

NEWS NOTES OF PENDELTON

Returns to Portland.
A. M. Canton, new principal for the Pendleton high school, returned today to Portland after spending a day here house hunting and conferring with Fred P. Austin, city school superintendent, on plans for next year.

Gives Per Cent to Red Cross.
C. F. Asberry, traveling salesman, gives a certain per cent of his sales in any town to the Red Cross chapter there. Yesterday he donated thirty cents to the Umatilla County Red Cross from his sales in Pendleton.

Members of Navy Here.
Floyd C. Mills, chief gunner's mate, E. S. Peterson, buicer, and J. J. Tarrin, machinists mate, all members of the United States navy, are here today making arrangements for the coming of a recruiting party for the navy, headed by Lieutenant M. C. Kent, which will be here Monday and Tuesday. Headquarters will be in the federal building.

Hosts After Fighting.
W. E. Gurrie received a letter today from his brother, Ted Driscoll, now in France, saying that he is now back from the trenches and is resting preparatory to his return to the firing line. He says he is enjoying three "squares" a day once more.

Has Charge of Dispensary.
Francis Lamberty, formerly employed in the prescription department of the Pendleton Drug Co., now in the service, is in charge of the dispensary at Fort Flagler, on Puget Sound. He writes that he likes the work very much.

Has Five Brothers in Service.
Mrs. Joe D. Kinney is in Pendleton today from her home near Echo, while here she had a service pin made containing five stars having five brothers in the service, William, John, Victor, Leonard and Ray Porter. They range in age from 16 to 29 and are all volunteers. Four are in France and one on the firing line since March. Their home is in Detroit, Michigan, and the Porters are the only family in the state of Michigan having five sons in the service.

Red Cross Gets Donations.
C. E. Roosevelt, secretary of the Umatilla County Red Cross, received $2 from M. V. Devick of Brewster, today; $1 from J. C. Berry, of Free-water, and $1 from Robert McCun-ber of Free-water, all to apply on the pledge. E. C. Shell of Milton sent in $1.25, Miss Nellie Bosart, an employe at the State Hospital, gave $3, and Mrs. S. C. Givens, also employed in the hospital, gave $1.

Confined to His Room.
Ed "Smokes" Nolf, of the Grocery department of Alexander's store is reported to be confined to his room at Hotel Pendleton by sickness.

Will Return Friday.
M. S. Shrock, county agricultural agent, will return Friday to resume his duties after a two weeks' vacation spent in the harvest fields on the Jim Maloney ranch.

Two Weeks at Eugene.
Editor E. B. Aldrich of the East Oregonian, who this week is attending the meeting of the Oregon Editorial association at Marshfield, writes he will spend two weeks at the military summer training camp at Eugene before returning to Pendleton.

Spent Two Days at Camp Lewis.
R. A. Stubbs returned home yesterday morning from a vacation trip to Portland and other points in western Oregon and Washington. He spent two days at Camp Lewis, and saw a number of Pendleton men who are in the camp rapidly getting in shape to do their part in downing the Hun when they reach the trenches, and all seem to be enjoying life. Mr. Stubbs is with the Farmers' Union Grain agency.

Service Flag Flying.
A service flag with 15 stars has been placed by Mrs. A. L. Malloy on the porch of her boarding house at 400 East Alta street in commemoration of boarders now in the service. Among those for whom the stars are in honor are W. H. Taylor, B. H. Carston, H. F. Stones, who are in France, Lester Hayes, Ralph Hutehinson, Lloyd Bowman, R. R. Anderson, Lloyd Richardson, Henry Shatz, Emil Erickson, Oscar Crawford, A. Crawford and Luther Albertson. Mrs. Malloy says she expects to add more stars soon as a number of the men who are patrons of her boarding house expect to leave to join the service.

