KILLERS COMPETING FOR CATTLE

PORTLAND, March 19.—It was a big day, in fact, an old fashioned one at North Portland. There was a liberal supply of cattle and the best of all was that the quality was good and most of the old time shippers were in for the day.

Early sales were made in the steer division at 11.50, which was the previous extreme mark, and the competition for supplies was keen. Outside buyers were bidding keenly for cattle of quality and taking the situation as a whole, it was a jolly and well satisfied lot of shippers that invaded the cattle division at North Portland for the day.

General cattle market range:
Medium to choice steers $10.50@11.75
Good to medium steers. 9.50@10.50
Common to good steers. 8.00@10.00
Choice cows and heifers. 8.50@10.00
Common to good cows and heifers 8.00@9.50

Canners 4.25@6.25
Bulls 5.00@9.00
Calves 5.00@12.00
Stecker and feeder steers 6.50@9.50

Swine About Steady.
Trade in the swine division of the North Portland market was just about steady with last week at the opening of the day's activity. Total run was slightly greater than the showing of last Monday, but demand held about the same and early prices were not molested.

General hog market range:
Prime light $16.50@17.00
Prime heavy 16.75@16.55
Tigs 14.25@15.25

Mutton Comes Direct.
A couple of loads of mutton were reported in the North Portland yards
