Long Live Little Joe; May He Get a Transfer

(East Oregonian Special.) UKIAH, June 20.—A letter was received a few days ago from Grover Despain of Pendleton, by friends, asking them to assist in getting his brother, Joe, transferred from the Canadian to the American army.

Mr. Despain has a good record to have proof that he is American born, which many people here can vouch for. Joe was born in Ukiah and when only a month old came near being cremated when his father lost his dwelling, store and hotel by fire and in their flight Joe was left in the building until the ceiling was falling in, when he was taken out of it. We only hope Joe gets his transfer as he deserves it, and we also hope he gets a furlough, too, so he can come home and rest for awhile.

Long live Little Joe, as that is the name he bears in Ukiah, where he was born and lived until he was a good big boy. Joe writes that he is well and feels fine.

Sheep by the thousands are now passing through town on their way to the reserve. The sheep do not look as good as they usually do, owing to the shortness of feed. The mothers are thin and the lambs much smaller than heretofore.

Sherman Keeney, who died in Portland last week, was buried at Long Creek last Friday.

Henry Nye, who has been visiting with friends at Ukiah for the last week, left Wednesday for Spokane.

Miss Margaretta Herbert left Friday for Walla Walla after visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Herbert, for two weeks. She will remain in Walla Walla a short time when she will leave for Spokane to attend summer school.

Mrs. William Meengs of Bridge creek left Friday for Prairie City, in response to a message telling her of the serious illness of her brother, Mr. Hall, of Mount Vernon, who is in the hospital at Prairie City.

A. S. Quant and daughter, Myrtle of Alba, were in town Friday for a few hours on business.

B. O. Lewis of Ranee was a guest at the Ukiah hotel Thursday night.

Miss Nora Ellis was in town Friday from her homestead doing some shopping.

Will Hinton arrived from Centralia Friday, and with his family left Sunday for his ranch in Grant county.

Hynda brothers lost one hundred head of sheep from poison when driving them to the mountains, and another man (name not learned) lost three hundred, which means a big loss to the owners with sheep at the present prices.

Miss Helen Meengs of Bridge creek left Friday for Pendleton to remain until after the teachers' examination.

Mrs. S. J. Heinicke, who has been visiting in Pendleton for the last two months returned Sunday to her home in Ukiah.

Arthur Gilliland who had his ankle broken some time ago by a horse falling on him near Pendleton, is in Ukiah, visiting this being his boyhood home. Arthur is still on crutches and will be for sometime yet.

Mrs. Mary Casteel of Gladway, received a message Saturday from her son Lou, telling her of his safe arrival in France, and that he would soon be in the trenches. Ralph Casteel, better known as Doc, is above the draft age, but nevertheless would go to the front if he could, as he made
