OVERSEAS.

While Flanders fields are growing greener
O'er faithful lads and true
To sit and knit at endless gray
Seems a poor thing to do.

New France has had my lover
Since April was a year,
While I roll strips of linen
And choke back many a tear.

To march with drum and banner
To dig, to shoot, to kill—
'Twould seem to me a heaven
To this hell of sitting still.

Anne Higginson Spicer.

WE ARE ALL IN THE SAME BOAT

BY resolution the annual session of the Oregon federation of labor, in session at Astoria, pledges whole hearted support to the country during the war. It may be expected that the spirit of that resolution will be observed in good faith. This is no class war we are in. It is everybody's war and all classes in this country manifest a patriotism that is commendable. Some poor people think the rich are not doing their share; some rich people think the laboring man is not doing right at times because he asks for higher wages and sometimes strikes if his demands are not granted. The truth of the matter is that people in all classes are keeping an eye to their personal interests, as they are obliged to do, yet at the same time there is a strong and unmistakable tone of patriotism on all sides. There are rich men by the thousands who are rendering service of the highest value to the nation. They are offering their lives and their fortunes for the country's good. The bulk of the revenue from the income and excess profits taxes come from them and it is right this should be the case. On the other hand people in moderate circumstances and people who live by their days work are doing everything that is asked or can be expected of them. They are the real burden bearers of the war and they have the manhood and womanhood to face the tasks without flinching. The war has brought some new things to light. It has convinced many people that others with whom they formerly differed seriously are very good people after all. The capitalist has learned that the laborer is a patriot and to be depended upon by the country. The worker on the other hand is learning that monied men are not the soulless grasping creatures some thought they were. They are flesh and blood also, responsive to the country's call.

The war is not a class affair. The nation fights as a whole to protect its future and to help make the world safe for democracy and justice as opposed to autocracy and rule by the mailed fist.

FOOD SAVING RESULTS

THERE has been some curiosity as to what voluntary conservation of food in American kitchens has accomplished since Mr. Hoover began to make his pressing appeals. It was apparent at the beginning of last year that the world's food, in some important lines, was to be scant unless conserved. After the entrance of the United States into war Mr. Hoover prepared a program. We were to be short of wheat, which means bread, also meats, oils and sugar, and in some confusion of method the patriotism of the people began to work out conservation. Afterwards came the specific meatless and wheatless days. We had a small surplus of wheat for exportation to our allies, and we required to save 100,000,000 bushels from our usual consumption to give the peoples of France, Britain and Italy their needs. Mr. Hoover's recent figures on wheat conservation indicate that we have voluntarily deprived ourselves of from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 bushels of wheat per month, or a total since July 1 of approximately 50,000,000 bushels. At this rate we shall by next July have saved for our friends abroad slightly more than the required 100,000,000 bushels of wheat. The record is a striking indication of the patriotism of the American people, exerted voluntarily in a spirit of helpfulness to aid those who are with us in the war against Germany.

SIX NATIONS WATCH HUN SEEK COVER

In this mixed group are officers of six allied nations watching shells from the allied guns falling on the city of Lens where the Canadians are again making "Heinie" get under. Left to right the officers are British, Portuguese, French, Siamese, Canadian and American. The officer in the light coat is Major Prince Amrashed of Siam.

There are entirely too many suspicious fires around government storehouses of various sorts; the best remedy would be a noose around the neck of every man caught and proven a German spy; simple enternment of such people is not sufficient.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian Jan. 15 1890.)

J. E. Medemach is putting up ice for the market. He has taken 240 tons from the millrace. He hopes to store his ice house, 1009 tons to the fullest capacity before the season closes.

Postmaster Burroughs reports the mail question as deliriously uncertain; there is no telling when the mail will arrive or when it will go and he is in a quandary.

The blockade on the Union Pacific grows apace. An eastbound passenger train which arrived yesterday morning is still here. The east bound fast mail, blocked at Wilbur, was brought to Pendleton this morning and is still lain on the side track here.

Frank A. Stewart has been appointed collector of customs for the southern district of Oregon.

MACCABEES AT ECHO HOLD INSTALLATION

ODD FELLOWS ALSO INSTALL ELECTIVE OFFICERS ON SATURDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Lena Mathers Arrives from Minneapolis to Make Home With Her Son, Gaylord Madison.

(East Oregonian Special.)

