

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Put in First Class

Viral Swaley, formerly in class 4 in draft classification, has been reclassified and placed in class 1. He expects to be called soon.

Home on Furlough

F. W. Powell, formerly of Pendleton, who is in the service and stationed at Fort Ward, Washington, passed through Pendleton yesterday on his way to Pendleton for a 10 days furlough.

Help British Recruiting

Sandy McPherson, with a singing, talking and bag pipe act, will be an additional attraction at the Alita theater tomorrow. He has been connected with British recruiting and has authority to wear the kilt and uniform.

Harvest Getting Started

T. C. Frazier of the First National Bank of Milton, was a visitor in Pendleton yesterday evening. He says harvesting in the Milton section is getting under way and so far as he has learned thinks it is turning out about two thirds normal crop.

Boosting National Parks

Under the government administration of railroads a plan is being worked out to increase tourist travel in national parks. Circulars have been received by the Pendleton Commercial association showing special inducements will be offered to induce tourists to spend a part of their vacations in the parks.

Christian Science

E. Webb and Johnson streets. Services Sunday, 11 a. m.; Wednesday evening meeting, 8 p. m. Sunday school 10 a. m. Subject of this week's lesson sermon, "Sacrament." The reading room at the church is open daily, except Sunday, from 1:30 until 5 p. m. Sunday evening services are discontinued during the months of July and August.

Will Go To Presidio

Ned Fowler, who went to Astoria to work in the ship yards at the close of his sophomore year at the University of Oregon this June arrived in Pendleton this morning to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Ida L. Fowler, before leaving for Officers Training Camp, Presidio. He is one of the 28 University men chosen to enter the camp.

No Trouble Except Bad Roads

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mason of Dallas, Texas, arrived at Pendleton yesterday from their home in a Highway, a distance of about 2300 miles, without practically any trouble, excepting that they had found lots of bad roads. Stating that the Lincoln highway was not at all named right as it should have been named Theodore Roosevelt Highway.

For the "Same Company"

William McLean, who left here recently with a draft detachment for special service has sent a postcard to the Charles Company saying he found Blaine Burton on guard duty and that his friend made him "advance and be recognized" even though he told him he was working for the same company he was. He also says Burton refused to recognize "Glenn a corker" as the counterfeiter.

Organize Fire Fighting System

Eight or ten members of the Oregon Military Police, who are stationed here, will leave next week for Moro to set as fire patrols, according to arrangements made in that place Thursday by Captain Harry Williams for crop protection for Sherman county. Captain Williams, who returned last night, says that the Moro Home Guard is sponsoring the plan and will provide quarters for the men and good saddle horses for use in the work. The police, besides patrolling the county on the watch for fires, will establish a telephone station and lookout at Gordon Butte, near Moro. Numerous five gallon cans of water will be placed all over the county so that the poles will have easy access to them and when a fire is detected the men will unite with the farmers in an effort to check it. Captain Williams is at present considering being a similar plan to the notice of Umatilla county.

One Machine Cutting

George Perrieger has one machine harvesting barley on his land south of Pendleton and will start two combines on his wheat next week.

Started Harvesting

Elmer Moore has started harvesting on land he and H. W. Collins have been cut yet to determine how the grain is going.

Nephew Killed in Action

Gov. J. E. Snyder received a message last evening telling of the death of his nephew, Ora Douglas, killed in action in France. He was a non-commissioned officer in the marine corps, having enlisted from California soon after his war began, and he had been in France five months. He was 30 years of age. He was the son of Rev. Snyder's sister, Mrs. Amy Douglas of Jewellville, Ohio. Mrs. Douglas visited in Pendleton last March, making many friends here.

Grant Co. Pioneer Lost an Eye

J. D. Combs of John Day was taken to Portland a few days ago and had one of his eyes removed and the vision in the other is badly damaged. His misfortune was sudden and peculiar. He was driving his car when the trouble came on. He did not realize that there was anything the matter with his eyes when he suddenly noticed the trouble. He returned to his home and rapidly grew worse. When taken to Portland the doctors stated that he had poisoned his eyes with chrome acid.—Eagle, Canyon City.

Echo Home Guards Number 82

The Echo home guards are getting a fine start. Eighty two members have been signed up and drills are being held twice a week, Sunday afternoons and Thursday evenings. A non-commissioned officers' school is also being held each week. Asa H. Thompson has been elected captain. The other officers are yet to be selected. At the meeting of the city council this week the council voted to pay one-half the cost of uniforms for the men, and they have agreed to pay the other half.

Our Allied Republic's National Day

Tomorrow, July 14, is the national holiday of France, and all America is joining in the observance of the day. In Pendleton the day will be observed in the churches, in the evening at the union services at the Presbyterian church the anniversary of our allied republic will be remembered. The Marsellaise, the national hymn of France, and other music will be played. The Marsellaise will also be on the musical programs at the theatres. Mayor J. L. Vaughan requests that all the French flags in the city be displayed for the day.

