The Portland Oregonian yesterday contained a splendid review of the clever little tales, which was in part as follows: "It is a pleasure to receive for the purposes of review such a splendidly and naturally written book of fairy stories, composed by an author, who is an Oregonian."

Mrs. Berkeley comes of an Oregon pioneer family. Her mother is Mrs. N. E. Despain (Miss Nancy Howard) of Pendleton, Ore., who came to Oregon in 1844. Mrs. Despain's father was Rev. William H. Rowland, a well-known Methodist minister, her two brothers also being ministers. Mrs. Berkeley's home is in Haystack, near Madras, central Oregon.

Such is the manifold charm of these one down stories, that on reading them the observant reader feels as if a trained story-teller were actually uttering them by word of mouth. The voice seems to be ever present.

Fairy literary work is done in this book, and in its particular school of juvenile fiction it is among the best of the year. "But author can be complimented on her lively imagination. It is to be regretted that her book was not reviewed in this office in time for review before Christmas. The book will make an ideal present to send from Oregon. It will certainly please all children of 10 years and upward."

U. S. SUBMARINE CHASERS MAY BE COPIED BY FRENCH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—American built submarine chasers on duty in French waters have proved so satisfactory to the French naval authorities that the navy's 110-foot type boat may be copied by the French. A recent French report on the seaworthiness of the little craft told how a storm drove a French light cruiser and several destroyers to shelter leaving only an American-built chaser on guard with a fleet of merchantmen the vessels were convoying.

DR. MARVIN IS MAN WITH BIG MESSAGE

Lecturer at Methodist Church One Most Powerful Speakers in Northwest

(R. E. GORNALL, Pastor.) For explicit thinking philosophical interpretation of modern conditions, and graphic diction the two addresses of Dr. M. H. Marvin at the Methodist church yesterday stand out unique. Dr. Marvin will speak each evening. Tonight the subject will be "The Vision Age," or "Getting the Light Start." Eyes youth of Pendleton will be profited by hearing this lecture. Competition has been the commercial spirit so gripping and selfishness so active even in religious organizations that people can hardly credit men with the frankness of intellect, broadness of vision, and abandonment of soul, to jump the rat and sacrificially labor for the uplift of the entire human race. Dr. Marvin is that type of man.

We have brought Dr. Marvin to Pendleton with no thought of demagogical propaganda. Since April 6, 1917, we have been a world power in a world war. We are all interested in the Gordian knotted problems resulting. We want to know about them. Dr. Marvin's keen analytical mind delves into the historical, sociological and religious facts and conditions and his interpretive conclusions are clinchingly convincing. As a church we are trying to meet the patriotic demands of the administration. No greater patriotic move-

KEEP THAT OLD KELLY! HATS TO COST MORE. SAY CONVENTION MEN CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Wait a minute, man! Don't throw away that last year's "Kelly" just yet. Listen to this first: Hats that have sold for $2 and $4 in leading haberdasheries are going to set the purchaser back from $7 to $9 hereafter. The American Wholesale Hatters' association, in convention at the La Salle hotel here, brings these sad tidings and blames it onto the war. Fur and felt, the haters say, is almost gone and wool and cloth hats will take their places.
