Stanfield Home Guards Drilling; Number 35

(East Oregonian Special.)

STANFIELD, July 31.—Stanfield has an organized company of home guards of 25 men and are drilling every Monday and Friday evening, and with the Echo guards at Echo every Sunday afternoon. The guards will soon be equipped with uniforms and everything required just as soon as they can be ordered, most of the company having signed up and been measured for uniforms. The boys are taking great interest in the drills and expect to have one of the best companies in the county in a short time as they are under the leadership of two veterans.

G. M. Beidler started hauling his wheat to the Stanfield warehouse last Wednesday and will have a large amount of grain to haul this season.

H. C. Elder and brothers of the Despain Gulch district report their wheat turning out 20 bushels on an average which is considered good for this dry season. Mr. Elder expects to have 4000 sacks this season and will soon commence to haul his grain here.

Henry Lorenzen came in from his Despain Gulch farm and reports his grain all threshed on this place, making over 23 hundred sacks, which is more than Mr. Lorenzen expected from the place as dry as it has been. He will start a team hauling in about two weeks.

Mrs. J. D. Rice of Siles, Idaho, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Hunt at Hermiston for a month. Mrs. Rice visited over Sunday in Stanfield with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Sullivan and returned to Hermiston in the evening, accompanied by her youngest daughter, Miss Carol Rice, also of Siles, Idaho.

The second crop of hay is well under way and if the present weather keeps up there will be no trouble in saving this crop of hay.

Mr. Bray, editor of the Stanfield Standard, has moved his family up from Portland and will occupy the house formerly occupied by Don Pruitt on Barbara street.

Mrs. J. D. Heavert has moved in to the Adam Zion house.

Clement M. Howard, assistant cashier of the Bank of Stanfield, has enlisted in the U. S. navy as a Yeoman and expects to leave for training station in California soon.

John J. Attebury of this place has enlisted in the merchant marine and has gone to Bremerton, Washington, for training.

Popular Umapine People
Wed; Maxwell Car Stolen

(East Oregonian Special.)

UMAPINE, Ore., July 31.—Saturday night, friends of Arthur Winans (Happy) gave he and his bride (Ethel Dickerson) a charivari at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickerson. Treats were served a big crowd of the visiting young people and a dance will be given Saturday night by the bridegroom. Last week the young couple slipped off to Pendleton and were married. Both are well known in this community and have many friends who wish them happiness.

Mrs. E. C. Ransom is visiting relatives at Home, Idaho, during the present lull in haying on the Ransom ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Records took a honeymoon trip over in the Wallowa country last week starting on Wednesday after the rain. They had a wonderful trip and were over a large section of the Grande Ronde Valley.

Rev. Dickison of the United Brethren church at Umapine, has left this section and been assigned to the Monday circuit which includes Spokane. He will remove there with his family after harvest.

Mrs. Roy Ward and family are occupying the home just vacated by Rev. Dickison and have leased it for one year.

Mrs. Guy Young and two daughters have joined the Kirk camping ground at the dam up the Walla Walla river.

Rev. Bleakney of Walla Walla, occupied the pulpit of the Umapine Presbyterian church on Sunday morning and after the service was entertained at dinner by Mrs. R. H. Wellman.

Ranchers of this school district dropped other work this week and are unloading and hauling to the school basement, coal consigned to this school district.

Irene Hoon and Grenville Meeker left this week for White Bluffs, Wn., where they will visit Mrs. Hoon's sister at that place. Zella Hoon is spending the summer at White Bluffs also.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Philipp moved to Prescott Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Judge Kelly.

Ruth Hancy of Freewater is visiting Nina Egana on their ranch just east of Umapine.

Saturday evening, while attending the Liberty theatre in Walla Walla, W. E. Gordon was unlucky enough to have his new Maxwell car stolen.

Next day police discovered the car out in east Walla Walla where it had been abandoned by joy riders.

Mrs. Dan J. Kirk is down from camp this week during second hay cutting on the Kirk ranch.

Hay Hands Scarce Around
Gurdane; Shipping Cattle

(East Oregonian Special.)

GURDANE, July 31.—Mrs. Frank Gilliland was taken sick Thursday and rushed to Pilot Rock and from there on to Pendleton Friday, where she was operated on for appendicitis. She is doing nicely at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Enright and two children made a trip to Pilot Rock Saturday, returning again Sunday. Mrs. Enright has been in poor health for some time and is under the doctor's care at present.

Dillard French and John Carter left last week with about 600 head of beef cattle which they will ship east to Kansas.

Andy Rust, who has been helping a few days in haying in this vicinity, left the last of the week. Hay men are scarce and everyone is working short handed.

Mike Daugherty made a trip to Pilot Rock Thursday. Mr. Daugherty will go on to Portland before returning home.

Mac Gilliland and wife returned from Pendleton Sunday where they went with Mrs. Frank Gilliland. The Gillilands leave for Echo in a few days where they will work on the Saling ranch.

Frank Jones and wife were up from their home at Pilot Rock Sunday bringing the Gillilands home.

A number are huckleberrying now, while not plentiful there is some patches and only a few are ripe.

C. O. Dinius Has Fine
Potato Crop at Ritter

(East Oregonian Special.)

UKIAH, July 31.—C. O. Dinius, who owns a stock ranch near Ritter, was in Ukiah Saturday night on business. Mr. Dinius has supplied a good many of the Ukiah people with their winter potatoes for the last four years and always has good potatoes, bringing them over by the four horse load. Last spring seed grain being high, and hard to get in where he lives, he decided to plant some of his ground to potatoes as he had lots of them, and he planted thirty sacks, making five or six acres, which are looking fine. He says he can furnish Ukiah and vicinity with all the potatoes they want for winter as reasonable as any one else. He has taken a good many orders for potatoes already while here. The weather has turned off ex-
