Alta Orchestra Praised.
Frequent praise is heard of the generosity of Manager Guy Matlock of the Alta theater in permitting the Alta Orchestra, C. O. Branch, director, to play for the many patriotic meetings held in Pendleton, many times leaving the theater without music during the time. As an instance, Friday night the orchestra furnished music for the Elks Flag Day exercises, while the audience at the Alta was without music.

Return from Canada.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marty returned yesterday from near Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, where they have spent the spring putting in their wheat crop. Mr. Marty has been gone for more than three months and Mrs. Marty for two. They state that the country is as dry, they are afraid the crop won't even be worth harvesting, as much of the seed has not even come up, although a good rain or two might bring it out a good deal.

Enlisted for Train Service.
Sam Nell was an over Sunday visitor in Pendleton from La Grande stopping over here to visit friends on his way to San Francisco, leaving this evening. Mr. Nell has enlisted in an engineers regiment that is being mobilized at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., for train service in France. He formerly resided in Pendleton and has many friends here. He is past the draft age and considers himself most fortunate in getting this opportunity to render service to his country.

Scouting Boy to Missionary.
Parishioners of the Church of the Redeemer packed and are sending out today a box of various articles for Miss Redell, a Christian missionary in Stevens Village, Alaska, 246 miles from a post office. The box includes such articles as dried fruits, some candies, warm woolen clothing, and gay colored handkerchiefs and like articles for the Indians' Christmas gifts. The box must be sent this early in the year so it will reach Miss Redell before the snows set in.

Classifying New Registrants.
The local draft board has received instructions from the adjutant general regarding classifying men registered for selective military service June 5. A very large percentage of these men will be class one men, but in a few cases of marriage and having dependent children they will be given deferred classification in class two, but where marriage has been contracted with the evident intention of escaping military service the registrant will be placed in class one.

Thomas Narkaus, former Umatilla county farmer and who has been in Alberta for a number of years is here upon a visit and Saturday drove down from Weldon with his father-in-law, E. F. Johnson. Mr. Narkaus has 1-200 acres of land in wheat this summer and says the crop outlook there is favorable.

Giving Wheatless Cooking Lessons.
Of immense value to local housewives should be the free cooking lessons being given today, tomorrow and Wednesday at the grocery department of the Peoples Warehouse by Mrs. Loretta A. Parker, sent here by the government and the Oregon Agricultural college. Mrs. Parker gives two demonstrations daily, one at 2 o'clock and one at 4, baking breads and pastries entirely from substitutes, using no wheat flour. Chairs are provided and the women of the city are urged to attend, so they may see Mrs. Parker make different articles, and so they may ask her any questions about baking with substitutes. It is important that everyone be there on time, either promptly at 2 or 4 o'clock. Mrs. Parker is using a gas range for her demonstrations.

Valuable Kitten Recovered.
Police Officer Shearer yesterday recovered a $50 white Persian kitten owned by the station agent at Umatilla, which had been brought here by a couple of Pendleton women, who were visiting there one day last week. They tried to buy the kitten, but the agent wouldn't sell, but after they left, he found the pet gone also. The kitten will be sent back to Umatilla in a day or so.

Finds Crop Conditions Fair.
Alfred Campbell, county club agent, in his trip over Umatilla county has covered practically all of the wheat sections, and says that he finds fairly good prospects for wheat crops on the whole. Rain of course is needed and with a good soaking rain the outlook would be very much improved. He was in the Pilot Rock section a few days after the rain of last week and said that it seemed to have done a great deal of good.

Children's Club Work.
Alfred Campbell, county club agent was in Pendleton Saturday afternoon, returning to his home at Umatilla to spend Sunday with his family. Mr. Campbell has just completed a tour of the western part of the county inspecting the club work of the children. At Hermiston he found much enthusiasm being shown in the club work. There are 40 children registered in the work, most of them carrying through in good shape. Some of these are engaged in gardening, some cooking, others sewing and a few are raising stock. One notable instance mentioned by Mr. Campbell is that of Dicky Upham. He has a registered brood sow with ten pigs, and has already sold some of these for $10 each. Another is Dorothy Briggs with a Jersey red sow who is meeting with splendid success.
