"WEE LADY BETTY"
STARRS BESSIE LOVE

A sparkling play of the Emerald Isle, "Wee Lady Betty," presenting the charming Triangle star, Bessie Love, will be shown at the Pastime Theatre today.

Miss Love in "The Sawdust Ring" scored one of the greatest successes of the year, and "Wee Lady Betty" is said to give her even better opportunities to demonstrate her ability. Frank Borzage is her leading man, and others of the supporting cast are Charles K. French, Walter Perkins, L. Jefferies, Walter Whitman, Aggie Herring, Thornton Edwards, Alfred Hollingsworth and J. P. Lockney.

Louise Huff's Tea Parties Now the Rage in Lilliland.

"Charmante, spirituelle and chic" are the three French adjectives lately applied to dainty Louise Huff, who is now appearing with Jack Pickford in their newest Paramount photoplay, "Jack and Jill." The adjectives are of the variety that need no translation for they fit the small star so exactly that no heavier English synonym could do better.

The occasion was at one of Miss Huff's famous afternoon teas at which she gathers around her celebrity writer Charles Kenyon. "Painted Lips" is the story of the young girl who falls by the wayside and her final redemption. It's a good clean story folks and worthy of your patronage.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

rites from screen and stage; from literature and art as well. In the group surrounding the star on this special afternoon were three gallant French Army officers.

Had Miss Huff not been a southerner and consequently well used to pretty speeches, her curly head might well have been turned; but with a characteristic shrug and laugh she skillfully accepted the praises in the most charming manner.

Jack Pickford, on the other hand, being a matter-of-fact northerner, still laughs at the remembrance of that afternoon tea and insists on calling Miss Huff "spirituelle, charmante and chic" with a most grotesque French accent which never fails to bring a laugh. Alta today.

ArCADE Sunday-Monday.

In "Wolves of the Rail," the latest Artcraft picture presenting Wm. S. Hart, the Thos. Ince star, which will be shown at the Arcade theater on Sunday and Monday, Hart is responsible for much of the story. Many effective scenes in recent Hart pictures have been the work of this famous westerner, and it is a well known fact that "The Narrow Trail," his first Artcraft release, was the product of Hart's pen.

Hart and Ince read the stories submitted and discussed each scene. "I must feel the story by the time it is well under way or I cannot bring myself to like it," he says. "If the author hasn't taken my measure pretty definitely in the first five minutes, it is a certainty that his work will be found unsuited for my use. My introduction is an important part of a scenario, and the author who misses an opportunity to give me a novel entrée will have a hard time selling his story."

WHERE'S THE BRONCHO I CAN'T BUST?

Jack wasn't what you would call an effete Easterner, but a Western bronco was beyond him; so he tried a Ford—and sure made the old "flivver" rock.

There's a backbone in this picture—perhaps it's some of the backbone that carried Jack up to stardom. You mustn't miss it!
