KITTY GORDON, THE BEAUTIFUL IN "THE DIVINE SACRIFICE"

She Will Be Seen Today at the Alta Theater.

Kitty Gordon, the beautiful, will be seen today at the Alta theater in "The Divine Sacrifice," her newest World-Picture Brady-Made in which she is love revolved in the lawyer's heart and he induced the girl to marry him. She had, previously, fallen in love with a member of the bohemian set she accepted as her circle of friends, but he had thrown her over when he married for money. In later years, the old admirer met, and it was the honest love of the lawyer-husband that saved the wife from wrecking her seen in the forceful role of Mrs. Madeline Spencer. The role is one of the most powerful and effective which she has yet portrayed and it gives full opportunity for the display of her splendid talents.

Miss Gordon's new production tells a most remarkable story of mother love. It shows the lengths to which an adoring mother will go to secure happiness and a future for her child. Miss Gordon as the mother has a most difficult role which she handles to perfection. All the members of the cast have been chosen for their particular abilities along the lines of the characters they impersonate, so that the whole cast is well-nigh perfect.

An interesting thing in connection with the showing of this picture is the fact that it marks the screen debut of Vera Beresford, the daughter of Kitty Gordon, whose real name, by the way, is the Honorable Lady Beresford. Miss Beresford shows that she has inherited her mother's supreme talents.

One of the very pleasing features of the picture is the beauty of the interior and exterior scenes, the exterior being notably beautiful. Of course, the photoplay is of the very best. The whole production is a very exceptional and thoroughly likable attraction and you'll enjoy it.

Make it a point to see "The Divine Sacrifice." It will be well worth your while. Alta today.

Pastime Today.
An event actually happening in New York's "bohemian" reported by Edna Kenton, a famous newspaper writer, inspired the Bluebird photoplay, "Bondage," that will introduce Dorothy Phillips in one of her favorite roles at the Pastime theater today.

A girl from a country town had spurned the love of a young lawyer, because she sought fame as a newspaper writer. The lawyer went to New York and by strange fate was interviewed by his first love, who now was furnishing sensational stories to a notoriously yellow journal. The early life in Bluebird photoplays, with Dorothy Phillips playing the role of the temperamental wife, this story will be reflected at the Pastime theater with advance assurance of splendid entertainment.

Arcade Today.
When Billy Kennedy convinced Marjorie Meredith that the time had come for them to marry, pernicious opposition from the old man Meredith immediately placed obstructions in the pathway of Cupid's chariot. Meredith's principal antagonism centered on the lifelong enmity between himself and Orlis Kennedy, and it was Meredith's vow that his daughter would never marry the son of his hated neighbor "The Fighting Grin" to be presented in Bluebird photoplays at the Arcade theater today starts off with this condition of affairs, and before it ends, some of the most lively and laughable incidents ever shown de Varilla, San Francisco, an artilleryman, who, his companions claimed, was the first American to fire a shot at the Germans last October. "I felt pretty good when that old shell went sailing over the hill," de Varilla admitted. "The only thing we were all sore about was that we could not see where it hit and had to take another man's word for it. It made it sort of an impersonal war." The corporal said the Germans made their first raid in his sector October 31 and that it was after this raid that the body of an American soldier

GERMANS PAID BIG TOLL IN YPRES FIGHT

English Defense Was Staggering Blow to Old Hindenburg.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Hindenburg is now staggering before the most stupendous German failure since the Marne battle.

General Foch's death enticements are proving more terrible than the Kaiser can pay. The German manpower slaughter commanded by the high command has abruptly ended, but a renewal of the terrible effort to break through the allies' lines is inevitable. However, the victorious German spirit is extinguished. Future progress will be at a more ghastly cost. The moral effect of the allies' successful Ypres stand was enormous though the Germans gained advantageous terrain. The offensive's collapse under the circumstances demonstrates frankly that the British exacted a heavier toll for the possession of Messines ridge and Mount Kemmel than Hindenburg could pay.

But the fact that Hindenburg has not taken a single vital position must press on or admit the decisive defeat to the German people.

With the German people beginning to realize the terrible force of the coming American offensive, each Ypres-like halt is a terrifying nightmare to Hohenzollernism.

When money talks through Liberty bonds it says: "Hold the line! I am coming!" And the word is carried over the seas.

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs.
The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.—Adv.

Road to Happiness.
Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—Adv.
