Daily Chats With the Housewife

Barley—An Excellent Wheat Substitute
Barley is a palatable, wholesome grain, which has long been used in infant feeding and, to some extent, for general cookery, and which can now be used in quantity to save wheat.

Barley flour is one of the best of the wheat substitutes. Delicious breads and cakes can be made by using it to replace all or part of the wheat flour. Give barley flour a trial—you will wonder why it was not used more before the war.

Barley Hot Breads

Barley flour is very satisfactory for hot breads.

Barley Hot Biscuits.
2 cups barley flour.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons fat.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
2-3 cup milk.

Barley Drop Biscuits.
2 cups barley flour.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
4 tablespoons fat.
1 1-2 teaspoons salt
1 cup milk.

Baked in a sheet this makes a good shortcake buttered and served with fresh crushed berries or other fruit.

Barley Waffles.
2 cups barley flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1 1-2 cups milk.
2 eggs.
3 tablespoons melted fat.

Sift the dry ingredients together and add slowly the milk, beaten egg yolk, and melted fat. Fold in stiffly beaten whites. Beat thoroughly and cook in hot, well-greased waffle irons.

Barley Muffins.
2 1-4 cups barley flour.
1 cup milk.
2 tablespoons corn syrup.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
1-2 cup wheat flour.
1 tablespoon fat.
2 eggs.
1-4 teaspoon salt.

Barley Spoon Bread.

1 cup barley flour.
1 cup hot boiled hominy grits.
3 tablespoons fat.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 cups milk.
2 eggs.
2 teaspoons baking powder.

Barley Yeast Bread.
If you use your own bread recipe and replace one-fourth of the wheat flour with barley flour, you will be able to make a very good bread. With the present need of saving flour, it will be feasible for the housewife to make less yeast bread than usual, as one can not use so large a percentage of wheat substitute in making yeast breads as in quick breads.

DOZEN GIRLS ESCAPE INJURY

Shell Falls on Paris Workshop Where They Are Eating Lunch.

PARIS, May 15.—A shell fell today in the manufacturing quarter, dropping in a workshop where a dozen young women were lunching. None of them was injured, however.

Another shell broke through the roof of a dwelling and burst in a room where a woman was sleeping. She was severely wounded and taken to a hospital, where President Poincare visited her.

French newspapers are reproducing at length extraordinary accounts which have appeared in Germany of the situation said to have been produced in Paris by the long range bombardment. The Cologne Gazette, the Tagblatt of Berlin, the semi-official news agency and the German government's news sheets and wireless dispatches picture living in Paris as almost unbearable. The city is said to be almost without food and it is stated that business has been suspended.

The people of Paris are greatly amused at these accounts, because the city's life is going on as usual. The German tales are regarded as propaganda designed to keep up the spirits of the people during the battle now in progress by making them believe their adversaries are worse off than they.

HEARS MISSING SONS ARE IN THE TRENCHES

BANGOR, Me., May 15.—Letters received from Ivory H. and Joseph D. Hearn, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hearn of Bangor, show that the object of their leaving home nearly four years ago was to enter the war. Nothing had been heard of them until several days ago, when the patients were notified that both were with the Canadian forces in France. Ivory is only 17 years of age and his brother 18.

The two boys disappeared from Bangor in 1914. Their parents started a search all over the country, but this did not develop any information as to their whereabouts.

"I'm proud my boys are fighting against the Germans," said the father today, "and hope that both will live to return home."

ITALY SENDS GIFT TO THE PRESIDENT

ROME, May 15.—Turillo Stadol, the sculptor, has just completed and forwarded to President William a bronze figure entitled "Italian Valor." The warrior symbolizes the part Italy has taken in the war. The bronze was made at the request of Italian senators and deputies.
