

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

The following items appearing in the Salem Capital Journal are of interest to many Pendleton friends:

"Miss Grace Bean was up from Portland for an over Sunday visit with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean. Miss Bean is employed in the draughting department of the Willamette steel yards."

"Mrs. C. P. Bishop is planning an extended eastern trip. She will accompany her son, Clarence Bishop of Pendleton, who will go on business. They will be gone a month or more, stopping at New York, Boston and other points of interest on the coast."

"Mr. and Mrs. Will D. Bennett entertained as guests yesterday a party of friends from Portland, who motored down for the day. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Bennett joined their guests for an afternoon's outing on the golf links where a number of picnic parties were in progress."

"Louis R. Steelhammer, a brother of Oscar Steelhammer, was in the city yesterday for a short visit with friends and relatives before leaving for the ordnance training camp in Georgia. For many years he was with the Salem Woolen Mills Store in Salem and for the past five years with Bend Bros. of Pendleton. Although beyond the draft age, he felt it was up to him to get in and do his share. Lieutenant T. W. Steelhammer of Silverton is already in France."

The Hawthorne Parent Teachers Circle will hold its final meeting for the year tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Hawthorne school. Dr. E. N. Reber will be the speaker and election of officers for next year will be held. All members are expected to be present.

There will be no more cutting classes in the surgical dressings department of the Red Cross this week. The folding will continue as usual and both in that department and in the sewing room workers will be welcome.

Mrs. E. L. Smith is enjoying a visit in Portland, where she is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Vaughan. Mrs. Smith returned home with Mrs. Vaughan after her visit here.

James H. Gwinn has returned from a business trip to Montana.

W. R. Taylor of Athena is spending the day in the city.

Mrs. H. M. Cummins and Eva E. Swanson of Ione are registered at the Pendleton.

J. T. Hinkle, Horniston attorney, is here today en route home from La Grande.

County Commissioner H. M. Cockburn is here attending the meeting of the county court and was one of the enthusiastic bidders at the Red Cross auction yesterday.

HOW TO ADDRESS MAIL TO CAPTIVES

The Atlantic division of the American Red Cross announces that it has been granted by the German War Trade Board an exclusive blanket authorization for the sending of food, letters and money through the American Red Cross to American and allied soldiers in German prison camps.

Two 10-pound parcels a week may be sent from Berne to American prisoners. The parcels may contain two heavy loaves of bread a week, tobacco and soap. Special parcels for invalids may be sent when necessary. Because of the overcrowded condition of the mails, however, the Red Cross advises that parcels be not sent to allied prisoners, but that money be mailed to the Bureau of Allied Prisoners' Relief, which will arrange for the purchase of food and tobacco.

Letters should be addressed with the prisoner's name, number, rank, regiment and company, to the prison camp in which he is held "via New York" in the upper right-hand corner of the envelope should be written "American (or allied) prisoner of war, post free." The letters should not be longer than two pages, written on one side of the paper. In New York they will be turned over to the National Censorship Board.

Money must be sent through the Bureau of American Prisoners' Relief, American Red Cross, Washington, as the government wishes to keep a record of funds sent. Checks, drafts and postal orders must be made out to the American Red Cross.

SECOND LOOTERS CAN BE SO STRICT

PARIS, May 2.—"Say, where do you fellows think you are in Germany?"

The second lieutenant frowned fiercely.

"Yes, sir—I mean no, sir," responded the elder of the two underaged Yankees who were holding a heated conversation within range of the second lieutenant.

"Well, I want you fellows to quit saying 'Yah' when you mean 'Yes.' The French don't like to hear it and it isn't correct, anyway. If you fellows don't stop saying 'Yah,' I'm going to start a system of fines around here."

"Yes, sir," replied the doughboys in acknowledgement of the rebuke.

"Say, don't think I'm hipocratic," confided Trooper One to Trooper Two as the second lieutenant moved away, "but don't it beat all hell what strict disciplinarians them second looters are?"

"Yah—I mean, yes," replied Trooper Two, hastily correcting himself.

CRIPPLED OLD NEWSIE GIVES U. S. HIS SAVINGS

DENVER, May 2.—Nathan Lehman, 2835 West Tenth avenue, is 55 years old and broken in health. He makes a living by selling the Denver Post on the street. But he's patriotic, just the same, and he has purchased a Liberty Bond to help lick the Kaiser.

Five years ago Mr. Lehman's son, Arthur Lehman, was killed in an elevator accident in a local department store. The shock almost killed the father and since then he has been unable to work, except to sell papers.

"It's pretty hard work, standing outdoors in all kinds of weather to sell papers, but I'm willing to lend the government every penny I can get hold of to whip Germany," said Lehman this morning.

There's a lot of food for thought in Lehman's patriotism.

