talks hopeless and he is a friend, give him a tonic, if he is a foe, give him a poke.

WHY HELP THE FOE?

IF the kaiser made his sensational drive against the British partly with the aim of affecting the morale of the allies so as to pave the way for a German made peace he has had valuable help from some American newspapers. With scaring headlines and highly sensational reports they have at times given people a grossly exaggerated idea of the success gained by the Huns.

One would judge from some of the stuff seen that the allied armies had been destroyed, that Paris was in ruins and all was over but the crowing in Berlin. There was never anything to justify that sad picture. Only a fraction of the allied army was engaged. Though driven back and temporarily defeated Haig's men made a splendid showing. Twenty seven divisions of British checked 97 divisions of on-rushing Teutons. The German loss in killed has been much heavier than the British loss. The general situation from the allied standpoint has never approached anything bordering disaster. There has been general confidence at all times that the foe would be checked.

Without intending to do so some of our newspapers have helped the foe by overemphasizing his accomplishments. The kaiser wants just that sort of stuff. It helps his game along.

WATCH CLOSELY THE ENEMIES AT HOME.

THE task of this country, in the present war, would be greatly simplified and greatly reduced in its magnitude were all our country's enemies in the German and Austrian armies. The fact that there are hundreds of thousands, even millions, of enemies scattered all over our land, either conspiring to poison our soldiers or to poison public opinion that supports them; conspiring to dynamite industries making munitions and supplies for our army or to demoralize public opinion and destroy the morale of the people upon whom the men in our army and navy must rely for support—these facts and these activities mean not only a prolongation of the war and a larger loss of life, but it means tears otherwise unshed and sorrow otherwise unknown.

The forces of evil, of disorganization, of disloyalty and of enmity to America and its in-

Over Here

Last evening a little girl whose eyes appeared just above the library loan desk, laid her book down and confided in the librarian: "I'll not be reading any more books for a little while 'cause I'm knitting for the soldiers." When asked what she was knitting she promptly replied "wash rags."

If the soldiers and war refugees

stitutions are manifesting themselves in many ways. Many good people unconsciously fall victims to those sinister forces when they complain of slight inconveniences resulting from war conditions; when they agitate, rail, and criticize because their business is suspended for a few days or their profits are lessened by a few dollars; when they allow the spirit of selfishness and of greed to temporarily outweigh and overbalance the spirit of sacrifice and of service.

Greed and gain are not weapons with which we can win the war. They are the motives that inspired it. We can win the war only with sacrifices, sacrifices yet undreamed of; with service, service greater than we have anticipated. Above all, let us keep watch and guard in order that the enemy may not, by insidious propaganda, by falsehoods, innuendos, and agitation, demoralize the people at home upon whose soldierly and patriotic cooperation the men in our army and navy are depending.

WHO SAID WOMEN WOULD NEVER ELECT WOMAN TO OFFICE?

Women elected Mrs. Ralph Smith of Vancouver to the provincial parliament of British Columbia and gave her the distinction of being the first woman in the world who owns her political success to the women of her constituency.

Where are the anti's who used to say women would never elect a woman to office?

"There are precedents for it," explains the learned gentleman who used "that many" in a careless moment. Dear sir, that "precedent" business is what set the kaiser on the road to perdition.

28 YEARS AGO

The contract for the Pendleton Savings Bank building was let at a late hour this afternoon. The contract calls for completion by the middle of September.

Al Vogel left this morning on a business and pleasure visit to Spokane Falls.

A general family row occurred in a household on Webb street last night. The screams of the participants being heard for blocks.

A gentleman from La Grande informs us that a street railway company has been organized in that city and has been granted a franchise. Pendleton also has a street railway company with a franchise but no railway.

W. H. Babb of Echo has purchased Fred Page Tustin's fine thoroughbred filly "Dott", paying $350 for the animal.

The Marston-Sharon & Co. have disposed of their fire insurance business to J. H. Parks of the Pendleton Abstract Co.

Assailant and Victim Take Ride Together

When good sheepmen are needed there is no time for quarrelling is evidently the view of Ira Miller and M. Hotchkiss, two men working for Sloan brothers near Echo. Miller is under $1000 bail awaiting trial for having nearly killed Hotchkiss with a knife several weeks ago at Juniper. However, Hotchkiss has recovered and Saturday morning the two men rode in the same seat of a car out to the Sloan ranch to resume work again.

- LEADERS
- Some leaders lead too far ahead
 - High-visioned, unfratid
 - Let axes after they are dead
 - We tread the paths they made.
 - Some leaders lead too far behind.
 - Nor seem to keep the track;
 - Yet they bring on the deaf and blind
 - Who else would hold us back.
 - And some seem not to lead at all.
 - Some moving on the way;
 - Yet help the weary feet and small
 - Of those who else would stray.
 - Lead on, O leaders of the race;
 - Your work is long and wide;
 - We need your help in every place.
 - Before, behind, beside.

WIN OR DIE

WHATEVER may be the temporary fortunes of war one fact may be set down for keeps and that is that the war is going to end in defeat for the kaiser and victory for the United States and the allies.

No nation has ever conquered the world in modern times. Germany cannot do it now. The whole Teuton scheme is upon a false basis and it is going to fail. France, Italy, England and America will die before they allow an insane mental monstrosity like the kaiser to rule the world. But they will not die because before that time comes they will have wiped the Hohenzollerns and all their wooden headed subjects off the face of the earth; they will have made the Boche an extinct species and the only place that German will be spoken will be in hell.

Do not countenance discouragement over the war. An allied triumph is as certain as the sunshine if we but stay in the game. If the allies are beaten it will be by themselves not by the Germans.

TELLS HOW TO TAKE SORENESS FROM A CORN AND LIFT IT RIGHT OUT.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called freezeone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You simply apply a few drops of this on a tender, aching corn and the soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this.
