of corn, compared with 3,159,000,000 bushels a year ago. While these figures have fallen below early expectations they are still much above the average.

If you miss anyone from his usual haunts today it is safe to say he could be found in the foothills hunting grouse.

Heavy casualties are reported today among the grouse as well as from the Huns.

Letters received from the boys in France and the word of observers returning from the war front all tell the tale of the heroic self-sacrifice of Salvation Army men and women. If a detail is marching to battle, somewhere on its way it encounters the Salvation Army lassie with her little cook stove and her pies and coffee and doughnuts. If it is coming back weary and exhausted from the desperate strain of the trenches it is sure to be met on the way by one of these same lassies. The Salvationists have undertaken a big job, and they are doing it well.

It is noted where the kaiser is building larger U-boats. That only means larger targets for the Yankee gunners.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, August 15, 1890.)
 Tom Vanzant, the veteran John, says that roads are "powerful dusty" along his route.
 The handsome residence property of Hon. G. W. Webb on Alta street has been purchased by J. A. Howard and W. W. Roper for $2500.
 The Indian school will reopen September 1 in the old school building on Alta street which will be occupied until the new building is completed.
 Work is progressing on J. Barnhart's new dwelling on Lewis street. The contract will soon be let for another on Stonewall Jackson street.
 The tracks of the man who tried to burn George Kinney's three-story north of town were traced directly to the machine of a rival outfit. There is no proof to convict anyone of the deed.
 Orville White is enjoying a furlough at Spokane Falls.

FOCH SMILES, LOOKS 20 YEARS YOUNGER

PARIS, Aug. 15.—Those who have met Marshal Foch in the last few days are unanimous in declaring that he is in great good humor, according to La Liberté.
 Premier Clemenceau, who dined with the Marshal yesterday, said he found him radiant and looking twenty years younger than when he had last seen him.

The government orders that advertising must be left out of railway time tables. What's going to be left that anybody can understand?

Social Personal

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. King, their daughter, Miss Merle King, and niece, Miss Clara King, of Helix, left today for Portland and coast points where they are to spend the next two or three weeks.

During the absence from the city of Mrs. F. E. King, who is in charge of materials for Red Cross knitting, the work will be obtainable from the women in charge of the workroom of the federal building.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Raymond, Mrs. G. C. Reese and children, Mrs. Josephine Conroy and Mrs. M. P. Baldwin left today by auto for Lehman springs. Mrs. Conroy and Mrs. Baldwin expect to camp at the resort for two weeks, but the rest of the party will return soon.

The Wenaha Camp Fire Girls held their weekly council fire yesterday afternoon in the social room of the Methodist church and an interesting business session was enjoyed and plans for the monthly hike and picnic were discussed and committees appointed. All campfire girls will be notified of the time and place. The girls who are working for fire makers' honors are doing well. These honors are conferred only after twenty elective honors have been won, the girl has been a member of the Camp Fire organization six months, and has made her ceremonial dress and hood and selected a ceremonial name and symbol. The elective honors are won by such accomplishments as winning a swimming race, planning, ordering and preparing a meal, caring for a room for a month, visiting the sick or the making of garments.

Among the girls who are trying for fire makers' honors are Ethel Hawke, Mable Sticker, Evelyn Snyder, Teuressa Thompson, Gladys and Edna Cook, Ruth Taylor, Rachael Falme and Gertrude Jones, and trying for wood gatherers' honors which precede those of the fire builders are Marjorie Finno, Jessie Stacy and Edna Hopper. The chapter plans to hold a grand council meeting in the near future when the honors will be awarded to each girl and a good program is to be given. Mrs. J. L. Howland is guardian of Pendleton's camp fire girls and is making plans for the affair.

ENEMY PEACE MOVE EXPECTED BY FRENCH

PARIS, Aug. 15.—In responsible patriotic circles in France the new German peace offensive, of which there are signs in the enemy press, is more feared than was the crown prince's pocket drive.

Filled with legitimate pride at having beaten the foe on the battlefield, the French do not intend to allow the central powers, by diplomacy and the Kaiser's intrigue to rob them of the fruits of the allied victory. The new Franco-British offensive is the allies' answer to the German tactics efforts to offset the disastrous effects of the crown prince's great failure.

ARMY SHOE

"The greatest improvement in footwear in a generation." This is what experts think of the Munson Last—the principle back of the Buckhecht Army Shoe.

You, too, will like the Buckhecht Shoe. You will like its comfort, its velvety feel, its wear-resisting qualities. And you will say: "Here is a shoe that doesn't crowd or cramp my toes. It gives me the comfort and wear I have a right to expect from my shoes."

Always look for our registered trademark—BUCKHECHT—stamped on every pair. It is our mutual protection.

If your dealer does not sell these shoes, order from us direct. A new pair of your money back if they do not fit.
