MEN AS FOOD SLACKERS.

A woman writing in the March Woman's Home (Companion asks men to stop scolding her sex and look to their own faults and she says:

"I'd like to see a count taken of the men who've given up eating butter and sweets to help with this war and the women who have given up these two things." It might check some of these persistent scolders of the American housewife and her patriotism. Only a few days ago a friend of mine said to me, "It would be so easy if it were not for Arthur. He does so love honey, sweet dessert, and he wants to have a steak or roast beef every night for dinner and bacon every morning for breakfast. I can't make him see that it does matter, even if we have the money to buy these things. I try to tell him that it's a matter of honor, not to eat them all the time, so that there'll be enough to go round for everybody. But he only acts peevish and wants to increase my house allowance."

"It's incidents like this that have brought me to the profound belief that after the Food Administration has shown the women what they can do to save food and check waste, then the real work will begin, for they'll have to make all the heavy middle-aged men with long-undulged appetites come up to the scratch, too."

Socialism of whatsoever brand has not since the beginning of the war, been anything save to help a autocracy.

Mr. Dickenson is honorary chairman of the Chicago branch of the league while Mr. Wright is vice-president of the association.

War bread should not be judged by its starchy composition, but by its savor and its nutritive qualities.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MAHIE BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.
