THE SOMME

O Somme! We sob with you, O Somme! O terror-stricken plain, A world for your distraction pours.

HELPING THE KAISER

MUCH stress is being laid on the fact that as yet we have shipped few airplanes to France.

ed in this country by Englishmen. The best English experts were brought to this country and the proposition was put up to them.

IN THE BILLIONS FEDERAL control of flour, fuel and sugar prices have saved the American people billions of dollars in the last year.

sum but the statement is justified nevertheless. It is estimated by E. N. Fairchild, a Cleveland, Ohio, miller of long experience and sound judgment, that nearly $900,000,000 have been saved the American people on flour since last July by the United States Food Administration.

extortion. He is entitled to your cordial support. With democratic nations engaged in a death grapple with the Huns, Americans are in no mood to tolerate sedition or anything bordering on disloyalty; the day of divided allegiance is past and all will do well to take heed.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, April 1, 1889.) Donald McKay, the famous scout who has been lying very ill at the home of Gus Russe on the reservation is now recovering.
