Alta Today

Western Drama Starring Wallace Reid at the Alta Theatre

Popular Wallace Reid, who has recently created a notable success with Geraldine Farrar in her Indian production, "The Woman God Forgot," is to be seen at the Alta Theatre in "Nan of Music Mountain," a Paramount picture. This is a western drama, being the thrilling tale of a man who started out to avenge his father's murder. How he is turned from his purpose and made to forget the hatred in his heart through the love of Nan, makes a plot that is as interesting as well as a photoplay.

Marguerite Clarke Appears in "Seven Swans" at the Arcade

Director J. Searle Dowley, who was responsible for the direction of the famous "Snow White" picture, starring Marguerite Clark, has recently directed the same star in still another fairy tale, this time an adaptation of his own from one of the Hans Andersen fairy tales—classics for children and grown-ups alike. The excellent cast includes Richard Barthelmess, Daisy Bellmore, William Danforth, Augusta Anderson, and others. As the Princess Tweedledee, who saves her seven brothers from a terrible fate, Miss Clark has created one of the most winsome and whimsical roles of her entire career. "The Seven Swans," as the production has been named, will be shown at the Arcade Theatre Sunday and Monday.

PERUNA in Your Home

A housewife must give the first aid in colds, coughs and other ailments. Her promptness in applying the remedy often saves a serious illness. Her experience with remedies has led her to know that PERUNA is always reliable, that she should have it on hand for the immediate treatment of coughs and colds, and that it is always to her.

Mrs. George Parker, 418 Water St., Manassas, Va., writes: "We have used Peruna in our family for a number of years, and have found it a perfectly reliable medicine. It soon rid the system of any traces of a cold, and prevents serious complications. I began using it for catarrh, which I suffered with a good many years. I had not been very serious until recently. When I have taken Peruna the drooping in my throat has discontinued, and my head and nose are not congested in the morning. I am pleased with the results, and shall continue to use it until I am entirely rid of catarrh. I have recommended it as an household medicine. I don't know how long it is ready to do for you."

The Family Safeguard

The experience of one woman, given herewith, is typical of thousands of letters that reach the Peruna Company from grateful friends who have found their homes incomplete, and their family safety in danger without PERUNA.

Colds and Catarrh

The great weight of testimony that has accumulated in the 41 years that PERUNA has been on the market proves beyond question, to be the reliable family remedy, ever ready to take, preventing the serious effects of colds, coughs, croup and derangements of the digestive organs. This proof is published from time to time and many families have profited by it.

Remember you can obtain PERUNA in tablet form for your convenience. Carry it with you and be protected against sudden attacks.

PENDLETON PUBLIC LIBRARY NEW BOOKS

An appreciated gift to the library is Fisher and Fisk's "How to Live." No health book ever published ever received as much favorable comment from the dignitaries of the medical profession as "How to Live."

The latest to join the ranks of sponsors for this famous health book is Dr. Rupert Blue, the surgeon general, U. S. public health service, Washington, D. C., who says in part: "How to Live is a true story of personal hygiene, told in a plain and straightforward manner."

AMONG THE WAR BOOKS

Tiplady—The Cross at the Front.
"Chaplain Thomas Tiplady shows the soldiers at the front he knows and loves him. "Not scarlet—not yet white—but just khaki." He gives a side of the war that will brighten your dark moments—a note of joy out of a chorus of pain, revealing a phase hitherto almost left untouched."
Bairnsfather—Bullets and Ballets.
"Casually written records of daily life in the French trenches during the first six months of the war. Capt. Bairnsfather has no romantic illusions about modern warfare, but he has an appreciation of its grim realities and a sense of humor, both of which are brought out in 19 reproductions of the author's well known sketches and the numerous cartoons that illustrate the text. Here is a great war reduced to grim and gruesome absurdities. It is not fun poked by a mere looker-on, it is the fun felt in the war by one who has been through it!"

A partial list of the new books just received:
Baldwin—The Sampo.
Brown—The Spanish Chest.
Collins—Boy Book of Submarines.
Colum—A Boy From Erin.
Davis—The Deserter.
