The boys "over here"

If our boys "over there" are going to win, the boys "over here" in the business army must make it possible.

They must produce more and save more.

When you buy clothes, the way to save the most in money, materials and labor is to buy good ones; the kind that last longer.

Our mission is to see that you get such clothes. That's why we have Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes here. They save for you; they're guaranteed to satisfy you in wear, style and fit.

$20 to $50.

BEAUTIFUL SEPARATE SKIRTS

The separate skirt is an important garment in your summer wardrobe—there are so many occasions when a separate skirt will fill the need that no other garment will supply.

A beautiful silk skirt is just the garment you need for a hot summer day when besides being comfortable you also want to feel well dressed. Taffeta in black, tan and fancy plaids, silk poplin in black, grey or tan. Fancy bordered shantung, snowy white crepe de chine, lustrous baronette satin in white, pink or tan.

These materials and others form a collection that will fill your particular needs at prices from $6.75 to $25.00.

NEWS OF PENDLETON

W. J. Furnish Here. W. J. Furnish came up from Portland yesterday and will be here for a few days looking after business matters and visiting with old friends.

Lewis Hanel Passes Through. Lewis F. Hanel passed through Pendleton this morning on his way to Vancouver, Wash., from Morrison, Va., where he has been in training. Hanel, who is a former Pendleton boy, having lived here for 11 years, is now a member of the 41st Aero squadron, and has been in the service about six months. His home is at Hood River.

Lieut. Walters Heard From. In the Fred Lockley story in the Portland Journal this morning mention is made of Lieut. Eugene P. Walters of this city. He is among those registered on a college register at the Y. M. C. A. but where Lockley is stationed. Lieut. Walters is an O. A. C. man and when he left Pendleton was first sergeant of Troop D. He is now in the artillery.

Petty Thievery Going On. A warning is issued by the city police that people keep their garages locked and that they do not leave articles lying around in their cars during the week when the circus and carnival will be here. A telegram from O.-W. R. & N. officials states that the Oregon Short Line reports some one connected with the Barnes circus is dismantling motor cars along the line, taking brass parts, and other parts of value, also any clothing there might be in motor houses. Two cases were reported on the Short Line Friday. It is also suggested that houses be kept locked when families are away.

Harold Warner to Speak. Lieutenant H. J. Warner of the Signal Corps and graduate of the University of Oregon law school has been selected to deliver the commencement address for the Aberdeen high school June 6, when 25 students will receive diplomas. The class is one of the smallest of recent years due to the entrance of a number of the boys into the army and navy and others accepting positions in shipyards. Lieutenant Warner is a former Pendleton young man, having practiced law here prior to his enlistment. He and Mrs. Warner, who was Miss Edna Zimmerman, are living at Hoodham, where he is working with the spruce division.

Picnic Was Grand Success. Firm members and employees of the People's Warehouse and their families are still happy today from the effects of the fourth annual store picnic which was an event of yesterday. About 40 happy people were in-cluded in Thors Hollow in a special car attached to train No. 5 yesterday morning and were brought in last night by an engine sent from town for them. The weather was perfect and combined with the other features of the day to make this one of the "biggest yet." There was lots to eat, although it is claimed it was "homemade" and had no vegetables. There were wrestling matches and music and singing.
