TOMORROW.

Gay Mannon gave to Worthy Cause,
A bag of gold amid applause,
While Near Wealth said, "I'll give someday;
When greater wealth shall come my way,
To Worthy Cause I'll donate well,
But hark! the devil sings in hell,
"The reaper reaps and he reapeth well,"
When Near Wealth gained great golden stores,
With selfish greed his vision soars,
"Tomorrow I will surely give,
To Worthy Cause if I should live,"
But just the devil sings in hell,
"Tonight I reap and reapeth well,
With me the dead tomorrow's dwell."
—Fremont Pallock Livingston.

PERSHING HAS IT RIGHT

American blood in their veins will rejoice at General Pershing's request in the name of our government that all the American forces in France be used in what is evidently a contemplated counter drive against the Huns. We have several hundred thousand men in France. Perhaps a half million. They are real soldiers, commanded by generals of ability and courage. The men are well equipped, they are in the pink of condition, judging from all reports, and eager to get at the foe. We do not know as yet what part they will play in the present game but time may reveal that they are in for work of the greatest importance. Whatever may come we may be assured they will give a good account of themselves and if through the fortunes of war they prove inadequate for the task there are many millions here who will be glad to go to their aid in the world's greatest war for freedom.

THEY ARE HUNGRY

REFUGEES from Germany in Switzerland bring stories that the German people as a whole have become irritable and quarrelsome to an unusual degree. Petty quarrelling has greatly increased and so has crime. These conditions may be traced largely to food shortage. When men go hungry they become ill-natured. An entire nation in such a category may be expected to show the same symptoms as are manifested by the individual. If this be true there may be unexpected developments within the kaiserland. Particularly will this be true if the allies are able to throw the German armies back with severe losses. If German patience has become restive under what may be termed successes in the field what will happen when setbacks come and defeat impends.

THE SOONER THE BETTER

WHEN Vice President Marshall spoke in Pendleton last fall he declared in favor of cancelling the citizenship of foreign born residents who display lack of loyalty during the war.

The government is going to carry out this very suggestion. Clarence Reames, former United States attorney for Oregon and now special assistant attorney general has made an announcement to this effect.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer in commenting says:

The stress of war has induced a taking of stock in American citizenship. Disloyalty, in the course of events, has revealed itself in unexpected places, and at the same time America's call to her faithful sons has brought patriotic response from the loyal among the foreign born. War issues have segregated the sheep from the goats, and indicated plainly the line of cleavage between those who deserve citizenship and those who do not. In the circumstances, and as fast as the facts warrant, there should be no delay and no hesitation in depriving the unworthy ones of their unappreciated privileges and shipping them back to the country that holds their regard and respect.

War has demonstrated what may have been a matter of doubt in recent years; the United States of America is a family, not a collection of international boarders, and we have the same right that inheres in any other family; we have the right to expel any intruder who is a menace to the family peace, or safety, or purpose. The foreign born who are here for their own selfish ends, and have no sympathy with American purposes, whose loyalty is for the country that gave them birth, and whose influence is now exerted against the country that feeds, clothes and protects them, have no claims upon our hospitality. These should be, and, as Mr. Reames tells us, will be rounded up and sent back to their various fatherlands.

Speed the good work. There is no time like the present to get it underway.

If there are 400,000 German spies in America it is more than time to begin upon a series of 400,000 funerals.

Despite all pessimism over the air subject the British seem to be masters in that line of fighting.

The kaiser is trying to bail out a leaky boat with a leagy bucket.

Report cases of seditious talking so that disloyalists may be brought to time.

What? Letergo wants to know what has become of the old-fashioned woman who used to throw sugar on the fire when it began to die out?

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, March 30, 1890)

Allen Bushon and Robbie Fletcher, two ambitious and industrious youths have fitted up a peanut stand in the opera house.

Thomas Fitzgerald, Esq., has received a letter from Hon. John Gagen stating that he is organizing a street car company in Port Townsend owned by himself and other Pendletonians.

It's worth a trip to Astoria just to sample the choice liquor kept at the Astoria saloon.

Pendleton's police force present a handsome appearance in their new uniforms, especially Officer Durham who loomed with exceeding loquacity in a pig hat, blue coat and shining brass buttons.

John Mays, a prominent rancher and stockman of Dayton, is in the city today.

LONDON FIXES CURFEW HOUR

All Amusement Places Must Close at 10:30 at Night.

LONDON, March 25.—The curfew hour has been fixed for London and the southern counties of England at 10:30 o'clock at night. At that hour all places of amusement must be closed, and they must remain closed until 1 o'clock the following afternoon. There will be no lights for shop windows, and the hotels, clubs, restaurants and other designated places must cease hot meals from 9:30 at night until 5 o'clock in the morning.

KANSAS CITY STRIKE BIG.

KANSAS CITY, March 25.—Between three thousand and ten thousand union workmen are today sympathetically striking with laundry workers. Two breweries are crippled. Bartenders and waiters are quitting. Street cars continue running. Two war plants are crippled.

Evidently a great many teachers who have taught the young idea how to shout didn't know it was loaded.
