EAST OREGONIAN SPECIAL NEWS OF UMATILLA CO.

Clair Sturdivant Says, Write, Write, Write, Everybody Write

(East Oregonian Special.)
UKIAH, Or., Sept. 4.—Clair Sturdivant, one of the young men from this part of Umatilla county who is serving in the navy, is now in foreign waters, where he will be for several months. He closes by saying write, write, write, everybody write. The letter follows:

Somewhere in Foreign Waters,
July 31, 1918.
Dear Ones at Home:
Well, I am a long distance from home now, but am getting along all right, and the ship I am on is a dandy. A person can realize there is a war going on when he gets over here, although I have not seen much of it yet.
We had a fine trip coming over here, and perhaps you won't believe me when I tell you I was not the least bit seasick. Of course we did not have any rough weather, or I guess I would have been. I have not seen very much of this country yet, and don't know how I like it, but if there are any pretty girls over here it will be all right. I would like to tell you just where I am, but am not allowed to.
It will be quite a while before I get back to the good old U. S. A. Perhaps ten or eleven months, anyway.
One thing I can tell you is, that Uncle Sam don't let the boys over here go hungry. We have three good meals a day.
Now, just as soon as you get this letter tell everybody to write. I have not had a letter for a long time.
Don't bother about sending anything to me, only that sweater that Frankie has for me, for I have everything that I need; but write, write, write, everybody write.

CLAIR STURDIVANT,
U. S. S. New York,
Care Postmaster, N. Y.

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK Pendleton, Oregon

"Strongest Bank in Eastern Oregon."

This remarkable photograph—the first to reach America—shows the extent of the American's haul of prisoners in the first big drive on the Marne. These are the fellows who were told by the Kaiser: "The Americans can't fight!" The picture was taken at Longpont, eleven miles southwest of Soissons, shortly after the allies began their drive on July 18, and shows a string of German "bacons," a mile long, marching over the hills with only an occasional armed American to guard them.
