CHARLES RAY IN "SUDDEN JIM," SATURDAY EVENING POST STORY.

Charles Ray, who won a personal triumph in "The Clodhopper," will appear in the biggest role he has yet essayed in the Triangle play "Sudden Jim," the Saturday Evening Post story by Charles Dudington Kelland, which will be seen at the Pastime theatre today.

Millions have read the story, either in serial or novel form, concerning the boy who was given $50,000 by his father and told to play or work, just as he might choose. Playing didn't appeal to Sudden Jim. He took over his father's clothes pin factory up in Michigan, made things hum, fought down a combine that was trying to force high prices on the market and earned the title "hell on wheels."

TAKEN UNDER GUARD
Sentries were assigned by the officers of the training camp at San Diego exposition to prevent any interference with the filming of scenes in "The High Sign," in which Herbert Rawlinson and Brownie Vernon will be seen at the Cosy theatre today.

Alta Friday and Saturday.
Born in Jacksonville, Illinois, young Charles Ray, the clever star who is appearing in "The Son of His Father," at the Alta theatre on Friday and Saturday, has since lived in nearly every section of this country, having attended the polytechnical schools of both his native city and Los Angeles, California.

At present he is working at the Paramount studios in Hollywood California, where he recently produced, under the direct supervision of Thos. H. Ince, "The Son of His Father," from the well known book of that name, which is to be shown at the Alta theatre today.

Pastime Sunday and Monday
Robert McKim, the king bee delineator of screen scoundrels, has a role of almost stellar importance with William S. Hart in "The Silent Man," made by Thomas H. Ince for Artercraft.

McKim is Ince's star picture villain who can be counted upon to do almost anything in the way of stunt deeds before the last few hundred feet of a film, when, with the kind assistance of the scenario writer he goes the way of all bad men of the pictures.

In Hart's new photoplay, "The Silent Man," which will be seen at the Pastime on Sunday and Monday, McKim will be seen as the proprietor of a gambling place in a small town on the border land of the Arizona desert. During the unfolding of the story, in his character of "Handsome Jack" Pressley, he does everything he can think of to foil "The Hart," but of course, he fails.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT!
STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

HAIR STOPS FALLING OUT AND GETS THICK, WAVY, STRONG AND BEAUTIFUL.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderrine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderrine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yet—really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Keweenaw's Danderrine from any druggist or toilet counter for a few cents.

PLAN TO RAISE $12,000,000
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 25.—A plan to raise $12,000,000 in 12 hours next December for all church purposes among 500,000 communicants in more than 600 churches was decided upon last night at the closing session of the midwinter conference of national secretaries and state superintendents of the Congregational churches of the United States, every state being represented at the conference. The task will require the service of 70,000 laymen, it is estimated. Approximately $10,000,000 of the fund will be used for church budgets and the remaining $2,000,000 will be divided among benevolence, education and mission.

DROPS OF MAGIC! LIFT OUT CORNS

Sore, touchy corns stop hurting, then lift right out with fingers.

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug frezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man. Just ask at the drug store for a small bottle of frezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers. Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying frezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin. Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of foot, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical. Ladies: Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

STOPS HEADACHE, PAIN, NEURALGIA

Don't suffer! Get a dime pack of Dr. James' Headache Powders.

You can clear your head and relieve a dull, splitting or violent throbbing headache in a moment with a Dr. James' Headache Powder. This old-time headache relief acts almost magically. Send some one to the drug store now for a dime package and a few moments after you take a powder you will wonder what became of the headache, neuralgia and pain. Stop suffering—it's needless. Be sure you get what you ask for.

- Panned Potatoes.
Cut cold boiled potatoes into quarter-inch slices; dredge lightly with flour and fry in pan with a little butter. When light brown, heap on side of pan; let stand a few minutes, then loosen with a knife and turn out on a platter in much the same way that an omelet is taken out. Sprinkle with salt and serve at once.
- Potato and Pork Stew.
3 or 4 slices salt pork cut in small pieces; 4 medium sized potatoes; 1 can; 1-2 cup water; 2-4 teaspoon salt; 1-4 teaspoon pepper.
Fry the pork in a deep frying pan until it is light brown; then to the pork and fat add the potatoes cut in 1-2 inch slices, and thinly sliced onion and seasonings. Add the water, cover closely and cook until the potatoes and onions are soft. The mixture should be stirred occasionally in order that the pork and vegetables may be thoroughly mixed. The "stew," as it was called in old times—for it is an old-fashioned dish—should be moist but not thin.
- Scalloped Potatoes.
Wash and pare potatoes; let them soak for a half hour, and cut in 1-4 inch slices. Butter a baking dish, put in a layer of the sliced potatoes, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour, and dot with 1-2 tablespoon of butter. (A little grated cheese may be sprinkled over each layer if desired.) Repeat until the baking dish is nearly filled, then cover with hot milk. Bake 1-4 hours in a moderate oven, or place on the back of the stove and cook slowly.
- Potato Salad.
Cut cold boiled potatoes into half-inch cubes and season with salt and pepper, or a few drops of onion juice if desired. Heap in a mound in a salad dish and pour over all a cooked salad dressing; and, if one wishes, garnish around edges with a circle of lettuce and hard-boiled eggs.
For variety add 2 cupsful of potato one-half cupful of diced cold boiled beet and 2 tablespoons chopped parsley or cheese; carrots and a little chopped celery leaf may be used if preferred.
Many cooked or canned left-over vegetables may be attractively used for salads. Diced turnips and carrots are often used in potato salad. Left-over beans, peas, etc., with finely diced potato, may be used to fill tomato cups and served with any preferred dressing.
- Cooked Salad Dressing.
2 eggs; 3 tablespoonsful vinegar; 1 tablespoonful water, (cold); 1-2 teaspoonful salt; 2 teaspoonfuls sugar; 1-4 teaspoonful mustard, if desired.
Beat the eggs until light, then add salt, sugar, mustard, water until thick, stirring constantly. Pour the hot dressing over the cold potatoes, and set in a form of cold water and heat until cold. Add flour, mix well, and drop by spoonfuls in deep fat. Fry until brown and drain on brown paper. Put 1-2 teaspoonful jelly in each spoonful before frying. Roll in powdered sugar when done.
- Potato Fritters.
2 cups hot mashed potatoes; 4 tablespoonfuls milk; 1 teaspoonful salt, cayenne pepper, few grains; 2 eggs; 1-2 cup flour; 1-8 teaspoonful grated nutmeg.
Add the milk and seasoning to the potatoes, then the eggs well-beaten set in a form of cold water and heat until cold. Add flour, mix well, and drop by spoonfuls in deep fat. Fry until brown and drain on brown paper. Put 1-2 teaspoonful jelly in each spoonful before frying. Roll in powdered sugar when done.

PREPARE FOR JEWISH NATION

Commission Will Go to Palestine to Perfect Plans.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—At a Zionist meeting today it was announced that Great Britain will in a few weeks allow a Jewish commission to go to Palestine to prepare for the establishment of a Jewish nation. The committee will be followed by a staff of technical experts, engineers, architects, agriculturists and town planners.

It is the intention of the Zionist mission to place on land, which will be purchased, the Jewish proletariat, who, it is hoped, will work in harmony with the Arabs.
