THE RED CROSS SPIRIT SPEAKS

I kneel behind the soldier's trench
 I hear the stretcher and I bend
 O'er Sammie, Pierre and Jack and mend
 What shells have torn.

I go wherever they may die,
 I go wherever woman's care
 And love can live,
 Wherever strength and skill can bring Success to human suffering or sorrow give.

I am your pennies and your number,
 I am your bodies on their rounds
 Of pain afar,
 I am you, doing what you would
 If you were only where you could—
 Your aviator.

The cross which on my arm I wear,
 The flag which o'er my breast
 I bear,
 Is but the sign
 Of what you'd sacrifice for him
 Who suffers on the hellish rim
 Of war's red line.

JOHN HUSS STILL LIVES

STREET fighting in Prague where people paraded shouting "Long Live Wilson," typifies the unrest in Austria-Hungary. Prague is the third largest city in the dual empire. The fact the city has been declared in a state of siege because of anti-German demonstrations shows the people are by no means all loyal to the kaiser. As a matter of fact Bohemia of which Prague is the ancient capital is pro-ally. Historically the Bohemians are liberals. It is the land where John Huss raised the flag of religious freedom and died for his conscience. His spirit still moves the populace of today. The Bohemians will be heard from if an uprising occurs in the central empires. They are showing courage in openly defying their rulers. They may light the torch that will set the whole Austrian empire aflame with revolution. The success of any such movement, however must be contingent on an allied victory in the field. The people of the central empires will not seriously revolt while their armies can go forward and claim victories. Let them be thrown back in defeat with indications of further defeat and the story will be different.

STUMPED

It is suggesting that the senatorial contest be conducted this fall without any campaigning on the part of either Senator McNary or himself ex-Governor West has acted in characteristic fashion. It is a generous proposal and a very logical one. Money and energy are needed for war purposes this year. Why not get away from the old stereotyped political methods and give the people a rest for once. It would be a wholesome change. The plan might even be applied with profit to other contests aside from the senatorship. For instance why not have a campaignless campaign for governor?

There are signs, however, that the G. O. P. "leaders" will not acquiesce in the West proposal. They wish to vent their spleen against the ex-governor. They will probably insist on a big campaign fund, upon the customary paid political workers, denunciation and abuse—and the election of Mr. West.

THE WOMEN HELPING

WOMEN in many states are helping in the work of the local draft boards. School teachers, who were already assisting, had not the leisure for all the work needed and, in response to an appeal from Provost Marshal General Crowder, the state councils turned to the divisions of the woman's committee, council of national defense, to obtain clerical help.

The woman's committee reports that in Arkansas, one of the 27 states in which it has taken an official registration of women for war service, the chairman of Pulaski county was able to print in the local newspapers a list of more than 150 women volunteers, and next day telephone lines were kept busy by women answering the first call they had received from the government.

In Ohio Gov. Cox requested that the county units of the woman's committee furnish the necessary volunteers. Only 5 out of the 88 units proved unequal to the call. Within 10 days the work was completed. In Illinois the registration cards were used and women were asked to work in taking indus-

PITTSBURG, May 20.—Two hundred employees of the Aetna Chemical company are missing. This includes workers of the night shift living near the plant. Their cabins were destroyed.

WILSON IS DETERMINED TO SAVE RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The President is consecrated to a definite campaign to thwart Germany's intention to subjugate Russia, eventually using Russia against the allies. Increasing confidence is felt that Russian can and must be saved from Germany. There is scant belief that Russia can withstand Germany militarily.

"Republicans will rule the legislature," says an Oregonian headline this morning. Once more the Dutch have taken Holland and the Oregonian rushes to print with the news. Congratulations upon the scoop.

We have had a splendid spell of rainy weather with the single drawback that we did not get any rain.

The sign of the Red Cross has been headed promptly in old Umatilla county as usual.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian for May 21, 1900.)

Messrs. Frank and Ed Saling and Hiram Henry have returned from their stock ranch.

A special feature of the coming Fourth of July celebration in Pendleton will be the maneuvers of a party of Indians from the reservation. Agent Moorhouse has kindly consented to arrange for the exhibition.

F. B. Sherman has perhaps the champion sheep shearing record in Umatilla county. He deprived just 2251 sheep of their fleeces in 21 days.

