Grind 4 good sized potatoes and 1 onion very fine through food chopper. Add 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt and just enough meal or substitute flour to bind.

Bake like pancakes on a hot greased griddle, and serve with SYRUP, honey or apple sauce. These cakes require longer, slower baking than ordinary griddle cakes. Grated green corn may be substituted for the onion and potato, for a delicious mid-summer fritter.

- 1 cup chopped nuts and raisins mixed.
- 1 cup white corn syrup.
- 2 level teaspoons baking powder.
- 1-2 teaspoon salt.

OIL INDUSTRY TO BE TAKEN OVER, BELIEF

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Mark A. Requa, director of oil supply, in the fuel administration, expects within two weeks to announce a plan for federal control of the oil industry.

It is desired to put the plan into operation through voluntary action of producers and refiners although the provisions of the Lever bill are available if needed.

The plan is to eliminate competition through fixing prices of crude oil in the various fields, and setting a maximum price on bonuses, if necessary to keep military needs fully supplied. Allocation will be undertaken, as in the case of steel.

It is considered likely that the industry will shortly come into contact with government regulation. Old machinery and supplies have been raked over, but the end of this source is now in sight.

Requa intends to issue a series of price differentials for the products of the refiners, based on the price of crude oil and moving in sympathy with it.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Italian boys who are doing so nobly in driving back the Austrians are getting first-class support from an organization of 50 of their sisters here.

The same girls have volunteered for other kinds of service for the allied armies after working hours.

Miss Violet Giacomoni spent many of her evenings collecting money for the blind relief fund. The evening she completed her canvass she received word that her brother, fighting in the Italian army, had been blinded in battle.

The girls turn out 2,000 surgical dressings a week. The Red-Cross hotel shows its appreciation of the working girls' efforts by sending them to lunch each working night.
