Eastern Oregon Towns Will Aid in Support

Pendleton along with other eastern Oregon towns aspiring to secure the eastern Oregon normal school if one is anthorized by the people this fail, is asked to send a representative to Portland for a meeting called by the Ashland people for July. This was made known here yesterday by Rep. Ben Sheldon, author of the normal school amendment who was here and met with local people. Mr. Sheldon has been in Haker and La Grande, and those towns, particularly La Grande, will cooperate in putting the measure over this fall. It is anticipated that Weston and The Dalles will also be in the game as all these towns have reasons for believing they may be sewill lecate the school, if the amendment carries this fall.

An argument for the normal meas-

are has been prepared by the Mon-mouth resents and will be in the veters' pamphiet. The board has al-ready passed a resolution that if the amendment is carried the construc-tion work on any needed buildings will not be carried out until after the war or until the federal government gives full authority for such an ex-
