YANKEES HOLDING ADDITIONAL LINES JUST ANNOUNCED

FRANK J. TAYLOR
WITH THE AMERICANS, France, June 25.—American troops are holding the mountainous sector southeast of St. Die where the battalions crossed from Loreine into Germany. It is now permissible to announce. Americans have occupied the trenches there since June 1. It was kept secret until the Germans made the discovery. This occurred Sunday when an enemy raid in this sector captured two Americans. Other Americans were captured by an enemy raid between St. Die and Lunville.

German artillery was active north of Toul last night, probably retaliatory for the shelling our gunners gave the German rear areas shortly before.