Will Ride at Round-Up.
Eduardo Bob Hall, famous as a bucking horse rider and runner-up in Round-Up contests of the past two years, who is in Pendleton for a few days says he is determined to win the much coveted championship in his first event next month. In 1916 Hall captured 2nd honors to Jackson Bandown and Rufus Rollins. Last year, in spite of the handicap of a badly twisted ankle, he succeeded in winning 2nd place to Yakima Canutt, and feeling that he is still on the up grade, he has it doped out that he is due to ride into the championship this year. During his past winter Hall has been in southern California, working as a cowboy in the movies along with Douglas Fairbanks. If he succeeds in his ambition at the Round-Up next month, Broncho Bob declares he will give up his hobby for the duration of the war and will enlist to help bulldog the Kaiser. Besides being a bucking horse rider, Hall is a trick rider; also an expert with a rope and can do most anything that any other cowboy can.

Will Ride Again.
Miss Donna Card, who rode the famous Dynamometer string in the Round-Up last year, was in Pendleton today on her way to Walla Walla where she will train the horses preparatory to riding again in this year's Round-Up.

Returns from Denver.
Fred Walsh of Fossil was in Pendleton today en route to his home after selling a train load of cattle in Denver. He reports the market good and expects to make another shipment soon of cattle and sheep.

Operated Upon for Appendicitis.
Floyd Baker of Ullah was operated upon for appendicitis this morning at St. Anthony's hospital. He is improving rapidly.

Have Tonsils Removed.
Mary Lonergan and Jim Lonergan, the children of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. A. Lonergan were operated upon for tonsils and adenoids today at St. Anthony's hospital.

Will Visit Son.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander left today for Camp Lewis where they will visit their son, Sergeant Roy Alexander, who has been in the service for some time. It is expected that Sergeant Alexander will be moved soon so his parents are anxious to see him before that time.

Son is Improving.
J. T. Brown received a letter dated July 3 today from his son Clie Brown, with the Marines in France, saying that he is improving rapidly from a wound recently received in the left ankle. He is still in the hospital, however.

Got $200 Fine.
George Mullen plead guilty to bootlegging charge before Judge C. H. Marsh this morning and was fined $200. Mullen is the negro arrested several days ago at Umatilla by Deputy Sheriff Aaburg, who was disguised as a "car whacker." As he was delivering the liquor he was placed under arrest and being caught with the goods, all there was left for him to do was to throw himself upon the mercy of the court, of which he drew 150 days at $2 per.

Hendley Funeral Held.
The funeral of Fred W. Hendley, who died Tuesday morning, was held today at 10 a. m. from the Polson chapel, with the Rev. H. H. Hubbard of the Christian church officiating. The pallbearers were George Burr, T. D. Taylor, R. T. Brown, N. Herkeler, A. W. Bradley and G. W. Whipple. The body was buried here. The services were attended by the many friends of the deceased, who was a member of the Masons, Odd Fellows and Woodmen of the World.

Pendleton's Service Flag.
A new service flag is hanging over the entrance to the city hall today. On it are 12 stars representing three city officials and 10 members of the fire department who are now in the service of their country. One star is for Capt. J. A. Best, the city's mayor; H. Almer Poe, city attorney; Capt. H. L. Hatters, city physician. The 10 members of the fire department in the service are Floyd Hall, Chester Kay, W. A. Brock, Forrest Dunlap, Harvey Morris, Barney Oldfield, Adolph Franzer, Guy Sloper, Joe Klecher, Roseco Mount. One of the prodigious men in town over the new flag is Fire Chief Ringold.

For a Weak Stomach.
The great relief afforded by Chamberlain's Tablets in a multitude of cases has fully proven the great value of this preparation for a weak stomach and impaired digestion. In many cases this relief has become permanent and the sufferers have been completely restored to health.

Good for Biliousness.
"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I concluded to try them. I improved rapidly."—Miss Emma Verbrake, Lima, Ohio.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.
Those who are troubled with indigestion and constipation may find permanent relief by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. Roy F. King, Oriskany, N. Y., writes, Chamberlain's Tablets cured me of a bad case of stomach trouble and constipation."

They expect to ship a trainload from Ullah, Washington and another from Ellensburg in September. Dan Smythe says that continued rains in the mountains are making the feed good, and the indications are that there will be an early wet fall.