ECHO, Jan. 14.—The rotary Maccabees held their installation at their regular meeting last Thursday evening. The following are the officers: O. L. Palmer, commander; C. B. Green, L. T. E. E. Elder, B. K. L. A. Warnock, assistant R. K. M. J. Hewett, sergeant; Clarence Douk, chaplain; David Dean, master at arms; Howard Aaron and Chas. Bowman, guards; A. B. Lee, picket; Pearl McCutcheon, sentinel.

J. M. Shively was installing officer.

Overland Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F., of Echo, installed their elective officers on Saturday evening. The new officers are Louis Stiles, N. G.; R. H. Holmes, N. G.; Joe Bailey, secretary; and E. M. Litsey, treasurer.

School Officers Named.

At the meeting of the student body E. H. S. on last Wednesday the following were elected as officers for the second semester: Charles Thornton, President; Eleanor Solke, vice president; Paul Snell, secretary, and Walter Bleakney, treasurer.

Mrs. Lena Mathers arrived here Sunday morning from Minneapolis with her two young sons and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. Frank Spilning and family. Mrs. Mathers will make her home with her son, Gaylord Madison, on his farm near Butter creek.

Mrs. H. J. Hedrick and children who visited here last week returned on Saturday evening to their home at Weston.

E. T. George is spending a few days vacation at Hot Lake. He went up last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith left yesterday morning for their home at Seattle via Kennelick, Wash. where they will visit with friends.

Louis Schell, Jr., is in Walla Walla today visiting with his brothers.

Return from Seattle.

Frank Cunha and Joe Cunha Jr., returned Friday from a business trip to Seattle. They were accompanied home by Claude Toff, who has been in Seattle for several weeks.

W. F. Portman, well known harness dealer for the past few years in Echo, has gone to Nebraska where he expects to spend the winter with his mother. Mr. Portman sold out his business some two months ago on account of ill health.

Ed Walker spent Sunday in Pendleton visiting his wife who is at the St. Anthony Hospital.

Tom Thomas was a Pendleton visitor yesterday.

SHE'S WAR BRIDE OF HOLIDAY SEASON.

MRS. T. A. BOGLE.

Mrs. T. A. Bogle, a war bride of the holiday season, is now at Camp Custer, with her husband, Captain Bogle of the Artillery. Mrs. Bogle was formerly Mrs. Helen G. Watson and is a niece of U. S. Senator Watson of Indiana.

HAWAIIANS WILL SAVE FOOD.

SAFETY IN FOOD.

AS OUT OF DATE AS HORSE CARS

SAYS CORN RINGS, PLASTERS, RAZOR AND EATING SALVES ARE TABOO NOW.

Good things should be tossed along. It is now said that a few drops of a drug called freezone applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out without pain.

For little cost a quarter of an ounce of freezone can be obtained from any drug store which is claimed to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This is a drug recently announced from Cincinnati. It is gummy but dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the healthy tissue or skin.

Cut this out and lay it on your wife's dresser.

THE AMERICAN SWEET TOOTH. We Americans have a great fondness for sweets. We consume more sugar in fact, than does any other nation now. Before the war England consumed the most sugar, her average being 93 pounds per year for each person, while the American average per person is 50 pounds.

England drew most of her sugar supply from what are now her enemy countries and in consequence she has had to reduce her consumption greatly. As a result of this enforced economy of sugar her annual consumption per person is today 28 pounds.

Now we find that we, too, must economize on sugar, for all the allies are drawing from the same source as we. We must divide with them.

Can we do it?

It is a challenge that every person in America must take up, if the answer is going to be "Yes, can do it and will!"

But how?

We must cut down our use of candy and sweet drinks requiring sugar. Our craving for sweets can just as well be satisfied with candy made of honey, maple sugar and syrups.

We must be more careful in the use of sugar on the table. We must use less sugar in coffee or tea; if you stir it well until all the sugar is dissolved you may discover that you need less than you think. Do without sugar on all fruit except very sour kinds, and use less on that.

These two things everybody can do, but it is the woman in the kitchen who can help most in the saving of sugar.

For example, if she will abolish sugar beings on cakes, she will be surprised to see how much sugar she will save.

Cooking with honey and syrups instead of with sugar is also becoming popular with patriotic housewives. The following are two recipes of this kind that are recommended by the U. S. Food Administration.

Baked Honey Custard With Raisin Cakes.

Beat three eggs slightly, taking care not to make them foamy. Add slowly 1-4 cup of honey, 2 cups scalded milk, 1-8 teaspoon powdered cinnamon and 1-4 teaspoon of salt. Bake in cups set in a pan of water.

Some men are born great and then proceed to slump.
