JUST FOR YOU.

- May the richest roses bloom, And the fairest visions loom, Just for you. May Old Time forget his job, Marking not the years that rob, Just for you. May the world be wondrous bright, And its sorrows ever light, Just for you. May the love that comes to woo, Fill the world with blessings new, Just for you. —Framont Pollock Livingston.

IF WE DO OR IF WE DON'T

CONSIDERABLE clamor is being made for American intervention in Russia. It is urged that American troops be sent into Russia to help restore order there and aid in turning the Russ against the kaiser. There are many who sincerely believe much could be accomplished in this way.

On the other hand the west front fighting demands that the United States use every effort to build up its army in France to the end that the enemy be held in check. We have been working hard to this end and with great success. Would it be well to divert men intended for this goal and send them to Russia in a more or less uncertain enterprise? Obviously it would not if the action would jeopardize the allied situation in France. On the other hand it may not be long until the allies will have such a superiority in Europe that men may be spared for Russia.

But can anything be accomplished in Russia until the kaiser has been whipped in the west? It is a mooted problem.

Whatever we may do we may be sorry we did not do something different.

One feature of the Russian situation seems to become plainer and plainer. It is that the bolshevik leadership is pro-German rather than pro-ally. There is ground for the belief that the whole success of Lenin in acquiring and holding power was due to Teuton help. The allies will gain nothing through the bolshevik, nor will Russia.

THE CREDITOR NATION

FOR the sacrifices America is making in the war there is at least partial compensation in the gratitude manifested by the people of France and Belgium. This feeling of gratefulness comes to light in many ways.

The Secretary of State has received the following from M. Gerard Coorman, the new prime minister of Belgium:

"Summoned by His Majesty the King, to take in hand the conduct of the affairs of Belgium, I wish to link to the notice which I hereby have the honor to give to your excellency, the renewed homage of the profound gratefulness of the Belgian people for the invaluable benefactions lavished upon them by the Washington Government during the gigantic war that is convulsing the world. Our soldiers are fighting with the intrepid American phalanxes in the cause of justice and liberty. That cooperation in the strenuous struggle is the auspicious harbinger of the cordial and fruitful relations of our two countries on the morrow of peace. I take pleasure in offering with this the expression of my sentiments of great regard for your eminent personality and of special sympathy for the great and mighty people of the United States."

All through the years to come after the beastly form of German militarism has been laid low the free people of Europe, including not merely the French and Belgians, but the English, Italians and others are going to have a very warm spot in their hearts for Uncle

Sam. We are giving magnificent help at a time when they sorely need it and they know it. After the war America will be a creditor nation in more ways than one.

FULL SPEED AHEAD

NEWS from the Italian front is encouraging and so is the news of internal dissatisfaction in Austria and Germany. Yet too much stress should not be placed on these facts. The Italian campaign is not finished by any means and its is not too late for the tide of battle to turn in favor of the Huns.

As to the internal situation in the central empires the fact the harvest season is at hand is favorable to the enemy. With new crops available they will undoubtedly be able to meet the food shortage to some extent. If so it may be many months before hunger becomes a decisive factor in inducing the people to revolt against their war lords.

Meanwhile our hope is in equipping, training and sending men across by the millions. The more quickly we get several million well trained, well supplied soldiers in France the sooner will the allies be able to carry the war to Berlin.

As the enemy weakens now is the time for Uncle Sam to work fast and hard until time arrives for the knockout blows.

Some Germans do not know yet that America has entered the war; it is a prize bunch of nuts the kaiser rules.

Do you recall the great rain of Saturday afternoon, June 22, 1918?

When we get there with those big guns the Watch am Rhine will yell "kamerad" with both lungs.

Give the boys a rousing send off and don't forget the next contingent.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, June 24, 1890.)

Information is given of an uprising in Mexico which is believed to be the beginning of a general revolutionary movement.

Mrs. A. M. Raley and daughter, Miss Cozile, bade a final goodbye to friends at the depot this morning and left for their future home in Portland.

Glenn Bushce is down from Starkey Prairie. He is now a full-fledged vaquero and wears a sombrero jauntily.

Gould and Warzeiler have just received the finest lot of perfumery ever brought to Pendleton.

HUNGARY SEIZES ALL NEW CROPS; CONTROLS MILLS

AMSTERDAM, June 22.—All new crops have been ordered requisitioned by the Hungarian government, according to a report from Budapest. All flour mills have been put under government supervision.

GERMANS STAB WOUNDED IN BED

Capt. J. H. Finlay of Canada told in St. Mark's church in the Bouwerie yesterday of having seen eighteen men in a temporary hospital stabbed in their beds by Germans who were in temporary control.

He also told of personally examining a captured German captain who had in his pocket thirty-two identification tags. Reproached for retaining them, because by doing so as many families of the allies would remain in ignorance of what fate had befallen them, the German attempted to justify his act, and added that his instructions from his government were to do as he did in order to inflict pain on people at home as well as on those in the field.

Capt. Finlay pleaded with Americans to realize the character of Germans, not Prussians only, but the entire nation.

CIVIL WAR PENSION INCREASE BILL PASSES

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The civil war pension increase bill was passed today by the senate, 36 to 22. It amends the house bill by increasing the minimum monthly pension to those who served 90 days from $25 to $30, and provides pensions of $32 to $40 a month, according to length of service, for those 72 years or older.

The bill would increase the pension roll by $35,000,000 a year.

BERLIN SALES GIRLS ARE INDEPENDENT

STOCKHOLM, June 18.—Protests against the incivility of salespeople in Berlin, which began to be heard two years ago have multiplied so that organizations representing various branches of trade have issued a statement expressing regret and calling upon offenders to treat customers with courtesy.

A jest in a Berlin comic paper gives point to the situation. Several persons are discussing what they intend to do as soon as peace is declared. The last to tell how he intends to celebrate says:

"The minute I hear the war is over I'm going across to the shop where I buy my butter and wallop the sales-girl in-the-face."

THINKS DRAFT CHANGE SOON

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Representative Cox of Indiana predicted that congress will be asked within 10 days to make the draft ages from 18 to 40.

THE SCARLET POPPIES.

- * Methinks the scarlet poppies on the fields * Of France—in this dark hour— * Are but the blood of our dead * heroes * Blossomed into flower. * To watch and wait, and not in vain; * For, though they blow and tom impatiently, * At last shall bow their glorious heads * And whisper, "Victory." * —From the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

You Can't Rub It Away; Rheumatism is in the Blood

Liniments Will Never Cure. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will? Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store, and get on the right treatment-to-day. If you want special medical advice, you can obtain it free by addressing Medical Director, 23 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
