WALLA WALLA BRIDE IS POISON VICTIM

Woman Claims Three Men Forced Her to Swallow Capsule.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 23.—Police tonight have found no clue in the case of Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, bride of Brooks A. Taylor, who says she was attacked by three strange men who choked her to a condition of semi-unconsciousness and then forced her to swallow a capsule containing poison. She is in a local hospital in a serious condition.

Her husband was sued for alleged breach of promise by Blanche Monegan about a week ago, $15,000 being asked. This suit, it is said, has impaired Mrs. Taylor's health to the extent of a nervous breakdown. The death of an aunt, her only relative in this country, also added to the seriousness of her condition.

Mr. Taylor has been unable to explain the report of the three strange men entering his home and choking his wife. Officers expressed the opinion last night that it was possible she had told of the attack while suffering from extreme nervousness. There are finger prints on her throat however, as though she had been choked and this has puzzled the officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, a young woman and Lawrence Christensen had been seated in the parlor of the Taylor home, 2 Whitman street, shortly after midnight this morning and Mrs. Taylor went up stairs. The others heard sounds of a struggle and hurried to the upper floor, where Mrs. Taylor was found on the floor. No other persons were seen and none were heard to make their escape, though the windows were open.

Several days ago the Taylors turned over to the police two letters written to Mrs. Taylor, neither signed, and both asking her to meet the writer in the City Park to learn something regarding her husband. One said if she responded she would find out things about him "and then you won't think he is so nice." The other contained the words: "Last warning" and asked the appointment.

Mr. Taylor denied the reports of attempted suicide.

"I have been farming 2000 acres of land," he said, "but I expect to give it up and devote my time to running down this affair."

Mrs. Taylor was until April 3, Miss Gertrude von Schosthoven. Last week her husband was sued by Blanche Monegan, who claims that Mr. Taylor promised to marry her in 1914, and had repeated the promise since that time.

Logger Is Killed.

Wool at 60 Cents.

YAKIMA, April 23.—Several sales of wool have been made in the valley this week at 60 cents a pound and woolgrowers are confident from advices received that they will get from 55 to 60 cents for the remainder of their holdings.

James Barton Adams Dies.

VANCOUVER, April 23.—James Barton Adams, poet, is dead.

After a week's illness, brought about indirectly, it is believed, by his over-exertion on behalf of the government when Mr. Adams volunteered his telegraphic service at the army post here, the well known writer of verse died at 7:15 o'clock last night. He was 74 years of age.

Moss For Bandaging.

PORTLAND, April 23.—The northwest will be able to make delivery July 1 of the 500,000 sphagnum moss dressings called for by the army and the Red Cross.

There are 3000 acres of sphagnum moss on the cranberry bogs in Pacific county, Washington, on one 40 acre tract there being enough sphagnum to make the half million pads.

Earl Kilpatrick, northwest director of the American National Red Cross, now in Portland, told of the appointment of J. J. Bush as special agent of the American Red Cross at Ilwaco, and Mr. Bush has promised to mobilize 1500 people, the entire population of the North Beach peninsula, and get the moss ready for shipment.

Daily Chats With the Housewife

Experimental work done at the Oregon Agricultural College has resulted in the development of some excellent wheatless war breads. Since the work preparing the food without some of the standard ingredients has not always been understood, results have not always been promising. Here are some recipes combining cereal and potato products recommended by Dean Milan as being adapted to average home conditions, and as being satisfactory conservation food.

- Steamed Rice Bread
 - 1-4 cup corn meal.
 - 2-4 cup rice flour.
 - 2-3 cup oat flour.
 - 1 teaspoon salt.
 - 1 teaspoon soda.
 - 3-3 cup molasses.
 - 1 cup sour milk.
- Mix dry ingredients. Mix molasses and sour milk. Combine, put in greased mold and steam two hours. Makes one loaf.
- Oat Flour Muffins
 - 2 1-2 cups oat flour.
 - 1 1-2 cup milk.
 - 4 tablespoons corn syrup (Karo).
 - 2 teaspoons baking powder.
 - 1 teaspoon salt.
 - 2 tablespoons crisco.
 - 2 eggs, beat whites light.
- Quick Breads Using Potatoes
(If desired, an amount of grated raw potato equal to the amount of mashed potato called for may be used but the resulting bread is darker and has a more marked potato flavor than when cooked potatoes are used.)
- Try this recipe for tea biscuits. Notice that the liquid is less than is the case when all flour is used, because of the water the mashed potato contains.
- Potato Biscuits.
 - 2 cups sifted flour.
 - 1 teaspoon salt.
 - 2 teaspoons baking powder.
 - 2 tablespoons shortening.
 - 1 cup mashed potato.
 - Liquid sufficient to mix.
- Sift together twice the flour, salt and baking powder. Cut or rub into this cold shortening. In the same way rub into this flour mixture the mashed potato. Finally, add just enough cold liquid to make the mass cling together. Do not knead. Place on floured board, roll until 1-2 inch thick, and cut into rounds. Place these in lightly floured biscuit tins and bake 15 to 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Bake all potato breads more slowly than those made with flour alone.
- Potato-Cornmeal Muffins.
 - 1 cup mashed potato.
 - 1 cup corn meal.
 - 1-2 cup sifted flour.

- 3 teaspoons baking powder.
- 1 or 2 tablespoons syrup.
- 2 tablespoons shortening.
- Liquid to mix to a medium batter (about 1-2 cup).
- Add the corn meal, syrup, and 1-2 cup liquid to the hot mashed potato, place in double boiler and steam 10 to 30 minutes. Add the shortening and allow to cool thoroughly. When cold add the well-beaten eggs and the flour which has been sifted with the baking powder. Add just enough more liquid, if necessary, to make a somewhat stiff batter. Beat thoroughly, place in gem pans until half-filled, and bake 25 to 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

GEORGE PEMBROKE DRAWS BLUE SLIP

George Pembroke, former Pendleton catcher, who has been trying out with the Portland Buckaroos, was yesterday released by Manager Fisher because of slowness in rounding into condition. He left for Portland and local fans are betting he catches on with another club of the same league.

Pembroke reported in poor condition and the fact that Gunner Peterson, Cox and Fearborn are all potential catchers contributed to his release. Peterson is figured by Fisher as his best bet behind the bat so far, and all three of the men can work in the infield or outfield as well as behind the bat, whereas Pembroke is a one-place man. "Pem" has been slugging the ball hard during the past week and, if he gets into the condition he was when he played with Pendleton, he should be a valuable man to any club of the P. C. I. League.

Shoats, Bourg and Hollacher have been sent to Spokane. The remainder of the crew will probably leave for Portland Wednesday noon and Fisher will pit them against several of the fast semi-pro teams of Portland and vicinity before he sends them into the opening game of the season.

Now it's the season of the year when that most popular of army songs, keep the Home Fires Burning," should give way to the farm slogan, "Keep the Home Soil Turning."
