indian minister officiating, was observed.

Shakerism is gaining a strong following among the Warm Springs, Klamath, Modoc and Pitt River Indians of this section, and these tribes will be well represented at a Shaker conference at Chehalis, Wash., soon, to ask that Oregon be made a separate diocese from Washington. Stonewall Jackson, famous Klamath Indian orator, is assisting bishop from Oregon.

Smelt Run Starting.

ASTORIA, Ore., Dec. 21.—The pro-German smelt who just wouldn't enter the Columbia river and give aid and comfort to Oregon and Washington housewives in the heyday of high meat prices, must have argued it out with Brother Whale—now in Hoover's army—for they have reformed. Reports here today are that the smelt are beginning to come in slowly. The season is past due.

Best Boosters Banquet.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 21.—The fifteen best boosters among Portland's army of "news hunters," the boys who wrote the best essays on "What We Can Do to Make Portland a Better City," were guests of the Chamber of Commerce at a special Christmas luncheon today.

No Christmas Vacations.

LIZZIE'S CHAMPION SKATING DOG