Council Meeting.
The meeting of the city council last evening was rather a short affair owing to the desire of the officials to attend the patriotic exercises at the North Side Park. Only the most pressing business was transacted—filling of reports of officers and auditing bills. The report of the recorder showed a total of 15 arrests collected during the month, with $145 collected as fines. Two of the men arrested served jail sentences. License fees collected during the month amounted to $232. Nine building and repair permits were granted with an indicated total cost of $195. The fire chief's report gave the number of calls during the month as five with total loss placed at $269.

Takes Position Here.
Miss Bertha Cannon of Burns, has taken a position as stenographer in the office of Carter & Smythe, succeeding Miss Mary Stewart who returned to her home in Salem. Miss Cannon was employed in the office of the district attorney at Burns.

Returns from Grande Ronde Valley.
Lieutenant J. W. Kocker and Private Walter Galloway of the O. M. P. returned last night from the Grande Ronde Valley, where they were stationed on special military duty. They were instrumental in the investigation of the actions of several alleged pro-Germans and I. W. W.'s.

Corporal Will Marry.
Corporal Alvin Q. Church of the Oregon Military Police returned today from Hells and was given a farewell because of his approaching marriage to Miss Vivian Dunlap of this city. Private Pagan left today for Hells, to succeed Corporal Church during the latter's absence.

Mother of 8 Kills Self.
COLEFAX, Wash., Aug. 8.—Mrs. Betella Puelco, mother of eight children, hanged herself at her home in Colton this evening.
Mrs. Puelco, who obtained a divorce from her husband, had been ill for some time and was at Colefax the day when her son, Eddie, aged 15, was sent to a training school for boys.

ing checks.

Women Teamsters Hired.
VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 8.—There are now women teamsters, as well as women streetcar operators in Vancouver. One local concern, the Red Ash Coal company, which does an extensive hauling and teaming business, has five women at work, driving teams. Clad in coveralls, the women handle the teams on grading and other rough work just like men.

Expenses Are Estimated.
SALEM, Aug. 8.—The Oregon Historical Society estimates its expenses for the next two years at $28,500 and the department of public instruction at $46,000. In reports filed with the state tax commission today, receipts for the historical society are estimated at $15,000 and for the department of public instruction at $29,000.

Gomper's Enters Dispute.
SEATTLE, Aug. 8.—Telegrams urging northwest union men to do nothing to block the government's war task of getting our timber have been sent by Samuel Gomper, president of the American Federation of Labor, to William Short, Seattle, president of the Washington Federation of Labor, and to the Seattle local of the International Timberworkers' Union, it was announced here today.

Peaches Reported Short.
BOONVILLE, Aug. 8.—The Hood River valley peach crop of this season will be insufficient for the demands of the local homewives. But one grower, S. G. Oxborough, however, raises peaches on a commercial basis. Other growers have planted a few trees to furnish fruit for home use.

A WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE.
Can you doubt the evidence of this Pendleton woman?
You can verify Pendleton endorse-ment.
Read this:
"Mrs. M. J. Thornton, 712 Calvin St., says: 'Dolan's Kidney Pills are not new in our family and for kidney disorders, they have no equal. About a year ago I had all I could do at times to get around at my work, my back was so weak and lame. When I began on my feet for any length of time, I could hardly get out, and when I got down I could hardly get up again. During this trouble with my back, my kidneys were irregular in action and I felt tired and miserable. I began taking Dolan's Kidney Pills and the first six boxes did me so much I continued to get them. By the time I had taken three boxes of 12 and that was pain in my back had stopped and my kidneys were in good working order.'"

Portland Paying Back Taxes.
PORTLAND, Aug. 8.—Concrete evidence of Portland's wartime prosperity is given in a delinquent tax statement prepared yesterday by Sheriff Harbort. This compilation shows that the total received this year in delinquent taxes has been $219,873.31, which is more than has ever before been received during a corresponding period of time.

Captain Wrecked Ship Sidelined.
A PACIFIC PORT, Aug. 8.—Captain Y. Yamamoto, master of the Japanese steamer Canada Maru, which was recently pulled off the rocks, ended his life early today, because, it was believed here, he feared the disgrace which he thought was upon him for allowing the big boat to go ashore during a heavy fog July 21.
