

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Has Typoca Flour.

A new wheat substitute has made its appearance in the form of Typoca flour. Blydenstein & Co. announced today they had secured an initial shipment of this wheat flour substitute.

Helm to Have Rally.

A patriotic rally is to be held at Helm tomorrow night and a request for a speaker from Pendleton was made today of C. G. Matlock speaker manager for the Patriotic service league. He has secured Assessor C. P. Strain to address the meeting.

To Take as Orphans.

Pendleton is asked to take care of 55 fatherless children in France and Rev. Alfred Lockwood, head of the Pendleton branch of the fatherless French children organization believes the number will be cared for by this evening. At 7:30 tonight a meeting of the organization is to be held at the library and all interested in the move are cordially invited to attend.

Is Judge Pro Tem.

John Halley, Jr. is acting as recorder and police judge during the illness of Judge Thomas Pitts Gerald.

Three Held for Being Drunk.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly, Cleve Forlar, 41, B. Mason and Claud Scribner were arrested by the night police in a rooming house and are held for trial this afternoon under $25 bail. It is said they assaulted Officer Myers when arrested.

Made Big Beef Purchase.

C. E. Rude, buyer for Frye & Co. purchased 150 head of beef from C. E. Rinschert and Louis Hodgson of Emahais yesterday and the stock will be shipped Saturday to Seattle, the shipment being consolidated at The Dalles with 25 cars of beef purchased by Mr. Rude at Gateway. The entire train of beef will consist of 11 cars.

Seniors Get Busy.

Mrs. Forshaw, music instructor at the high school, called a meeting of the senior class this morning to arrange plans for the class day and commencement exercises. There will be several musical numbers and solos, also a boys and girls quartet. The class will meet again Tuesday to rehearse their program.

Fire Drill at High School.

Fire Chief Ringold visited the high school this morning and held a fire drill, 30 seconds being required for vacating. However, some members of the faculty think that if a definite signal was given, instead of the steady ringing of the bell, better results could be obtained, for the students are at first inclined to think that it is a period bell and do not start immediately.

Will Run This Afternoon.

The four mile relay race is being run at the Round-Up grounds this afternoon beginning about 3:40. Owing to the lack of long distance runners every class may not enter a team of four men. The senior class expects to enter three men each, one of whom will run more than a mile. This will give the other classes a slight advantage, the freshman class at least having a number of men to pick from. The class winning the race will be awarded the cup which is offered by the Bachelor club of the high school, and is now on display in Sawtelle's jewelry store window.

French Orphan Children.

A list of 53 fatherless French children has been received by the Pendleton committee of fatherless children of France. The fathers have lost their lives in battle and the mothers need help in supporting their children until the war is over and conditions are more normal.
