EAST OREGONIAN SPECIAL NEWS OF UMATILLA CO.

HONOR GUARD DANCE ENJOYABLE SUCCESS

Echo Correspondent Gives News of That and Other Events.

(East Oregonian Special.) ECHO, May 14.—The dance given here on Friday night by the Echo Girls' Honor Guard was the most enjoyable affair given in Echo, since so many of "our boys" went to the front. The spacious hall was tastefully decorated with "the colors" and banks of green branches from the woods. A large crowd was present, a number coming from Pendleton, Nalla, Stanfield, Hermiston, Umatilla and Butler Creek. The music was furnished by Sawyer's orchestra. The girls had the entire management of the affair and made it a success in every way. The net proceeds were $47.

The play "Between Acts" which was presented here in the city hall by the Echo high school seniors was again staged last Saturday night at the new school house at Pine City. An appreciative audience was in attendance. The proceeds went to the Echo high school treasury.

Mrs. Claude Sloan returned Monday morning from a ten days' visit in Seattle and Portland. While in Seattle she attended the convention of the northwest division of the American Red Cross, being a delegate from the Echo auxiliary. She reported a very interesting and profitable time. There were delegates present from Alaska, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

Mrs. S. E. Mikessell spent yesterday in Pendleton visiting with her son, Basil Mikessell.

Claude Sloan returned home Sunday from a business trip to Idaho. Mrs. Sadie Elder and little daughter Jewell, expect to leave tomorrow for Sacramento, Cal., on a visit to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Polly.
