For Service and Quality

Judge our clothes on that basis. It's the idea of a uniform that makes a soldier stand up straight; a uniform isn't a shoulder brace, but it does have the effect of one.

It's the same way with good stylish clothes in everyday life. They brace a man's confidence; make him feel sure of himself.

When a man wears "cheap" clothes, he has too many reminders that they are "cheap." The moral effect on him is bad; but more than that "cheap" clothes are really the most expensive clothes.

Here at this store we sell all wool clothes because they're real economy for you. We know it. They save money for you and they make you feel successful.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes are what we refer to. They're all wool, tailored right, and they wear. The prices are just enough to give you these things. You can't possibly get them for less; they'd be cheap even if you paid more. Excellent values at $20.00, $25.00, $30.00, $35.00 to $50.00.

GERMAN DRIVE ON PARIS LIKELY SOON

Positively Known High Command Plans Repeated Preparatory Attacks.

(HENRY WOOD.) WITH THE FRENCH ARMY. June 19.—Despite four great German drives since March with many divisions engaged, two, three or four times, Hindenburg's reserves are still jealously guarded and are untouched. It is positively known the German high command plans repeated attacks between the North Sea and Champagne region, killing and wearing down the allied reserve. Meanwhile the Germans seek to advance their lines toward Paris along the Marne and Oise, until convinced the allied reserve is completely exhausted. Then they will throw final and absolutely fresh divisions for a decisive battle before Paris. Allied reserves are being nursed masterfully, yet because of the German's present numerical superiority, nothing but continued arrival of Americans will give the allies the advantage in manpower, when the enemy plays his final trump. The supreme battle is likely within two months. Baked Rice and Carrots (a good meat substitute)—Three medium sliced carrots prepared and put through the food grinder, about 3-4 cups boiled rice, 2 medium onions minced finely, tablespoon vegetable fat, 1 cup milk, salt and pepper. Mix, place in greased bake dish, sprinkle a little flour over the top and bake from an hour and a quarter to an hour and a half in a fairly hot oven. Brown Bread—One and three-fourths cup Graham flour, half cup each wheat and barley flours, half heaping teaspoon salt, 1-2 cups sour milk (best when thick), 1-4 cup molasses, 1 good teaspoon soda, half cup raisins, if liked; rounded teaspoon vegetable fat melted; sift dry ingredients together, add sour milk, molasses, fat and raisins, if used. Put into greased bread pan and bake about one and a quarter hours in a moderate oven.

Band Music Cures "Down-Hearted" Yank

By FRED S. FERGUSON (United Press Staff Correspondent.) WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN PICARDY, May 18. (By Mail.)—Imagine the early moonlight of a warm May evening you are sitting on a low stone wall, and from a band come the soft strains of "La Paloma." You may be in a garden in the South of New York. No doubt American officers in a certain little village in Picardy imagined such a scene tonight. They had the moonlight, the May evening, the band and "La Paloma," but the stone wall on which they sat was about one of the village duck ponds. The band, instead of being hidden behind a bank of flowers, stood in the open road. The bandmen were soldiers. Their uniforms were soiled by days of marching. They were on the eve of entering the battle line of nations. But with the rear of heavy guns distinctly audible at the front they gave their evening concert with as much care and enthusiasm as if they had been in a concert hall. Little French folk—the few remaining in the village—played about their feet. An occasional supply wagon or French caisson rumbled by, faintly drowning the music, but they played on. They Love Band Music. At the end came the Marseillaise and Star Spangled Banner, with every man man in the village within hearing distance standing stiffly at salute. Then came the trudging to billets along the dusty, crooked streets. If anyone was "downhearted," the band had used him in every direction went officers and men, whistling snatches of some tune the band had just finished their march. There's one every body liked. The band sang the chorus like this: "We're going to the Hainaut fair. To see the elephant and the kangaroo." "And we'll all stick together in all kinds of weather. For we're going to see the whole show through."

Thaviu's Exposition Band at Chautauqua

Only Band Honored With Return Engagement at San Francisco Exposition

During the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915 sixteen of the greatest bands of the country were used. They were picked with extreme care and only organizations of established national reputations were engaged. Thaviu's Band was one of these and was given the honor of the opening engagement. The greatest mark of honor and appreciation, however, was when Thaviu was requested to return for the closing series of concerts of the Exposition season. His was the only band of the sixteen great organizations to receive a return engagement. Thirty selected members of this superb band are coming to your Chautauqua on the fifth day under the leadership of the great Thaviu. Thaviu's Exposition Band will not only be the largest, but by all odds the best band ever brought West for Chautauqua audiences. Two full concerts, afternoon and evening, will be presented. In addition to the band in the evening, three grand opera singers will appear as soloists. They come from Thaviu's own grand opera organization and occupy positions of prominence in the world of musical achievement. Unusual voices are retained when supported by so large an instrumental aggregation and Thaviu has secured for these solo parts voices of unusual power and brilliancy.
