Nearly two hundred guests last evening enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill who issued a generous invitation for a dancing party planned to celebrate the completion of a new barn on their ranch about sixteen miles north of Pendleton. Many motor parties from Pendleton, Helix and surrounding ranches had the barn dance as their destination. Lanterns were suspended from the rafters, lending a characteristic effect as well as light and a platform had been built for the orchestra, but best of all, delicious sandwiches and coffee were copiously dispensed to the guests before their departure for home.

Nearly a dozen guests have been invited to share the festivities, which include a daintily appointed luncheon, the color motif of which is artistically developed in pink, fluffy streamers of pink crepe paper being used in combination with roses of the same delicate hue. The little hostess is entertaining Miss Margaret Bennett, Miss Florence Fletcher, Miss Amy Aldrich, Clarence Inman, Miss Helen Hale, Miss Janet Smith, Miss Heloise Hedley, Miss Gretchen Hinchey, Miss Stella McCormack, Miss Barbara Paxton (Walla Walla) and Harold Green.

Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards accompanied by their granddaughter, Miss Pauline, returned last evening to their home, 900 West Bluff after an enjoyable visit of a week which included Milton, Walla Walla and Toll Gate. Says Troops Have Made Additional Gains at Important Points.

ROME, June 22.—"It is now permissible to state that the battle has been won," Premier Orlando declared in the chamber of deputies. He said the Italians have made additional gains in the counter-offensive at both points where the Austrians crossed the Piave. He said he expected the Austrians would quickly renew their southward drive from the mountains where the enemy is gathering all available men. This maneuver is believed advocated by Hindenburg and Ludendorff in a recent hurried trip to the Austrian front.
