EAST OREGONIAN SPECIAL NEWS OF UMATILLA CO.

J. H. Moore Badly Hurt While Leading Horse

(East Oregonian Special.) UKIAH, May 15.—Farmers are wearing smiles today as it is raining some, and prospects are good for more. The situation had begun to look gloomy to the farmers here, for lots of straw was laying in the ground but had never sprouted. With the shower today it will all be up in a few days.

J. H. Moore met with a painful accident Sunday. While leading a young horse behind a buggy it began pulling back, catching Mr. Moore's hand between the rope and the buggy top, lacerating the right hand badly. Dr. DeVaul was sent for and arrived in a short time with Mrs. Russell. A trained nurse, and they found it necessary to amputate the little finger at the second joint and the first or fore finger was so badly cut stitches had to be taken, while the other fingers and the back of the hand were badly torn and will compel him to carry his hand in a sling for some time to come, which makes it very hard on him as he is in the dairy business.

Mrs. Clifford Constants and Miss Agnes Scroggins of Alba were in Ukiah Monday trading.

Henry Moele and John Lothian of Pendleton, came up Monday, remained at the Moele ranch over night, returning Tuesday. Mr. Moele reports Mrs. Moele's health much improved since moving to Pendleton and they are planning to return to the farm during the warm weather.

Mrs. Edgar Dick and Mrs. Clarence Dick of Alba were Ukiah visitors Saturday.

Mr. Culter, proprietor of the Hildaway Springs, and his niece, Miss Mamie Jones, were in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Henry Laska and son Henry, Jr. of Pendleton, came up Friday and will spend Saturday and Sunday at the Laska ranch with Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Ganger.

Mrs. George Caldwell returned from Long Creek Saturday.

Tom Wilhby and William Mills of Hildaway, were in town Saturday on business.

Ben Colvin of Ritter, passed through town Friday en route to Pendleton.

Charley Metteer and mother were in town Friday.

School closed Friday and H. C. Lund, principal of the school, left for his home at La Grande Saturday morning and Miss Ila Sturdivant, primary teacher, left for the farm Friday evening.

Levi Eldridge, who runs the stage line between Pilot Rock and Long Creek, was in Ukiah Friday on business.

Frank Chapman and family and the Misses Mack and Agnes Mottie of Butte creek came up Saturday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mettie, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman returning to their home in the evening. Agnes to her school near Willow Springs, and Marie remaining here.

Ed Thrasher passed through town Sunday on his return home from Pilot Rock with his car, which he left there last fall. He was accompanied home by his niece, Dorris Gramer of Nye, who will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipp moved to Bridge creek Monday, where Mr. Shipp, who will ride the range for Hilbert, Moele and Clark will be near his work this summer.

Jim Clark and wife of Walla Walla passed through town Monday en route to Canyon City.

Mrs. Myers of Missouri, passed through town Monday to visit her father, Mr. Wilson, formerly of Pendleton, who owns a stock ranch on the John Day river below Dale.

Mrs. Bob Lusner is ill at her home in Ukiah.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bolin returned from Pendleton Monday.

(East Oregonian Special.) HELIX, May 15.—The mill opening was enjoyed Tuesday from start to finish. Many were shown through the building during the afternoon and evening. The flag was hoisted at 5 while Sawyer's Orchestra played the Star Spangled Banner. Sixty-two tickets were sold for the dance and refreshments of hot biscuits made from Silver Shield flour, butter and coffee were served. The first sack of flour was auctioned, Mayor M. L. Morrison bidding it in for $200. Receipts of the evening excepting the necessary expenses were turned over to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Robert Wright, Umapine, Died Tuesday

UMAPINE, May 15.—Mrs. O. W. Carpenter leaves for a three weeks' vacation with her husband in Montana. Mr. Carpenter was here for a short time this week and left again for his wheat ranch in Montana. Mrs. Carpenter is in hope that the climate in that section will benefit her health. The Red Cross work, during her absence, will be in charge of Mrs. Lou Hodgson.

The death of Mrs. Robert Wright of Umapine, at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. Mansfield in Athena, Tuesday night at ten o'clock, caused much sorrow among her friends here. Mrs. Wright several years ago lived at Umapine, then moved to Walla Walla with her husband, returning to this vicinity last year to their ranch here. About two months ago she took sick and her death followed. Besides her husband she leaves a son, Stanley Wright of Umapine, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Lonest of Walla Walla. The funeral services will be held this afternoon from McMartin's undertaking parlors in Walla Walla.
