Pendleton Man Elected.
At Portland Friday Spanish war veterans of Oregon met and elected officers, holding a strictly business meeting instead of the usual three days' reunion. In the election of officers A. O. Carden of Malabon Camp No. 6, of Pendleton, was elected historian.

Comes to Take Position.
Mrs. Jessie Crichton arrived here this morning from Denver, Colo., to take charge of the ladies ready-to-wear section at the Peoples' Warehouse. Mrs. Crichton takes the position left vacant by Charles Blumberg, who went to Walla Walla a few weeks ago.

Leslie Starver Won Flag.
Leslie Starver of 200 Willow street, won the large American flag and staff offered by the Economy drug company to the person who guessed most the week. There were 264 balloons one of the store windows the last of the week. There were 264 balloons in the window and Mr. Starver guessed the number at 265. The contest closed at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Colored Lecturer Was Here.
Kelly Miller, a colored lecturer who has been engaged by the war department to explain the meaning and purposes of the war to the colored citizens, was here yesterday between trains as the guest of Rev. Galloway. Mr. Miller states that he was meeting a hearty response and much enthusiasm wherever he spoke. He was on his way from Salt Lake to Spokane yesterday.

"Uncle John" Was First Knight.
A picture of John M. Bentley and the following item appeared in yesterday's Portland Journal:
"John M. Bentley of Pendleton was the first candidate initiated by Legion lodge, No. 4, Knights of Pythias, which was instituted April 28, 1876, and is the only survivor of all who participated in that the ceremony. The lodge is the second strongest in the state. Among his fellow knights Mr. Bentley is affectionately known as 'Uncle John.'"

Held Outdoor Song Services.
The congregation at the Presbyterian church enjoyed a song service on the main lawn last evening. A number of chairs were brought out from the church and other listeners sat in their chairs which were parked along the curbing. Rev. J. E. Snyder and Harry Chambers made short talks, and patriotic songs filled the remainder of the service. Mrs. Raymond Hatch was much enjoyed as the soloist.

May Get a Furlough.
Mrs. Rose Campbell has just had a letter from her son, Bert, who is in a hospital at Lakewood, New Jersey, in which he says he is better and may get to come home for a month's furlough soon. The boy was a member of the 116th engineers, but was taken sick with malaria rheumatism and was in the hospital when his company went across. He has been sick eight months.

To Attend Training Camp.
Among the young men who will attend the summer training camp for civilians which begins at the University of Oregon today are Arnold H. Koepke, Athena; John M. J. Snyder, Pendleton; and Glen C. Stater, Stanfield. The training is to be under the supervision of Lieutenant Colonel John Leader, and its purpose is to enable drafted and enlisted men to advance more quickly after they enter the service. The course closes July 26.

Water Supply Was Low.
Last evening the water was found to be low in the reservoirs owing to the heavy use during the day. This afternoon Mayor Vaughan reported the situation to be much better and it is understood irrigation will not be stopped though street sprinkling has been curtailed. Two million gallons of water daily is flowing into the reservoirs. Within a week or longer one of the intermediate springs will be reached on the way to the Chaplain springs and this will add a half million gallons daily to the supply says the mayor.

Fishing Was Good Yesterday.
Reports from fishermen show that the fishy tribe was "bitting" yesterday, for almost all had good catches
