IRRIGATION OF ECHO LAND IS UNDER WAY

ONE AND ONE HALF FEET OF WATER TURNED INTO MAIN CANAL TUESDAY.

(East Oregonian Special.) ECHO, Feb. 7.—The Western Land and Irrigation Co. has already begun the irrigation of their land in their district. One and one half feet of water was turned into their main canal on Tuesday of this week. Howard Aaron is employed as ditch rider.

The Ladies Aid gave another one of their pleasant "Silver Teas" at the M. E. parsonage yesterday. Mesdames J. P. Cook and Wm. Esselstyn acted as hostesses. A pleasing program was rendered. A large number was in attendance.

Echo was visited Wednesday morning by a very severe rain storm but that was only one of numerous rains. Fall grain of all kinds have made a wonderful growth and is looking exceptionally well.

Miss Bessie Andrews returned to Walla Walla today to resume her studies at Whitman college after spending the semester vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Andrews of the Meadows.

Mrs. W. A. Jones spent Monday in Hermiston.

Mrs. R. H. Gaskill and Miss Fern Long, of this place, were the lucky ones who drew the two beautiful gold bracelet watches given away at the George & Miller Co.'s store on Saturday last. Mrs. Gaskill received the watch given away in the morning and Miss Long the one in the afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Cray and daughter Nan visited in Pendleton the first of the week.

Attorney "Doc" Bailey of Pendleton was here Tuesday attending the directors meeting of the Teal Irrigation District.

George Melville of Toppenish, Wn., was among the out of town visitors here on Tuesday. He returned home this morning by the way of Pendleton.

Mrs. Martha Kimball of Nolin spent Saturday at Echo.

Mrs. R. B. Starfield and son Jack were in Pendleton last Monday and returned home on the motor in the evening.

T. D. Matthews of Pendleton is a business visitor here.

Misses Ruth and Edith Gibbell were in Pendleton all Saturday having some dental work done.

Mrs. Frank Spike is being dangerously ill at her home on Bridge street.

Mrs. H. McCormick returned home Saturday from a visit with her daughter Miss Adeline McCormick who is nursing at the La Grande hospital.

Mrs. Joe Conlin, Jr. spent Saturday in Pendleton.

DEPUTY POLICE CHIEF IN NEW YORK

Mrs. Ellen A. O'Grady, long a police matron in New York City, has been appointed fifth deputy police commissioner of the city, under the new mayor who took office Jan. 1. She will draw a salary of $6000 a year. Never before has a mayor named a woman for this place. But the victory for woman suffrage in the November election moved Mayor Hylan to recognize women. Mrs. O'Grady will give her time largely to cases in which women and girls are concerned. She said she had gained her experience in "the school of hard work."

The woman who doesn't care what she does usually marries a man who doesn't care what he does.

"THE FOOD GAMBLERS," NEW TRIANGLE PLAY

Probably the most timely screen play of the moment is "The Food Gamblers," produced under the supervision of Allan Dwan at the Triangle studios, which will be shown at the Pastime Theatre today.

Elda Miller, who appeared in "Her Excellency the Governor," has the role of the young newspaperwoman who exposes a ring of prominent men engaged in "food gambling." Wilfred Lund has the role of Henry Havens, food commissioner.

This Triangle picture is said to be alive with dramatic action, as when the young reporter breaks into the food gambler's offices and declares she will imprison them as traitors to their country. She is aided by the food commissioner in carrying out her plans but not until the ring of grafters have managed to convict her on the trumped-up charge of selling "shoe."

"HELL'S CRATER"

W. H. Pearson's romantic narrative dealing with events in "the days of '49," has been produced and directed by the author with Grace Gunard the star, and will be re-rolled as a weekly five-act offering in exhibitors for the week starting Jan. 14. Director Pearson took his company as far into Death Valley as prudence warranted to make the scenes of desolation and barrenness that are necessary to many incidents in the story.

Supporting the star, George McDaniel will play the leading role with Ray Hanford and Ellen Sedwick prominently involved in the action. Dance hall and gambling scenes, methods employed in winning gold from earth, and several sensational "fight" episodes are promised to put a "punch" into the melodrama that matches the nature of the offering—Cosy today.

Alta Theatre Offering Exceptional Program Today.

The management of the Alta theatre announces a program of merit today direct from two shows in the big time one year with the Orpheum circuit and one with Pantages comes the Lachmann Sisters Trio in a cabby singing dancing change act. These girls are joining through from Chicago to Seattle to open there on Engle's southern time and it was impossible for the Alta management to secure their services for but one day. On the same bill is the Thompson Duo a clever comedy singing and talking team. Pathe News with all the latest war news and the world picture "The Corner Grocer" go to make up this excellent program.

Lew Fields in "The Corner Grocer," the latest World-Picture Ready-Made, demonstrates that he is not only a great comedian but a wonderful character actor. In the role of Wendel, the corner grocer, in the production, Mr. Fields has a role that grips the sympathies of the audiences at once and holds them enthralled to the very end. Co-starring with Fields in this picture is dear, delightful little Madge Evans the World's giddle star. She appears as Mary, the little orphan who grows up to five Ralph Wendel's son. The story of the corner grocer, his rise and fall when his son goes bad, and the final redemption of the son, is one of the most thoroughly enjoyable dramas ever filmed. In the stage version "The Corner Grocer" ran for 1207 nights in New York City. Now in the amplified screen version, with Lew Fields in a memorable characterization, "The Corner Grocer" will be seen at the Alta theatre today only.

This is old, but a little bit peculiar, wants only a piece worth nothing.

It took Mr. Hoover to teach some of us the delicate art of eating potato chips.

FRENCH BUYING WOOD BY THE POUND

This photograph is believed to show why Fuel Administrator Garfield decreed five coalless days and ten coal-less Mondays. It shows French people in the streets of Paris actually buying wood by the pound. The dealer has several small sticks of wood on his scales while men and women buyers point to pieces they want.

Such a condition in Paris it is thought, made it important for shiploads of coal to leave America at once. By cutting off the American supply many ships cleared for foreign ports.

THE CORNER GROCER

FROM THE PLAY WHICH RAN OVER 300 NIGHTS IN NEW YORK CITY.
DIRECTED BY GEORGE COWL.
The old folks at home who are wrapped up in the future of their son, the young man who is faced to destruction by an adventurous, the young girl who loves him and hates to see him—these are the principal characters in this great drama. "The Corner Grocer" was a huge success on the stage—it will be a bigger success on the screen.

"WHEN YOUR KIDNEYS FEEL LIKE LUMPS OF LEAD"

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become part of "paralyzed" and "lumpy." When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick, headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates those ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.
