There will be a business meeting of the Pendleton Honor Guard at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the council room at the city hall.

Will Visit in Portland.
Mrs. M. J. McCormack left this morning for Portland for a few days' visit. She will probably return on Tuesday.

To Be Buried at Copperfield.
The body of George W. Denny, who died at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital on May 7, was shipped to Copperfield early this morning for interment. Folsom's undertaking parlors were in charge.

Goes To Shoshone.
F. G. Lucas, who is in the real estate business at Weston, was in Pendleton yesterday to take the evening train for Shoshone, Idaho.

Visiting Over Sunday.
Mrs. Nellie Christholm and Mrs. Nellie Morton have gone to Walla Walla to enjoy an over-Sunday visit with friends.

Some Men Stay Overnight.
H. J. Biddle, a farmer of the Ione district, and C. B. Sperry, a wheat buyer of that section of the Northern Grain and Warehouse company, said overnight in Pendleton last night in order to have a visit with their old friend, Chief Al Roberts. They went on this morning to the Walla Walla country.

Motoring in From Hermiston.
Mrs. Mabel Brown and Miss Gladys West of Hermiston, motored in this morning for a day's stay in the city.

Soldier Is Visiting.
Sergeant J. A. Arslino of the 14th machine gun company, United States Infantry, is here for a visit with friends at Pilot Rock. Sergeant Arslino is stationed at Fort George Wright, Wash.

Froewater Boy Enlists.
Kenneth Leo Lane, of Froewater, enlisted today as an apprentice seaman in the United States navy, and leaves tomorrow night for Portland. His brother enlisted in the same branch of service on April 18 and is now at Mare Island.

Arrives from California.
L. F. Greenlee arrived here last evening from California and will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sampfort for a few days. He and Mrs. Greenlee, who have been here for some little time, will return to their home at Yakima, Wash., soon.

Pass Through to Baker.
Mrs. H. Alexander and her sister, Mrs. Patterson, passed through Pendleton this morning on their way to Baker to settle up the affairs of their mother, who died in Portland a short time ago. They have been in Portland for the past six weeks, during their mother's illness.

Giving Dance for War Fund.
There will be a dance at Butter creek tonight for the benefit of the war fund, which a number of Pendleton people are planning to attend. It is the first of a series of dances given by the Butter Creek social club for the benefit of the Red Cross Y. M. C. A. and K. of C.

Is Battalion Sergeant Major.
Through an error it was stated that Private William A. Spangler had returned to Fort Wright, Wash., after a visit here at the home of his brother, L. E. Spangler. The young man is not a private but a battalion sergeant major, and should have all the honor to which he is entitled.

Verse Writer Here.
H. E. Allen, who has written considerable verse that has been used in Portland papers, was here yesterday from Stanfield where he has been working recently. Mr. Allen's home is at Hillsboro and he is to return there soon. He was the author of one two verse poem used in the Liberty Loan campaign and also suggested one of the slogans used by the Oregon committee.

To Men Who Know Good Clothes

War has forced up the price of wool. Present market and manufacturing conditions are increasing the cost of GOOD CLOTHES. Honest fabrics are scarcer than ever this season. We were particularly fortunate in making very good contracts with responsible clothes makers and have at the present moment more stock than at any other time in our history. BOND CLOTHES tell the story better than we can in type. You will wonder how we have been able to continue such quality—and remember quality is economy these days. Buy two suits NOW. $20.00 to $40.00.