Sun Fish in Umatilla River

This morning there were no display in Sol Baum's window in Hotel Pendleton building one sun fish. So far as known these are the first ever caught from the Umatilla river. They were caught by M. E. McLean, Ed Baker and C. J. Wason near Rieth yesterday evening. The sun fish is a small fish native of eastern waters and these are supposed to have been planted here at the same time bass were planted in Barhart slough four or five years ago. They are said to be very fine eating, but never get very large. Bass fishing at Rieth is reported to be very good, and many parties are going there evenings.

Get Good Price for Cattle

Henry Laszka, Frank Kopp and Fred Fletcher, returned this morning from Denver, Colo., where they sold 27 cows of cattle, getting $14.25 and $18.75 for steers, and $19.75 for a carload of cows. Those cattle, which were without a cut of any kind, were killed almost immediately as the demand is immense. A representative of the Armour company told Mr. Laszka his firm was losing $200 an hour because of the scarcity of cattle. J. Brosman and Dillard French, who shipped their cattle to Kansas City, returned today also, and got $14.50. They shipped 15 cars of cattle. Following are the quotations given by Mr. Laszka regarding the Denver market: Grass steers, $12.50-14; choice, $12.25-15.50; cows, $9.50-10; choice, $10.50-12.75; heifers, up to 11.50; bulls, $7.50-9.75; for fair and choice; yearls, $11.25-15.25; fair stock, steers, $8.50-9.25; good steers, $9.50-12; choice steers, $12.50.

Funeral Tomorrow

The funeral of Fred W. Lindreth who died of apoplexy July 5 on his way here from Modesto, California, to join his wife, will be held tomorrow at 9 a. m. from the Polson chapel with the members of the Masonic Lodge, of which the deceased was a member, in charge. Rev. E. B. Cleverger of the Baptist church, will officiate and the pall bearers will be R. A. Newberry, Charles Moneke, Manuel Friendly, S. H. Forsberg, H. M. Chambers and R. E. Farnsworth. The body will be buried here. Mr. Lindreth was born in Helmsford, the east end of Finland, January 11, 1881 and came to America at the age of 20. After four years in Savannah, and three in Nevada, he made his home in Modesto and was a photographer by trade. He married Miss Anna Selvers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Selvers, of Pendleton, September 10, 1913. They came here last April and Mrs. Lindreth remained while Mr. Lindreth returned to California in June to settle up his affairs there preparatory to going into the photography business here in Pendleton. His death occurred on shipboard and the body was shipped here from Gray's and fishing good. B. F. Averill, Judge J. W. Maloney, Rev. J. E. Snyder, W. M. Bakely and Raymond Snyder returned last night from a fishing trip to Desolation creek. They report good luck.

George Gillette Still Ill

George Gillette, formerly manager of the Western Union office here, is still seriously ill at the hospital in Portland. Recent reports say his condition is improved.

Returns From Funeral

Mrs. W. D. McNary returned this morning from Salem where she attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles McNary, recently killed in an automobile accident.

Visits Milton Auxiliary

Mrs. Charles Grudnich left today by auto for Milton, where she will visit the Milton auxiliary of the Umatilla County Red Cross, in the interests of the surgical bandings work. She expects to return this evening.

Taken Up For Pasco Police

Jas. H. Eckley is being held in the city jail by Chief of Police Al Roberts. He was taken up on the request of the police at Pasco, Wash., who are expected to arrive here for him today. He is said to have impersonated an officer and secured $20 thereby.

On Road to Recovery

D. D. Phelps leaves this evening on No. 18 to spend the week end at Hof Lake with his son George, who has been dangerously sick at the sanatorium for some time. The latest reports indicate the young man is on the road to recovery.

Received Word From Son

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kennedy received word by letter today from their son, Corporal Vernon Kennedy, that he is still safe and well. Corporal Kennedy enlisted close to the beginning of the war in the O. N. G. and is now in Company G, 102 Infantry. He has been in France for some time and it has been a month since Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy had news of him.

Red Cross Bills Paid

Bills for the Umatilla County Red Cross, for the month of June, were paid yesterday by Secretary C. E. Roosevelt and amounted to $2004.32, including some weekly and some monthly bills. Total of this amount for year, $296 for materials for bed jackets, and a considerable amount for the materials and furnishings of service kits and comfort bags.

To Hold Live Stock Meetings

A live stock meeting will be held next Friday at Gibbon and next Saturday at Weston for the purpose of forming a grain graders' association of all cattle men who use the range. M. S. Shrook, county agricultural agent, is making arrangements for the meetings at the request of the Forest Service, which feels that better cooperation may be secured if the Forest Service can work through one organization which incorporates all cattle men.

Prof. Hyslop Coming

Prof. G. R. Hyslop, professor of farm crops at O. A. C., will arrive Monday or Tuesday to look over crops in the county for certified wheat classifications. M. S. Shrook, county agricultural agent, and a committee composed of R. O. Barnhart, president of the Agricultural Council, A. R. Koppcke and others will accompany Professor Hyslop to the fields to inspect the growing wheat, to note if it is free from other varieties and test the seed. Three applications from farmers have come in all ready. These include three different varieties. Professor Hyslop is conducting a grain grading school in La Grande at present which will close Saturday evening.