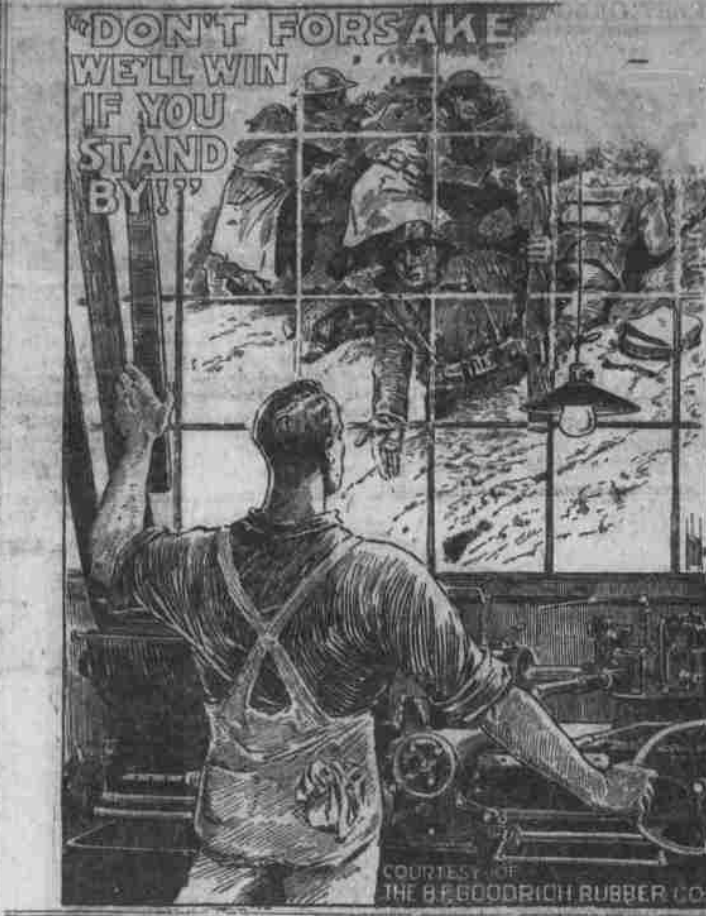

Trying to obstruct the nation's war activities is a good deal like attempting to hit a full grown locomotive off the track.

Very little matters in this war except winning it.

OLD-FASHIONED REMEDIES

Grandmother's remedies compounded from the medicinal roots and herbs of the field are now found upon the shelves of the modern drug stores in attractive packages and are among the best sellers in prepared medicines.

Prominent among them is that famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia T. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for generations has been relieving the women of America from the worst forms of female ills and is now considered the standard remedy in its line.

Pete Closed Up Anyway.
Pete Jost carried the title of "Patriotic Pete" yesterday when he closed his Main street cigar store for the Red Cross auction. None of the stores had been asked to close for the event but Pete figured he ought not to run opposition to the Red Cross women's refreshment booth. He hung out a sign reading, "Henry and Pete have gone to the Red Cross auction. Come on and help lick the Kaiser, and shut his doors at noon and remained closed the rest of the day. Moreover, he was one of the most consistent bidders all afternoon.

ROGUE RIVER INDIAN MUSIC FEATURE OF COMMENCEMENT
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 2.—Indian music obtained from the Rogue River tribe of Oregon arranged for orchestra, will be a feature of the commencement music this year.

The selection "Deer Dance," a memorial dance of the Oregon Rogue River Indians, is especially interesting according to Miss Winifred Forbes, instructor in the school of music, because there is almost no Indian music that has been arranged for orchestra and this work is taken from our own state. The composition is very new. The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra placed it upon their program last winter. The chief of the Rogue River tribe gave the dance music to a professor of music in the University of Kansas and it was subsequently arranged for orchestra production.

Sure He's a Soldier.
WASHINGTON, May 2.—A much begrimed bit of a boy pondered on a Washington street corner. Down the avenue, erect, with the trenchies stamped all over him, came an officer.

The young one stiffened into a rigid salute. The officer smiled, returned the salute and stopped to ask the "where?"

"U. S. School Garden Army, Sir. The pipe hasn't come yet but I'm out just the same."

Is a Pint Too Much?
LONDON, May 2.—How much whiskey is each man's share in war-time? The Action magazine raises this interesting question when it told a man who admitted drinking a pint that he had more than his share's ration.

An effort is being made to get the film "Jack and the Beanstalk," which will be shown in the high school auditorium, according to Mr. Drill.

Fined for Drunkenness.
A couple of men celebrated too strenuously yesterday and as a result one paid a $10 fine and the other will spend five days in the county jail. The men were George Flesch and Jack Gray, and both were brought before City Recorder Fitz Gerald on a charge of being drunk on the street. Flesch was given a sentence of $10 or five days in jail, and took the jail sentence, while Gray forfeited his bail and was forced to part with $10.

Recruiting Party Leaves.
The naval reserve recruiting party, which has had headquarters in the Federal building during the past three days, left today for The Dalles where the men will be stationed the remainder of this week. During their stay here they took 13 recruits and examined many more, so they feel that Pendleton has made a pretty good showing. Those in the party are: Lieutenant M. C. Kent, U. S. navy; Asst. Surgeon F. T. Maxson, U. S. N. R. F.; Chief Yeoman H. G. Frost, U. S. N. R. F.; and pharmacist's mate second class, G. E. McDonnell, U. S. navy.

SPRING TREATMENT

Necessary to Purify Blood and Correct Weak, Run-Down Conditions.
Trying weather, exposure to storms, the grip, hard colds, pneumonia, fever, diphtheria and other blood-poisoning, prostrating diseases leave the system subnormal—below par—weak and slow—blood depleted and, with that tired feeling, poor appetite, backache, rheumatic pains, feeble digestive power or almost none at all. The ideal treatment is Hood's Sarsaparilla—to be taken before meals—thoroughly to purify the blood and expel poisons, and to be taken after meals to put power into the blood, give strength, increase red corpuscles and restore tone, and do it quickly.

If there is biliousness, constipation, bad taste in the mouth or "the blues," the liver is torpid. Take Hood's Pills—they cleanse the liver and relieve all liver ills, are perfectly compatible with Hood's Sarsaparilla and