A laughable free entertainment was given on Court and Main streets Sunday by members of the Bicycle club who had just received their wheels and brought them out with a grim determination to ride or die. No serious casualties are reported although Will Kilder mourns the loss of considerable cash and Fred Waffle bathes his arms in arnica and tears.

PERSONAL

Guests over Sunday at Bingham Springs included the usual number of Pendleton outing parties. The list included:

Mr. and Mrs. Oils Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hampton, Helen Ishman, Hyacinth Done, Neemah Ankeny and party, Miss Louise Bailey, Miss Camille Deleson, Lowell Stockman, Richard Mel, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Baum and party, Harold G. Goodrich, Fred Stroble, D. Livermore, L. Livermore, Babe Polcom, Sterling Patterson, Hugh Smith, Paul Schultz, Paige Finch, Henry Rosenberg and family, James Willis, Burrell Stillwell, Ray McCarrell and family, S. Roots and family, Dr. and Mrs. Garfield, Aply Turner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Koenen, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Book, Pete Shaver, Brady Howlyshell and family, Mr. Bloom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman and family (Spokane), I. W. Freeman, Miss Grace Hutton.

About 75 guests enjoyed a card party and musicale at the Umatilla county library club rooms last night, for which the Ladies Auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans were hostesses. Miss Elizabeth McBroome and Mrs. Charles Greulich carried off the prizes for high scores at bridge and five hundred, which were the games of the evening. Little Miss Lois E. DeLoach sang, accompanied by her sister, Choir. Miss Estlin South and Mrs. S. H. Poshaw also entertained with an aptly selected selection. Refreshments were served late in the evening and like the Biblical story, there was lots left to gather up afterwards. So five cakes were auctioned off and brought nearly $25. Altogether the proceeds from the evening besides a lot of enjoyment, amounted to nearly $100, which will materially swell the auxiliary's fund for the adoption of French war orphans.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Green and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rudd extended charming hospitality last evening at the Green home on Madison street when they were hosts for a meeting of the Monday night Bridge club. Brilliant California poppies artistically decked the rooms, where the card tables were in play and high score honors fell to Mrs. Floyd Croup and Mrs. E. E. Aldrich, while consolation trophies went to Mrs. R. I. Keator and Mr. C. O. Rinehart. Guests other than club members included Mrs. Sylvan Cohn and Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich.

A pretty tribute to a friend upon the eighty-first anniversary of her birth, was planned by Mrs. C. B. Lecklider. It enjoyed yesterday afternoon by a party of guests who walked in upon Mrs. M. E. Ellis at her home on East Bluff street, effecting a complete surprise. The afternoon was spent informally and concluded with delicious refreshments. Dainty gifts and good wishes were left for the honor guest, who has seen many winters in Pendleton. The list of participants in the enjoyable affair included Mrs. E. E. Gornall, Mrs. B. E. Coon, Mrs. Amy E. Lee, Mrs. Elmira Case, Mrs. E. A. Mumford, Mrs. M. L. Hinderman, Mrs. G. E. Hunter, Mrs. L. E. King, Miss Josephine Hinderman, Miss Dorothy Whitaker, Mrs. Bernice Gornall, Mrs. C. B. Lecklider, Miss Verma Lecklider and Miss Louise Lecklider.

The Research club will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder, when Mrs. J. E. Snyder and Mrs. R. B. Snyder will be joint hostesses.

Mrs. F. E. Kiss was last evening hostess to a group of girls, members of her Sunday school class, who were asked to a prettily appointed 6 o'clock dinner planned in compliment to Miss Dorothy Henderson, who expects to leave Saturday for Calgary. Though expressing regret over her anticipated departure, the girls nevertheless had a happy evening and the pretty affair was much enjoyed. Mrs. Kiss's guests included, besides the honor guest, the Misses Grace Benson, Ruth Compton, Beula Handolph, Lucile Pearson, Ruby Crow, Fay Adams, Esther Winn and Lorene King.

Chances on the Red Cross doll, the protégé of the Honor Guard girls, are not to be sold at the dancing party at Hinkle's Home tonight. The affair is in the nature of a patriotic benefit, but the guests are just to be permitted to make an offering if they care to, but the little nurse is not to make her formal appearance until some more future occasion.

