Severe Electrical Storm Ot Athena Yesterday

(East Oregonian Special.)

ATHENA, June 13.—If all kinds of weather can be crowded into one day such was the case here yesterday. The day was ushered in close and sultry. Then the sky became clouded, though the heat did not cease. Shortly after 2 o'clock a furious though short-lived storm raged, with some rain falling. About 4 o'clock an electrical storm broke in all its fury, with veritable sheets of rain falling. The fierce wind broke a street wire and the electric light plug was pulled from its place and an electric light globe was broken at Bert Cartano's home. Globes were broken also at Henry Miller's and Mrs. Ethel Scott's, the globe bursting directly above Mrs. Scott's head. A fire was feared but none resulted. The storm had passed by eight o'clock.

BIRDS KNOW WHISTLE SIGNAL FOR BLASTS

TORONTO, Canada, June 13.—A striking example of wild bird intelligence has been observed on the Panama canal in connection with the underwater blasting that is carried on there.

A barge has been especially equipped for drilling blast holes below the water and depositing charges in them. When a blast is ready the craft moves off to a safe distance and before setting off the dynamite the barge whistle is blown several times to warn all vessels in the vicinity.

Instantly numbers of wild birds may be seen coming from all directions, the reason being they have learned that many dead and stunned fish rise to the surface of the water following each explosion. To them this particular whistle is like a dinner gong. More remarkable still, they readily distinguish between this whistle and others. Canal workmen and natives also share in the harvest.

COURT MARTIALED SOLDIERS BIND AND GAG SENTRY

DENVER, June 13.—After binding and gagging an armed sentry who stood guard over them, William E. Pinfold and Leon B. Isey, recently convicted by court martial at Fort Logan, escaped from the post Friday in an automobile driven by an unidentified woman. The men were engaged in unloading a wagon of supplies when Isey, who was standing on top of the wagon, leaped on the guard, overpowered him and bound his hands and feet.

FRENCH PRAISE AMERICAN VALOR ON BATTLEFIELD

PARIS, June 11.—In announcing that the Germans are being held and that French counter-attacks are meeting with success, an official note mentions especially the activity of the Americans along the Marne and northwest of Chateau Thierry. It says:

An episode to the honor of American troops happened north of Floy-le-Rocage, northwest of Chateau Thierry. As the American first line was being harassed by German machine guns an American patrol boldly attacked the machine guns, killed the gunners and captured the guns. It is thus that the young American soldiers give daily fresh proofs of their spirit, initiative and courage, as well as their perfect adaptability to modern fighting conditions.

HOUSEHOLD

A food bulletin issued to the English people says: "You must 'make-do' with what you have. . . . The food question has now become so acute that as a nation we have to consider how to obtain the last ounce of nourishment from foods of every kind, and to prepare every dish with that object in view."

Here are some of their suggestions for soup making:

Soup Stock Made From the Peelings and Trimmings of Vegetables.
Wash well all vegetables before peeling, being careful to leave no dirt—you will need to use a brush to get rid of it all. Use the clean peel and trimmings of any vegetables, such as carrots, turnips, parsnips, onions, leeks, celery tops, carrot tops, parsley stalks and skins of cucumbers, pea pods, the peel of potatoes and apples, and the outside leaves of green vegetables, which contain valuable mineral salts excellent for health.

Put all into a saucepan with cold water. Bring to the boil and simmer 1½ to 2 hours. Strain this vegetable mixture through muslin and you will have a clear golden brown stock ready to make into a delicious health-giving, nourishing soup. Bear in mind that vegetable stock will not keep long.

Some people do not like the idea of this stock but provided the materials used are scrupulously clean, and have not begun to decay it seems at such a time foolish to throw away valuable matter.

Thick Soups.

Thick soups need thickening or binding. In some cases the actual foundation of soup may in itself supply, or partly supply, the thickening; these are known as Purées. In other cases use either: 1. Flour (barley flour, corn flour, rice flour or fine oatmeal) in the proportion of 1 ounce of flour to a quart of soup. The flour should be mixed smoothly with a little cold stock or milk before adding it to the soup. After adding the thickening the soup must be again brought to the boil and cooked for five minutes to cook the flour thoroughly, stirring all the time.

2. Sago or crushed tapioca. These should first be soaked then added to the soup about three quarters of an hour before serving. When the tapioca is clear it is sufficiently cooked. The soup should be of the consistency of a thick cream.

Fish Soup.

1 Cod's head.

1-2 pound potatoes.

1 onion.

3 pints water.
1-2 ounce rice.
Salt and pepper, parsley.
Wash the cod's head thoroughly, then cut or chop it in half. Wash, peel and slice the potatoes; peel and slice the onion. Put the fish, vegetables and the liquid into a pan, and cook slowly till tender. Rub the soup thoroughly through a sieve, return it to the saucepan and season to taste. Boil up again and serve hot with a little finely chopped parsley on top.
