During the week from July 1 to the Red Cross surgical dressings class will follow the schedule given below. Afternoon work begins 7 1/2 o'clock and evening classes at 7. Bell of Willamina who came Friday. The visitors are remaining over Sunday. Mr. Bell is a brother of Mrs. Burnett—Salem Statesman.

Miss Sadie Evelyn Ford, one of the prominent musicians of Oregon City, will give one of her delightful piano recitals at the Methodist church this evening, when a large number of her students are to appear in a well-arranged musical program. The St. Cecilia Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, will assist. There will also be vocal selections by Homer Hollowell, with Miss Sadie Ford at the piano and Mr. Fietzner on the violin.—Oregon City Enterprise.

Mrs. George Baer, accompanied by her small son, departed yesterday for Portland en route to Seaside where they will pass the next several weeks.

Miss Daphne Swearingen is spending a few days in Walla Walla as the guest of Miss Sue Crawford, her visit being occasioned by the appearance of "Oh, Boy" at the Keylor Grand theater.

Mrs. Charles Greenlich, of the local Red Cross organization, is making an urgent appeal for workers in a sewing cutting class to meet every Tuesday and Friday forenoon at the library. The necessity of work in this line is proving heavier than anticipated and it will be necessary to secure much additional help in order to meet the local quota. The work room will be open at 9 a. m. each Tuesday and Friday with an instructor in charge.

A merry group of picnicers journeyed by motor to the reservation Sunday where a most delightful outing was enjoyed. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. James McCall, Mrs. Duncan McDonald, Mrs. E. Doherty, Mrs. Anna Stanfield, Tom Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wirth, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hartnett, the Misses Pauline and Emily Doherty, Manie Hartnett, Edith Laing, Beadie and Francis Robertson, Jessie Thompson, Dorothy Hartnett, Flora McDonald, Masters Bruce Gibbs, Robert and Alec Thompson, Edward McDonald and Francis McCall.

At 8:30 o'clock last evening beneath a bower of ferns and blossoms, Miss Florence Morton became the bride of Laurence Whitman, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morton, with Rev. H. H. Hubbell officiating. The couple was unattended, and only a small group of relatives witnessed the service.

Preceding exchange of vows, Miss Mabel Whitman, sister of the groom, played the Barcarolle. Tales from Hoffman, and the couple took their place to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride chose an especially lovely frock of palest gray, her gown being of silvery-toned Georgette crepe, cut on short girlish lines, and touched with a thread of pink and blue embroidery. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses, fluffy white blossoms and ferns.

About the living room pink roses were combined with Shasta daisies and angel-breath, great clusters of the blossoms surrounding pedestals at either side of the bower of ferns.

After showering the couple with good wishes the guests assembled for a buffet supper in the dining room where a great pink shaded light cast its radiance over an abundance of pink sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitman departed later in the evening by automobile for Walla Walla, from where they left today for a short wedding trip.

Mr. Whitman has been head of the department of science in the high school for the past two years and is himself a graduate of the institution as well as of the University of Oregon, while his bride attended the normal at Cheney, Washington, and has recently been with the Peoples Warehouse. Both of the young people are well known in Pendleton, where they have made their home for several years and both have many friends to wish them happiness.

News has reached Pendleton friends of the marriage of Miss Clyde Hall to Harold Frink in Eugene Saturday. The ceremony was performed in the home of Mrs. J. C. Van Guilder, in the presence of only a few relatives and friends. The bride's sister, Mrs. C. T. Hackett, of Centralia, Washington, was chosen to be her matron of honor.

or, while Eldon Frink, Jr. attended his brother as best man, and the service was performed by Rev. A. M. Spangler of the Baptist Church of Eugene. The bride was simply gowned in a dainty frock of gray, with which she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pastel-toned blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Frink are making their home in apartments on Taylor street in Portland and Mr. Frink is employed in the shipyards, while awaiting his call to service. Mrs. Frink left Pendleton last week and during a two-months stay she made many friends here. She was a student at the University of Oregon, where she specialized in newspaper work and was a member of the Theta Sigma Phi honorary journalistic fraternity. She was with the Eugene Guard before coming to Pendleton to do reportorial work on the East Oregonian.

The surgical dressings class under the direction of Mrs. T. D. Taylor will meet tomorrow afternoon and Mrs. Taylor will be at the library to welcome all who will help by 1:30 o'clock as there is such a great amount of work to be accomplished during the few hours. A cordial invitation is always extended by Mrs. Taylor to volunteers as well as members, but for tomorrow an unusually urgent appeal is made that every person lend all aid possible. The afternoon will be devoted to making the first aid packets for use in the front line trenches and still another call has come for a larger Pendleton quota.

BLACKBIRD ADDED TO LIST OF WAR FOODS

SACRAMENTO, July 2.—The famous personage who "sang a song of suspense" and then backed four and twenty blackbirds into a pie and thought it was great stuff wasn't such an odd nut as many thought him to be. In fact, he was an epilogue, according to George Neale of the state game and fish commission.

"Eat blackbirds and save meat!" Neale advised today. "As a table bird they are excelled by few others. They are not costly to shoot, as they travel and feed in large bands, and many birds can be killed with a single load of No. 9 shot. The young birds are now able to fly and are tender and delicious to eat. In many of the southern states it is necessary to protect blackbirds because the epilogues realize the table qualities of this bird."

"In game districts Nos. 1, 2 and 3, which comprise most of California except the most southern counties, blackbirds may be killed at any time and in any numbers. No license is required to hunt them."

BROWN OF THE THREE FINGERS ONLY CLUB TO MAKE GOOD AS MANAGER

Mordecai Brown

Of all the aggregation of greats who have gone from the Chicago Cubs to managerial berths the only one who appears to have any success is a pitcher.

Not long ago Tinker felt that he wasn't getting what he should out of his pitching and he called on Mordecai Brown to take a hand as temporary manager.

The big Indiana miner did so well that he was given the job permanently and it now looks as though Columbus would finish there or thereabouts.

If Brown makes good with Columbus this year he will have been the best of the old line in several years.