Mrs. T. M. Henderson, accompanied by her daughters, expects to leave Saturday to join Dr. Henderson who has been devoting the past few months to farming interests in Calgary.

Bishop and Mrs. E. T. Howe of the Episcopal diocese of Alaska, departed on Nov. 17 today for Seattle after a several days' visit in Pendleton, during which they were the inspiration for many charming compliments. Saturday evening the Parish Aid presided over a simple but charmingly appointed reception in their honor at the rectory. The rooms were lovingly and artistically decorated with flowers and musical numbers by Mrs. Will H. Bennett and Miss Dorothy Lockwood were a charming feature. The affair was preceded by a delightful dinner party, presided over at the Hotel Pendleton, by Mrs. William Matlock, an old time friend of the bishop. The table was smartly decked with a cluster of brilliant red peonies and was surrounded by Bishop and Mrs. Howe, the hostess, and Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Lockwood.

Another graciously planned feature of their visit was a motor party for which Mrs. Robert Stanfield was hostess, and the visitors especially of seeing the far-famed wheat fields of Umatilla county.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will be entertained at the home of David R. Nelson, 111 E. Washington street, on Wednesday, May 22, with Mesdames Douglas Belts and MacMaster as assistants. All of the ladies of the society and church are especially urged to be present.

The Auditorium of the County Library will tomorrow evening be the scene of one of a series of silver medal contests the W. C. T. U. has been successfully conducting. The following program will begin at 8:15 o'clock: Piano duet, A. Frolic (Reef) Thelma Keene, Irene Boyd, Piano Solo, Around the Lake (Wynne) Why Not said No. (Jenkins) Evelyn Greulich, Race for Life (Raphael) Ralph Paine, 'Tis Only a Bit of Ribbon (Jenkins) Velda Coffman, Those Little Shoes (Spokane), Gertrude Jones Piano Solo, Humoresque (Dvorak) Ben Griggs.

The Song of the Camp (Compton) Why Not said No. (Jenkins) Lorene King, How a Little Girl Emptied the Jug (Jenkins) Eula McCaskey Piano solo, Overwork, Over Hill (Jenkins) Lenora Greulich, Piano solo, Air de Ballet (Chaminade) Evelyn Greulich, Reading, The Raggedy Man (Lester) King Offering of Judges, Presentation of the medal.

The knitting club will meet tomorrow afternoon in the club room of the library at 2 o'clock and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Laurela McCarthy returned today to her home at Rathdrum, Idaho, following an over-Sunday visit here with her aunt, Mrs. John Land. Miss McCarthy is assistant to the Northern Pacific agent at Rathdrum.

E. H. Eggers left over the Northern Pacific today for his home in Minnesota. He expects to be absent from Pendleton for two months.

Margola Lodge, Degree of Honor, will have a meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There will be initiatory practice. All members are urged to be present.

James Whitaker Buys Caterpillar. James Whitaker went out this morning to his farm near Willow Springs with a new Hove caterpillar purchased from the E. L. Smith company. Trailing behind the tractor was a Hewitt harrower. The crop prospects in the Willow Springs section is good, but like many other localities, Mr. Whitaker says rain is needed.

In the recital to be given this evening by pupils of Olga O. Norgren at the Library Club room at 8:15, the following students will appear in a carefully selected program: Clarence Ingram, Grace Mason, Carolyn Thompson, Lois Edlicott, Charlene Endicott, Jack Ruzz, Esther Winn, Evelyn Snyder, Hazel Koch, Fay Mann, Luella Pearson, Beryl Harrah, Helen Koch, Layton Mann, Flossie Pearson, Wilbert Horn, Vera Hamilton, Stella Keys, Marie Temple, Frances Hord.

SPRING AILMENTS

Relieved by a Good Medicine—Forty Years of Success.

People still take Hood's Sarsaparilla because it is an old family friend, has proved its merit to three generations—in purifying and enriching the blood, expelling humors, restoring appetite, relieving rheumatism, and banishing that tired feeling so common at this time of year.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard Spring medicine, blood purifier and general tonic. It originated in a well-known Boston physician's successful prescription, and combines medicinal roots, bark, herbs and berries such as are often prescribed for ailments of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. Buy it in the same style package as that in which your mother bought it—same good formula, same fine appearance, same pleasant taste, same certainty of good results.

Your druggist knows how much satisfaction this good medicine has given.
