

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

The men's chorus of the Baptist church are planning to give a negro minstrel show in the basement of the church this evening. There will be four funny end men, good chorus selections and solo numbers, with a number of side splitting jokes put in at the right place. The men are planning to give a good entertainment and are urging all their friends to come and enjoy it with them.

Carl Engdahl, manager of the Farmers' Mutual Grain Agency at Helix was a business visitor in Pendleton yesterday and today.

The hall room of the Eastern Oregon State Hospital is this evening the destination of scores of Pendleton folk who are interested both in the progress of the energetic plans of Parish Guild members for the new community house, and in the inviting features which attend this evening's number of the series of benefit dances. The spacious auditorium has been converted into a bowerlike spot for the affair, an unusual attraction of which is the reservation of boxes for individual parties and guests who do not care to dance, and the selection of the suburban scene adds its lure with the coming of warm summer evenings. Mrs. Roy T. Bishop has and her assistants are Mrs. James L. Welch, Mrs. George Baer, Mrs. Wilbur in charge of the arrangements, son D. McNary and Mrs. Westbrook Dickson.

Mrs. J. C. Woodworth's Friday afternoon class in surgical dressings will meet tomorrow in the new library work rooms. As always, Mrs. Woodworth extends a cordial welcome to all, and the room will be open at 1:30 o'clock.

With the resumption of gauge folding for surgical dressings, the necessity for cutting classes increases and an urgent request is made to all who are interested to assist with the work when possible. The cutting class inder the direction of Mrs. J. T. Richardson will meet in the library work room tomorrow at 2 o'clock and a cordial welcome is extended to everyone to join in the work then.

Hawthorne, the pretty farm home of the De Spains, was yesterday the scene of an informal but thoroughly delightful gathering of Pendleton friends who motored out to spend the afternoon in tribute to Mrs. Nancy E. De Spain, whose birthday anniversary it was. Mrs. Norborne Berkeley was responsible for the pleasing bit of hospitality, which celebrated a number of occasions of interest among the guests, the affair complimenting the wedding anniversaries of both Mrs. James Welch and her mother, Mrs. Homer Hallock of Portland, who is her house guest, and the birthday of Mrs. J. P. Robinson as well as that of Mrs. Berkeley's mother.

Master Norman Frederick yesterday celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary in a beautiful way by extending hospitality to a group of his particular friends who enjoyed games on the lawn followed by a luncheon around a daintily appointed table decked with sweet peas. The little host received many expressions of good wishes and lovely gifts. The merry party included Marjorie Ebert, Arnold Ebert, Jr., John Penland, Vera Leas, Mary Elizabeth Hopf, Peggy Hexter, Charles Hexter, Jr., Morris German and Laurence Humberg.

Mrs. Jesse Salling and daughters, Edna and Thelma, returned last evening from Portland where Miss Thelma has spent the winter attending St. Helena Hall. Mrs. Salling and Miss Edna went down a fortnight ago to attend the commencement program in which the student contributed musical numbers of marked merit.

Miss Mable Green is a teacher in the Walla Walla schools in the city for a few days visiting with her brother W. W. Green, county school superintendent.

Writes from Camp Lewis.
Arthur C. Lewis, a former Pendleton boy, writes from Camp Lewis to Mr. Walker, secretary of the local W. O. W. camp, of which he is a member. He was with the draft from Utah, and says that he is getting settled in the new quarters and as he becomes accustomed to the military life he likes it better all the time. The only thing now is to get a chance at the kaiser.

Pendleton Fortunate.
At the meetings of the ministerial association in Pendleton Tuesday, June 11, Pendleton is more than usually fortunate in being given an opportunity to hear Dr. Sydney L. Gulick and Dr. Geo. W. Nasmith. Their tour through the United States has been especially sanctioned and approved by the government. Pendleton is the only town in eastern Oregon where they will stop and in arranging their itinerary to stop here it was necessary to cut their stops at Yakima and Olympia, Wash.

Threshing Inspectors.
Government inspectors will be sent to Umatilla county during harvest with the idea that much can be done in the way of conservation on wheat. These inspectors are to be under the authority of the grain threshing division of the food administration. It is the idea of the administration that through the advice of these inspectors farmers will be able to save an addition of one and a half bushels to every hundred threshed. As the first step the Patriotic Service League has been called upon by the food administration to make a complete census of the threshing machines in the county, also other harvesting machinery.

AT WAR WITH YOURSELF!

HELP NATURE TO DEFEAT THE DISEASE IN YOUR BODY.

Keep up the fight; do not give up. Nature is trying to serve you in conquering the wrongs that may exist. Red blood, vim, courage, vitality, all seem lacking. No wonder you are nervous and discouraged.

Why not call to your aid a strong, dependable ally? Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has for nearly fifty years proven its merits as a most powerful tonic and blood builder to the many thousands who have been returned to good health by its use.

Clear the coated tongue, get rid of unwholesome humors. Let this remarkable remedy rid your body of the impurities of the blood, let it tone and strengthen you. It often cures the lingering chronic cough.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is absolutely herbal, free from alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs. All druggists, liquid or tablet.

PORTLAND, OREGON.—I certainly can recommend Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I had liver trouble so bad that I was thin, yellow and had indigestion, too. Also had woman's troubles, and I was weak and nervous. I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and his "Favorite Prescription." I took six bottles of each and was a well woman.

"My husband had trouble with his lungs. He was very weak. I gave him 'Discovery' and it cured him. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce's Remedies."—Mrs. FULF PATTERSON, 630 Kirby Street.

PORTLAND, OREGON.—For biliousness and torpid liver and to regulate the bowels, there is nothing that can equal Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I have used them over twenty years and have always
