Daily Chats With the Housewife

30,000,444 KITCHENS WILL HELP There are 30,000,000 kitchens in this country, which means 60,000,000 breakfast, lunch and dinner tables.

And a little saving of wheat and animal fats and sugar at each of these meals means a real contribution to our allies and our own boys abroad—a big help toward winning the war.

Oatmeal Biscuits. One and one-half cups white flour, 1-2 cup rolled oats or oatmeal (uncooked), 4 level teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 level tablespoon Cottolene, 3-4 cup milk (or half water and half milk).

Sift together flour, oatmeal, baking powder and salt. Rub or chop in spoon Cottolene, 3-4 cup milk (or water and mix to soft dough with knife. Roll about half inch thick and cut. Bake in hot oven for fifteen minutes.

Uncle Sam says: "Housekeepers, everybody, fall in line!" And housekeepers all over the country are cheerfully bending all their energies to contribute to the desired saving and service. They are falling valiantly into line—saving wheat, animal fats, beef, pork, sugar.

They are discovering new uses for cereals like cornmeal barley, oats—in bread and cake making, muffins, biscuits.

Here is an old-fashioned gingerbread recipe, which is quite in tune with the times.

Gingerbread. One cup New Orleans molasses, 2 scant tablespoons Cottolene melted, 1 cup boiling water, 1 level teaspoon soda, 1 1-2 cups flour, 1 1-2 cups barley meal, 1 tablespoon ginger.

Dissolve soda in tablespoon boiling water and add it to the molasses. Sift together the barley meal, flour and ginger. Add the melted Cottolene and boiling water to first mixture. Beat well, then add the flour sifted with ginger. Beat until smooth. Bake in moderate oven about thirty minutes.

It is well to remember that mixtures made with molasses are likely to scorch and burn quickly.

An Oil Economy. Phoebe's mayonnaise—Three level tablespoons of cornstarch (Kingsford's), with just enough cold water to dissolve. Seal with 1 cup of boiling water and cook 5 minutes. Add to the starch while boiling 1-2 tablespoons salt, 3 level tablespoons sugar, and 1 teaspoon mustard and 1-4 as much turmeric made into a paste with 1 tablespoon vinegar. Take from the fire and keep stirring till almost cold to keep smooth. Pour into a cold salad bowl and beat with a Dover beater; when perfectly cold add 2 yolks or 1 whole egg. Then alternately 1 cupful of oil and the juice of 1 lemon. The oil can be added 1-3 at a time. Season with cayenne pepper. This dressing will not separate and as a basis for tartar sauce has no equal.

Liberty Pudding. Into 1 1-2 cups boiling water slightly salted, stir 1-2 cup coarse graham flour which has been mixed with 1-2 cup cold water. Bring to a good boil, then put in double boiler and cook one hour. Then add sugar to taste, 1-2 cup raisins, cut small, 1-3 cup walnuts cut small, 1 cup milk (Carnation's may be used). Heat thoroughly and add 1 beaten egg. Remove from fire after stirring well and pour into small cups or molds. Serve cold with thin cream sweetened with brown sugar and slightly flavored with vanilla. Very delicious, nourishing and economical.

Apple Pie. Slice apples fine and place on lower crust. Sprinkle with cloves or cinnamon.

Take two-thirds cup of sugar (preferably brown), 1 teaspoon cornstarch, Lump of butter, Three tablespoons water.

Boil together and pour on apples, place upper crust on and bake.

To keep strap from boiling out make funnel of stiff writing paper and put in center of upper crust.

1, 2, 3. Pie Crust. One cup of flour, Two tablespoons lard, Three tablespoons water.

Little salt and one-half teaspoon baking powder.

Rhubarb sherbet. This is a very grateful and cooling drink for the first oppressive hot spring days.

Cut a pound of rhubarb in a granite kettle and cook till soft. Strain off juice; there should be about three pints as a quart of water should be put on to start it cooking. Cut lemon fine and put in a stone jar with a cup of sugar, pour the boiling juice over it. Set in a cool place and then chill on ice.

Delicious Rhubarb Pie. Make a crust after your favorite war time recipe and line a medium deep tin. Take one cupful sugar, one-half cup flour and one-half teaspoon strawberry or lemon flavoring, mix thoroughly. Spread half the mixture over the bottom of pie.

Cut tender rhubarb in short lengths to fill pie. Sprinkle remainder of flour and sugar and put on top crust. Crimp closely and leave plenty of air-holes in the top.

Bake rather slowly till rich brown.

Rhubarb Custard. To stewed sweetened rhubarb add well beaten eggs in the proportion of one egg to one and a half cups of the fruit. Pour into individual ramekins set into a pan of boiling water and bake in the oven until set. Serve cold.

BEINSTORFF, JR., IS SUED BY BARON

Wife, Former American, Also Is a Defendant.

AMSTERDAM, April 12.—Berlin society is much stirred by a suit for libel against Count Gunther Von Bernstorff, son of the former German ambassador to the United States, by Baron Walter Von Radeck, a member of an old military family who lived for many years in England.

Count Gunther's wife, who was Mrs. Marguerite Vivian Burton Thomason of Burlington, N. J., and a number of others, including the wife of one of the generals commanding an army on the western front, also are defendants.

Baron Von Radeck and his wife, according to the Rheinische Westfalische Zeitung, were divorced in October, 1917, and she subsequently married Count Von Bernstorff.

The result was a physical encounter between the two men in which Von Radeck tore the epaulettes from Von Bernstorff's uniform. Thereupon Von Bernstorff declared that Von Radeck was not capable of giving satisfaction as a gentleman and he charged Von Radeck with spying for England.

This resulted in Von Radeck leaving the army and Von Bernstorff being punished by a military court. The baron now charges that Von Bernstorff, with fourteen others, caused his divorce and dismissal from the army by circulating "untruthful reports."
