WONDER.

He thought. The world was fashioned.
He said and it was done.
He made man in His image.
His likeness and His son.
He filled him with His music.
He warmed him with His glow.
He gave him power and vision
To know what angels know.
His chariot in the morning,
Evening His garment's hem;
The planets in their courses
He guides and counsels them.

A trench, storm-shelled and broken;
A red air thunder riven—
For wounded comrade done to death
A lone man to the last hot breath
Fights on to Heaven's wonder.
—Charles Eugene Banks.

sembled at Washington are right. There is too much leniency toward spies and too much freedom for those holding seditious views.

America is at war for a great cause. It is a war that is calling for tremendous energy and sacrifice. The nation is putting up money by the billions. Our boys are responding nobly to the call for service. Those now in France daily risk their lives on the altar of patriotism.

Under such circumstances we cannot safely show tolerance for obstructionists and traitors at home. Internal enemies may prove more deadly than any other kind if left alone. Russia fell because that unhappy country allowed the Kaiser's propagandists to work among the Russian people. They debauched the country and it now totters helpless and all but destroyed.

Our government should take hold of seditious with a firm, determined hand. It should be backed up by earnest, organized effort on the part of the people in every county in every state in the nation. Through the Patriotic Service League this county has made a good start toward carrying out such work. There should be no turning back.

Give the knackers and disloyalists a chance and they will render Uncle Sam impotent as a war wager.

THE TIME WILL COME

FOLLOWING the first few days of the great battle that began some 10 days ago news dispatches referred at times to the allied "army of manoeuvre" reputed to be somewhere behind the fighting lines and ready to strike at a strategic point. It was the supposition that this army would be used in a counter attack upon the Germans.

As yet no such blow has been given. Is this because the logical time has not arrived? The question is one which many are asking. Holding the enemy on the Somme and blocking the capture of Amiens is hopeful of course. But it is going to take more than defensive fighting to whip the Huns. In time the allies must be able to move forward, throwing the enemy back upon the Rhine. That we will do so in good time all believe. However, the proper time to strike is a problem for the commanders rather than for fireside strategists. Let us hope though that when the moment arrives our generalissimo will have the nerve and resourcefulness to put it through no matter if the way be hard and the cost be heavy.

The war can be won only by fighting.

THE ARMY AS A TEACHER

AN army officer recently visited the training camps of our new national army. The spirit of democracy that he found there astonished him. In the Red Cross Magazine he writes enthusiastically: "Whether your boy," he says, "is a private or an officer you can rest assured that he will come out of this war a manlier man. He will have more self-reliance, be more courteous, display a greater quality of fair play and justice and know better how to obey as well as how to lead. The army is a wonderful leveler. The so-called 'high-brow,' the 'rough-neck,' the wise and the foolish are all on the same plane. Every one fights for the same cause. The coal heaver's son and the banker's favored boy, the farmer lad and the young millionaire all march side by side, sharing the same hardships, discomfords and dangers at times, and enjoying the identical pleasures, athletics and joys incident to a soldier's life. There is no better school in the world for teaching a young man the lessons of life than the army and we shall, before the war is over, owe a debt never to be forgotten."

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian April 5, 1890)

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wade returned last evening from their trip east. Mr. Wade visited the mammoth electric light plants of St. Paul, Chicago, New York, and other eastern cities.

E. J. Sommerville returned to his home in Milton this morning after successfully conducting his campaign here.

J. H. Turner and Wm. Roesch are seriously contemplating the erection of handsome brick on their seventy-foot front of Court street property.

J. Emry and son, of Hutchinson, Kansas are in the city taking notes of our advantages with a view to investing in Pendleton dirt.

Henry Kopttke and Co. have removed to their new quarters on the corner of Alta and Lillith streets.

FROM THE PEOPLE

April 5, 1918.

Editor, East Oregonian:

The Interstate Commerce Commission decided in the Trans-continental Rate case that the water competition, which lower rates were granted for, no longer existed and instructed the railroads to reconstruct their tariffs, making interior points take as low and in some instances lower than Portland. This has been done, and effective March 15th, the new tariffs went into effect.

It is feared by representative business interests in the intermountain territory that when the war is over, the water competition will be restored and that the railroads will petition the I. C. C. to restore the low rates to the coast and allow them to charge more to the interior, which, under

There is a complete lack of discipline among the Red guard, the members of the party say. They believe the end of the fighting in Finland is only a matter of a few weeks.

AMERICAN ENGINEER IS RESCUED FROM BANDITS

PEKING, April 4.—E. J. Pursell, one of the American engineers captured by bandits in Northern Honan province early last month and held for ransom, has been rescued by soldiers who intercepted the band as it was attempting to retreat farther into the mountains. Mr. Pursell's home formerly was in St. Paul.

The bandits succeeded in carrying off their other captive, George A. Kyle of Portland, Ore., who, however, is reported in good health and being fairly well treated.

the existing 4th Section of the Interstate Commerce Law, the Commission can and may grant.

A bill has been introduced in Congress by Representative Hayden amending the law so that the 4th Section will be inflexible, and that it will be unlawful for a carrier to charge more for a shorter than for a longer haul in the same direction, the shorter being introduced in the longer.

The Intermediate Rate Association, of which Honorable J. F. Shaughnessy of the Nevada Railroad Commission is President, has been established in Washington for the purpose of using the interests of the interior country in behalf of the bill. Enclosed copy of letter to Mr. Shaughnessy is self-explanatory.

In the event the bill introduced by Mr. Hayden becomes a law, Eastern Oregon will always receive a lower rate than the coast points from the east, thus making larger Eastern Oregon towns dist. and more points. This is something we of Eastern Oregon have been striving for for years and this is our one golden opportunity. All Eastern Oregon should lend all the assistance possible toward the enactment of the Hayden Bill, and suggest that local people write our representatives in Congress, urging their support.

Very respectfully,
H. H. CAREY.

TWO AMERICANS ONLY ARE LEFT IN FINLAND

All Others Are Sold at Stockholm—Passed Under Flag of Truce.

STOCKHOLM, April 4.—All Americans are now safely out of Finland except Consul Haynes and Vice Consul Walford at Helsinki. The party includes Capt. and Mrs. Crossley, Capt. and Mrs. Norman Stines, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Corse, Edgar Shoen, Arthur Bull, Roger Simmons and John Tire.

The party passed from the lines of the Red guard to those of the White guard, or government troops, under the American flag and a flag of truce. The members were well treated by both the Red guard and the White guard.

It's Wonderful to See "Gets-It" Peel Off This Corn.

corn-pain vanishes. Shortly you can peel the corn right off with your finger and there you are—painless and happy, with the toe as smooth and corn-free as your palm. "Gets-It" is the only safe way in the world to treat a corn, or callus. It's the sure way—the way that never fails. It is tried and true—used by millions every year. It always works. "Gets-It" makes cutting and digging at a corn and fussing with bandages, salves or anything else entirely unnecessary.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists, you need pay no more than 25 cents, or it will be sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

ARTFUL DODGER HAS NO CHANCE

Put a few drops on that old touchy corn then lift it out without pain

"Guch ! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less her in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. A delightful surprise awaits all who try this.

He says freezezone is a sticky substance which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezezone which will cost very little at any drug store, is said to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.
